The Christian Woman’s Benevolent Association (C.W.B.A.) was established in 1877 to organize help for women and orphaned children. It grew into a network of 354 organizations in 1921. The C.W.B.A. held its annual meeting in various locations, such as Fort Wayne, Indiana in 1914, and in Cuba in 1943. In 1911, Mrs. Ayars, a member of the association, made a call to sell one’s goods and reception opened for new workers in 1920. The association changed its name to the Christian Woman’s Board of Missions in 1948. The association noted the drouth, Canada’s harvest, and the contributions of numerous members. The association established a missionaries’ center in 1923, and the Jamaica mission in 1875. The association collected gifts for the Christian Hospital. The association’s activities were documented in various issues of the Christian Witness. The association’s name changed to the Christian Woman’s Board of Missions in 1876. The Christian Woman’s Board of Missions of Canada was formed in 1876. The association’s reports were published in various issues, including those of 1879, 1880, 1882, 1885, 1887, and 1890. The association helped in establishing a hospital in Cuba in 1943. The association continued its work in supporting missions and organizing help for women and children. The results of the work were documented in various reports and meetings.
