NATIONAL CONVENTION MONTH

Individual Pledges and Special Gifts

Individuals who promised to give, pastors who made pledges in good faith for their churches, and state officers who felt their respective states would support them, represented a concern for the on-going work of the National Convention. Great assurance for success can be realized when auxiliaries of our local churches and departments of our organized state conventions commit themselves to a portion of our $10,000 budget.

Our picture of progress shows at this mid-point of our convention year that $750 has been paid on individual pledges. This money received is only eleven percent of the total "so-own pledges" made on the convention floor in August. Only through kept commitments and paid pledges can the hope of our National work continue.

Apportionments and Goals

This year it ought to be the aim of each church to raise his apportionment to the National Convention during March which is National Convention month. We distributed at the Indianapolis session of the National Christian Missionary Convention, goal sheets which listed the suggested goals to the National and Unified Promotion for every church in the brotherhood. In October a letter was sent from the Executive Secretary to every pastor stating again the goals for the individual church.

It informs each church of its responsibility to the National Convention and leaves the matter of response to them. The total goal of $10,000 which the churches of our brotherhood must raise can be realized if we accept our share of the responsibility.

General Suggestions for Observance of NCMC Month

The month of March has been designated as the National Christian Missionary Convention month. We hope that many of the churches will pay out their apportionment during this month and every church will strive to raise and report more than their National Convention goal.

1. Publicity in bulletins and special letters or cards to each member of the church.
2. Each organization should exhibit its part in the celebration of the month.
3. National Christian Missionary Convention MY GIFT envelopes should be used by all givers.
4. Special pledges should be taken and paid during the month.
5. Remittances should be made to Dr. J. E. Walker, 480 Linden Ave., Memphis, Tennessee.

JAMAICANS SENDS THANKS FOR HURRICANE RELIEF

By MRS. LOUISE MOSELEY
United Christian Missionary Society
222 S. Downey Ave.
Indianapolis 7, Ind.

Funds raised by churches of Disciples of Christ for relief and rehabilitation in Jamaica following the August hurricane are being sent immediately upon receipt to the Disciples Jamaica Mission. The United Christian Missionary Society, which is conducting the emergency relief drive, has had letters of thanks from the churches in Jamaica. These letters are addressed to Disciple missionary, Evert C. Millard, who handles distribution of food, used clothing and medicines to the storm victims. Excerpts from three of the letters follow:

"Rev. and Dear Sir: We, the officers and members of the Mount Zion Christian Church hereby kindly ask you to convey thanks to those Christians here and abroad who have kindly sent us their numerous gifts after the recent hurricane. We also wish you God's blessings..."

"Dear Sir: We, the members of the Providence Christian Church hereby express our sincere thanks and gratitude to you and the United Society for the very generous help we have received through you in our time of need. We are deeply thankful to you, sir, for the interest you have shown in us in our time of hardship..."

"Dear Sir: We, the members of the Chesterfield Christian Church hereby wish to express to you our deepest appreciation and gratitude for all the help we have received through you in our time of need. We are deeply thankful to you, sir, for the interest you have shown in us in our time of hardship..."

MRS. MARY POLLARD RETURNS

Mrs. Mary Pollard, a Disciple missionary, to India from 1923 to 1928, is returning to that mission field under the United Christian Missionary Society. She plans to sail from New York shortly after the first of February, and will go at once to her new work in Takhatpur, M. P., India.

As Mary Hill, she served in the Bina Mission and later taught in Bussarm Memorial Girls School at Bilaspur. In 1928 she married Mr. Arnold R. Pollard, a British government engineer who was stationed in Bilaspur. The Pollards continued to live in India until 1937. They went to Scotland in 1938 and lived in Edinburgh until 1946 then came to the United States to take up residence in California. Mr. Pollard passed away in Dinuba, California in 1947.

Mrs. Pollard has served as state secretary of women's work of the Christian churches of Northern California since 1948.

INTERFAITH VISIT—Dr. Nelson Glueck, president of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, America's only seminar of Reform Judaism, welcomes Dean Rembert E. Stokes and students from Payne Theological Seminary of Wilberforce University, Wilberforce, O., to the campus of the Cincinnati school. The Christian seminarians toured the campus this month, visiting classes, lunching with rabbinic students in the dormitory and inspecting the Library, Museum and research center, American Jewish Archives. Standing, left to right, Dean Stokes and Dr. Glueck.

Bible School Appointment

A. C. STONE

Dear Superintendent:

I have been appointed by the Planning Commission to contact you in regards to your Sunday School appointment for the National Convention. At our committee meeting in December in Cincinnati, Ohio, we studied your church roll and found that ten cents from each member is more than enough to pay your National appointment for the year. I would appreciate it if you will set up a finance committee in your local church for the purpose of collecting this ten cents from each member on your church roll, whether they attend church school or not.

The first report from your committee will be due February 15, 1952. The suggested roll for your church to the National Convention is unified budget and the goal for the youth group of your church is $—.

Enclosed you will find a quarterly report blank and a stamped self addressed envelope to Dr. J. E. Walker, National Convention treasurer. Please mail your report to Dr. Walker, 430 Linden Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee. Report the amount of money you have collected by that time, even if it is only ten cents. A first report is very important and we shall expect it for the amount collected no matter how large or small.

I believe you can agree with me that we are making a mockery of Christian service when we will not support the fine program of Christian Education that our brotherhood provides. I know that you are one superintendent I can count on to secure your National appointment. When we go to California in August we want to be able to hold our heads up with pride when the report from the department of Christian Education is read. May I express my appreciation for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

A. C. Stone

N. T. FUDGE, Reporter

The Clark St. Church is still progressing under the leadership of our new pastor, Eld. T. R. Moore, who began his pastorate here Sept. 9. Installation services were held Oct. 16-21 with different churches appearing on the program, $184.00 was raised. On Sunday afternoon we had as our guest speaker Rev. Sandlin of the Central Christian Church.

Our church has taken on new life and all services were well attended. On the first Sunday in December we had three additions, one by baptism. All auxiliaries are working under the slogan "The whole church at the whole task." Eld. Moore is not only pastoring Clark St., but is also making his ministry felt throughout the city.

The church has as its objective the remodeling of the parsonage at a cost of some $1200.00. Eld. Moore has been chosen Dean of the Ministerial Alliance. We are happy to have Eld. Moore and his good wife, they have meant so much to the church. At our watch meeting service we baptized one and reclaimed one. The first Sunday in January an offering was taken for the parsonage repairing. We raised $87.50. We have had eleven additions since Eld. Moore assumed this pastorate.

Jarvis College Choir
In Tulsa Concert

The Jarvis Christian College Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Eugenia Brown, was presented in a concert November 26, 1951, at the Carver Junior High School Auditorium, Tulsa, Okla., by the Pine Street Christian Church, where E. W. James is the minister. The choir gave an excellent performance before a large appreciative audience.

The students and teachers were guests in the homes of the church members and friends. They were ideal guests. Their departure while in Tulsa spoke loudly for the training program of Jarvis College and the president, Dr. J. H. B. Eubanks.

Campbell Home Report

A good beginning has been made on the campaign for funds to restore the old home of Alexander Campbell at Bethany, W. Virginia. More than $46,000.00 has been given in cash and pledges by individuals and churches.

A total of $150,000.00 must be secured to do the work. $50,000.00 of this amount is being set aside as endowment to help provide for perpetual care of the home. The project includes the hexagonal study of Alexander Campbell, the remaining timbers of the old Brush Run Church, the school building where the Campbell children learned to read and to write, the spring house and smoke house, walkway to cemetery and repairs on its walls, landscaping of grounds, as well as the old home itself with its 27 rooms.

Now let us finish the job! Every church should have a part in this significant project. If your church has not yet sent in an offering, then plan to do so between now and June 30. Set aside one Sunday as Campbell Home Day in your church.

United Promotion Announces
National Essay Contest

Announcement of a national essay contest has been made by United Promotion. The theme of the contest is Christian Stewardship. Undergraduate students enrolled in church-related colleges are eligible to compete.

The purpose of the contest is to stimulate interest in the broad field of Christian stewardship. For many years church leaders have recognized that one of the greatest needs of our church is a better understanding of the Christian philosophy of ownership and the stewardship of time, talents and money. It is expected that the essay contest will.

The other brotherhood churches of Tulsa expressed a most cordial welcome to the Jarvis representatives. Jarvis College is indeed worthy of all our praise and support. The financial proceeds from the concert went to the aid of Jarvis Christian College and to the Building Fund of the Pine Street Christian Church.

Dr. Eubanks was guest speaker in the morning worship at the Pine Street Church on November 25 and the College Choir rendered special music.

The Seven Steps: Doing Something For The Soul of Man

By J. E. BANKS
Bluefield, W. Va.

If we are to do anything for God and souls, it must be now. A little later it may be too late. There is no time to delay, we must work now for the night cometh when no man can work. Disciple making is primarily a Layman's task. In the New Testament we read about Andrew, an ordinary fisherman, who is noted for his personal Evangelism. Laymen could do well to pattern after Andrew in winning souls to Christ.

To do this we must tell them how to get into the Church and how to stay there after they get in.

The Bible is the only source of information; if the Bible does reveal a plain way (Mark 16:16) man's part is and must be plain.

God's part may be deep and many times mysterious, we need not stumble, if what we are to do is plain.

Many people, young people especially, think that to become Christians means only to give up something, to make sacrifice. The fact is, that it is almost a matter of receiving benefits which we could not get from any other source.

The First Step...

Man must hear God's word. Refusal or neglect to hear will not be sufficient excuse (Rom. 10:17).

The Second Step...

Faith in Christ with the whole heart; Belief of God's Word about Christ (Heb. 11:16).

The Third Step...

Repentance of sin against Christ. One might be sorry for, and repent of, the sin regarding some neighbor or an earthly father or brother, but God also asks for repentance of sin in regards of Christ (Acts 17:30). Repentance is a decision to accept God's way. Anyone can repent now if he will.

The Fourth Step...

Open confession of Faith in Christ with the mouth before men (Rom. 10:9-10; Matt. 10:32).

The Fifth Step...

Burial with Christ by Baptism (Acts 2:37, 38; Rom. 6:3, 4; Col. 2:12; Gal. 3:27; Matt. 28:18-20).

The Sixth Step...

The Christian Life. There is one book Acts, which tell how to become a Christian. There are twenty one books or letters, the Epistles, telling how to live the Christian life (Rom. 12:2; 2 Peter 1:5-11).

The Seventh Step...

Continuing to the end (Rev. 2:10).

National Laymen's League Issues Bulletin

BRETHREN:

Several weeks ago I listened to the scholarly and eminent Dr. Benjamin Mays, President of Morehouse College and a world figure in matters of religion. Dr. Mays talked to an assembled Baptist Convention on what was being done by his church in support of education. Space will not permit telling you all that was said but one thing was pointed out... "the churches that supported our schools immediately after the civil war were not wealthy churches nor were they as large as many of our present day churches. If it had not been for those churches, schools like Fisk University, Atlanta Baptist College (Morehouse), LeMoyne College, Carver, Hampton, Wilberforce and many others would never have been able to produce the Negro leadership that has existed for the past half century. Take the men and women who have been trained by these schools out of Negro life in this country and what would we have today. The point is, by comparison our churches of today are not doing what they should toward education and this is dangerous. Education today needs the steadying influence of the church more than ever before in the history of this country.

The Taylor Memorial Fellowship House Library Project is not a major effort in the support of education. It is merely a small effort on the part of the National Laymen's League to provide a library room for young ministerial students who live at the Taylor Memorial House and attend Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana. Will you please put this project of raising $2000 to furnish a library room in this house for these students before your congregation for honest consideration. Surely we can raise $2000 through our organization for this worthy purpose.

We are asking for an amount equivalent to fifty cents for each male member (adult) in your church. The following churches have reported on their initial efforts. ARE YOU WILLING TO MEET THIS CHALLENGE TO DO SOMETHING FOR EDUCATION IN YOUR CHURCH?

Send your money to Dr. J. E. Walker, National Treasurer Box 241, Memphis, Tennessee. Send a copy of your report (not money) to me at the undersigned address.

CHRISTIAN FAITH IN ACTION

There have been many Biblical personalities who put faith into action. We shall mention just a few:
First, Abie’s faith went into action when he offered unto God the proper type of sacrifice. Abraham’s faith ought into action when he obeyed
God’s call and went out into a country unknown to himself. Noah activated his faith when through all kinds of discouragements and ridiccule, built the ark that resulted in the saving of a remnant of the human race. Thee are others too nu-nerus to mention. Let us mention a few of the faithful women of our Bible. Ruth, because she dared to put her faith into action, became the an-estress of David the Psalmist and ancestor of our Christ. Esther, the Jewish maiden, because of her great faith, because the queen of Persia and later was instrumental in saving her people by the activation of her faith.

CHRISTIAN FAITH IN ACTION

are the child of God and therefore brothers and sisters of another. One great man has said: “All tears have the same taste.” The C. W. F. has done great good in many parts of the world

“The Home, School, and Community”

As we close our celebration of American Education Week, we are very happy to come before you to let you know some of our discussions.

We all have a home, school, and community, and we should make them what they should be. A home means a place where a whole family lives. Father, mother, and child en are found in most homes. They should love each other and I’ve peacefully together. When mother and father disagree, the children disagree too, and this will make an unhappy home.

Our parents should keep peace among the other members of the faily. In order to have a wonderful, parents should educate their child on
We cannot be progressive if our pa-ents fail to give us a good education.

We all live in a community, and we can make our community a better place in which to live. Even though we are small, we can do many things to improve our community. We can help the sick, the poor, and the unfortunates. We can do many things for older people who need our assistance.

When we help others, some day someone will help us. We should all make our community attractive and we can do this by making our homes, schools, and other places beautiful.
We should love our homes, schools and communities, and we should be loyal to them.

own country, as well as lands abroad, would be very dark without schools, hospitals, clinics, churches, and consecrated Christian workers.

Yes, without Christian Faith in Action. In our own state and country, the missionary spirit has aided in changing attitudes and removing aversions. From this missionary spirit many women have come forth with enlarged visions and deepened spiritual insight and real desire to help others to have a fuller, a more abundant life. Through the spirit of the Christian Women's Fellowship, recently, there sprang forth one of our own group with a burning desire to serve others. This person, Miss Herterene Turner, is now serving in the blighted areas of Mexico. Christian Faith in Action.

May we as Christian women exercise this great law of love in our lives. Jesus went into all the cities and healed their sick and diseased. We, who are privileged and have the opportunities, must recognize our solemn obligation to serve others. A very weighty responsibility rests upon the shoulders of the C. W. F. and Y. C. M. God is depending upon us as Christian women to lift the church to a new spiritual height. Will you meet and accept the challenge? Will you put your Christian Faith into Action? He went into their synagogues and preached and taught. God wants us to have a spiritual awakening and a more sententious awareness of Him and live accordingly.

All of us are distressed at the state of the world in which we live. The Spirit of Christ, in hearts of men everywhere, is the only cure for the ills of the world. Our faith must be put into action. A great moral and spiritual deficiency has resulted because too many of us have become worshipers of men and things; rather than worshipers of God. We must build up a faith in God that Christ and the authority of His message as the solution for all of the problems of humanity. We must accept and practice the scripture that says: "Even so faith, if it has not works, is dead, being alone." James 2:17. We must be used of God, in the earth, to spread His Kingdom. God must use our eyes, our ears, our feet, our hands, and our mouths. Our whole selves. The success of the Kingdom of God, in the earth, depends on both our having the power faith and the expressing of that faith effectively in loving service to and for others. This must be the spirit of every Christian.

Jesus went into all their cities and into their Synagogues, preaching the gospel of the Kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. May I close by quoting this poem:

"I heard Him Call
Come Follow, that was all
My soul grew dim
My heart went out to Him
I arose and followed
That was all
Who would not follow
If they heard Him Call?"

In 1952 will the refugees in Palestine, European camps and Korea continue to exist in abject poverty, without adequate food, clothing or shelter, or will they discover that their Christian friends have not abandoned them?

Your answer to the tragic plight of these desperate people will be made through enthusiastic participation in your local church's observance of the Week of Compassion, February 17-24. The brotherhood goal of $500,000 will be raised as members of our congregations, Sunday schools and church organizations make generous and sacrificial contributions. This year's Week of Compassion gifts will be distributed to provide aid to (1) refugees (like those illustrated) through the World and National Councils of Churches, (2) chaplains and women of the armed forces, some of whom are shown worshipping in the strawthatched chapel on the Parallel in Korea) and industrial defense workers, and (3) ecumenical agencies like the American Bible Society and the International Missionary Council for emergency services.

There is a great opportunity to change the world, to be used of God, and to extend our ecumenical witness, strengthen the faith and witness of others, and contribute positively to world understanding. If you care, you will share!

State Board Meeting

MRS. ISABELL BATTs
First Vice-President of C. W. F.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:

It would be an interesting experience for all of our missionary sisters across the state to attend one of our STATE BOARD meeting, and to meet each missionary sister, and especially our president, Mrs. T. R. Everett, who is trying very hard to make this the Banner Year for the C. W. F.

Oct. 27th, The State Board met at P-all St. in Lexington, Ky. Mrs. T. Everett, president of C. W. F., presided.

The State project for the first half of the year is to send money to the Taylor Memorial Home, Indianapolis, Ind.

The following plans were presented by our president:
1. That each local C. W. F. have a reporter to send news to the State paper monthly.
2. That all departments together purchase a mimeograph machine to be used at the convention.
3. That we continue the work of the key women.
4. That we continue the scholarship fund.
5. That each local society make a scrap book containing only the work done this year.

Mrs. Ella M. Alco served as our hostess.

Women's National Project

By ANNABELLE JACKSON, National Director

DEAR CO-WORKERS:

Many of you already reached this meeting. She served as president of the missionary society for a number of years. We were all very glad to see her.

We are asking all to pray for a successful year in our missionary work; for the harvest is indeed ripe, but the laborers are few. It is sincerely hoped that the women of the churches will accept these plans willingly and enthusiastically, and that they will try hard to follow plans that our president has given. Ever remember that mission and prayer—go hand and hand, and without the “Saviour” and constant communion with Him no genuine missionary work can be done.

So, women of Kentucky, let us all rally to the cause and make this a Banner Year for the C. W. F., so that at its completion we shall all experience the feeling of satisfaction comes from the knowledge of a job WELL DONE.

Christian Education

L. J. EVANS, NAT’L DIR.

DEAR CO-WORKERS:

As we face the year together I am sure that it holds many opportunities for service. I want to take this opportunity to express to all of you my personal appreciation for the very fine cooperation made by you to the Christian Educational Program of the National Christian Missionary Convention.

Last year was a very good year in many ways, increased attendance in young people’s summer conferences, Chi-Rho Camps, character bond giving, superintendents retreats, state planning committees and commissions, national fall planning conference and our first commission meeting. This advance in our program was made possible by all of you. Whether you the goal that was suggested for you and others have not. In any case, let us not cease in our efforts to make the Kingdom real to all people.

Our National Project, The Taylor Memorial Fellowship House, is still under way. Even though the object was supposed to have closed on December 31, we will be only too happy to accept any contribution you might have to offer after that date. The Taylor Memorial House was dedicated for the purpose of housing those students who are primarily interested in the ministry and the field of Christian Education.

When we realize the great need of Ministers in our brotherhood, that alone should serve as an incentive for us, as Christian Women, to act. Not Tomorrow but NOW. One verse of a spiritual reads thus: “If you cannot ring like angels, If you cannot dance like Pasha, you can tell the wo’ld of Jesus, Who died to save us all. Likewise we may not all be singers, we may not all be Preachers, but we can help others to tell the Message of Jesus through our financial contributions.

Especially as we approach the Christmas Holidays we should be reminded that there are those who need our help. This is the time when all need should rejoice at the thought of Christmas and the glorious occasion which it represents. People who are cold and hungry cannot do too much rejoicing.

Our thoughts go back to the City of David, to a little town called Bethlehem, where the Savior of the world was born. Not in a mansion but in a stable. Who could have had a more humble birth? That is a thought to remember as we enter into this yuletide season.

Think of the Mission of Christ and the Commission he gave us, as follows: “We cannot go to every corner of the world, but our dollars can help to send those who are prepared to go.

If we are to make our Christmas Christian, as suggested in the Christian Woman’s Fellowship programs, we must remember that: “The celebration of the birth of Christ has but little meaning apart from a continued allegiance to Him and practical application of Christlikeness. Christ has lived through the years in the hearts of men because He shared Himself. We can serve Christ best by sharing our knowledge of Him and our personalities with others.”

We must work to the end that His goodness might reach all people in land.

SIXTY-TWO MINISTERS ACROSS THE BROTHERHOOD
THESE LEADERS HAVE THE ANSWER

These and other pastors help carry the story of our National Convention program to people in the churches everywhere.

We must have the support of all the churches and fellowships if we are to make this phase of the work of the National Christian Missionary Convention significant.

The various services rendered to the National, state and local groups make strong channels of work in the following areas:

- Assist in organizing Christian Women's Fellowship groups.
- Provide literature for all age levels in missionary study.
- Promote Missions and Missionary Programs.
- Help in the selection and use of program materials.
- Serve in Youth Meets and Retreats.
- Make special calls to schools of missions, institutes and conventions.
- Promote the National Missionary Project.
- Publish Children's Work Fellowship Bulletin.

To this end we must strive toward the goal of enlisting every church woman in a working unit of the Christian Women's Fellowship.

The years ahead of us in the area of Christian Education will increase in the demands of service. If we are to meet these demands, it means that our giving must be increased at least $850.00 each year for the next ten years from our church schools and youth groups. This must be a minimum of our giving for the support of the National Convention program of Christian Education.

Our Editorial

We cannot agree with those who say "Corruption in the Federal Government will be the paramount issue in this year's political campaign." We are, however, just as outraged as anyone else over the five per-centers, the income tax frauds and all of the other corrupt shenanigans going on in Washington. In fact we deplore vice and corruption everywhere, in high places and in low places. But what so many do not seem to realize is that what is happening in Washington is merely a symptom, and before anything of a lasting nature can be done to correct the present state of affairs, we will have to get to the root of the trouble.

To throw the rascals out of Washington and other high places, will not cure the malady. It will bring only temporary relief. Because there are plenty more where they came from just waiting for the opportunity. The real trouble is that we are on the verge of a complete moral break-down in our entire social order. The graft and corruption so prevalent in high school and college athletics, the wide spread attempt to defraud the Government out of income taxes, commercialized gambling in every form, even the private Saturday night poker games that are carried on in some of our most respectable homes where large sums of money are won and lost, the mob violence in Cicero, Ill., and the bombing of homes and churches in Florida, the insidious brand of power politics that is being played by the Nations of the world, the disgraceful treatment of the natives by the Government of South Africa, and the almost equally as bad treatment of their subjects by other Colonial Powers, to say nothing of what is going on right under our noses in many sections of our own Country, especially in the south.

All of these things are a part and parcel of the overall Moral Breakdown in organized social life. And unless and until we get the core, we need not hope for much improvement anywhere. One of the causes for our present predicament is that too many people have attempted to establish a moral and ethical concept separate and a part from personal consecration to God. We just cannot expect people to be honest, just and kind if they are not Christians. Some may be, but we certainly have no right to expect Christian conduct out of un-Christian people, and we should not be surprised when they are not whether they are Democrats or Republicans, Disciples, Methodist or Baptist. Truth, honesty, Justice and Love are Christian Attributes and they know no lines of demarkation, Political, National nor Racial.

We do not believe 15 million loyal American citizens of color are going to be hoodwinked into believing that the most important issue confronting the American people is "who got the mink coat or the biggest bribe for fixing somebody's income tax report." At least not until some of the "Bright and shining examples of moral integrity" do something about Cicero and Miami. And anyone who feels that he can detract that "15 million from its struggle for equal rights and privileges as American citizens by yelling "step thief" is going to be sadly disappointed. Of course we too are mad about someone stealing our tax money, even though we are not in the upper brackets.

We have to scuffle much harder for the few nickels we pay and have a whole lot less left afterward than a lot of others who are yelling the loudest. But if we were permitted to paraphrase Shakespeare or was it (some poor soul that was being oppressed because of his race or color) "He who steals my purse, steals but trash. It were mine, his and a thousand others. But he who robs me of those basic principles of my very existence, Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, takes that which does not make him richer, but makes me poorer indeed. And fighting mad." To us the issue is TRUTH, HONESTY, POLITICAL, ECONOMIC and SOCIAL JUSTICE, THE BROTHERHOOD of MAN and WORLD PEACE.

Things Hoped For

MISS ANNA BELLE JACKSON
Director Missionary
Organization Education

My Dear Co-workers:

Over half of our missionary year has passed. As we think of our missionary theme, "The Assurance of Things hoped for," we can not help but to be made aware of the thousands of people who are hoping for abundant life. Life that can only be made possible as we share in the total program of mission. I am sure that all of us will want to re-dedicate ourselves anew to make possible the "things hoped for," for those who have not been able to hear the good news.

Certainly this program of world wide missions can not be carried out without your wholehearted support. We need your moral, spiritual and above all, your financial strength in this task. Not with pennies, not with dimes, but with dollars.

Your suggested goals as achieved is an expression of your faith. This is a job that we all must do, if the things hoped for, are to be realized. Others will be able to know this assurance only as your giving makes it possible.

I know you will want to get your contribution in on the earliest possible date, before June 30 of this year. You have my most earnest prayers that you might reach your goal.

Virginia State College Choir
Gives Concert
At Loudon Ave.
ROANOKE, VA.
Roanoke was graced with the finest Collegiate Music on February 8, in a long, long while. The proficiency of both conductor and choir was superb and kept the listeners constantly on the very edge of their seats. Conductor Robert A. Henry showed very expert ability in bringing out great volume and tones from the choir with very little movement of hands or body.

The affair was well attended by all groups of people who practically filled the auditorium. All seemed to have enjoyed it and went away startled at the performance of the group.

The choir rendered, with great elegance, great numbers such as Christiansen’s “Beautiful Savior” and the Norwegian “Echo Song” by Aschenbrenner, both of which acclaimed all of the people attention.

The pastor and officials of the church wish to thank the members and many friends who helped to make the concert one to be long remembered.

Women’s Project For Taylor Memorial Fellowship House

By MISS JACKSON

Dear Co-workers:

Since our convention in August you have been reading about the National project sponsored by the Missionary Organizations-Department of the National Christian Missionary Convention, THE TAYLOR MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP HOUSE in Indianapolis, Indiana.

You have made a grand showing thus far, and I know that you will be very happy to read the names of the contributing societies.

These are the contributions received as gifts for the House:

May I take this opportunity to thank each organization for participating and responding commendably to this worthy project. It is wonderful to know that YOU have had a hand in preparing young men for the call of the ministry. Surely the call is great and we can not do too much to see that others are trained for this most needed task.

“God be merciful unto you and bless you and cause His face to shine upon you, that His way may be known upon earth, His saving health among all nations, through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Amen.

THE TAYLOR MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP HOUSE, Indianapolis, Ind.
EVERY CHURCH SHOULD RECEIVE A SPECIAL OFFERING ON EASTER.

Many people are anxiously awaiting the sharing of our Christian beliefs on Easter Sunday. There are over 127 aged ministers and missionaries, or their widows, depending on checks from Ministerial Relief for food and shelter. Many now receive less than $50 a month, and this is their only means of support! There are thousands of underprivileged persons, mostly members of minority groups, served by our institutional missions, where they receive Christian nurture and training. Children almost beyond counting, living in scores of new communities, await the organization of Sunday Schools and the building of new churches.

These are but a few of the needs which should be met through our concern and generosity at the Easter season. All offerings sent to the cooperating causes, or Unified Promotion, is credited as regular missionary offering. Helpful materials, including coins, boxes, envelopes, explanatory leaflets, teachers manuals etc. are available free to all churches, and may be obtained either through the state office or direct from Unified Promotion Box 5635, Indianapolis 19, Indiana.

Mr. S. J. Chandler, Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Bro. Chandler,

I read your report of churches reporting on the Library Project for the Taylor Memorial Fellowship House. As the Minister of Gay-Lea Fellowship, I want you to know I have made up my mind to see that Gay-Lea gives more than $4.00. You can look for more money from our church this month.

I am yours for the Kingdom of God,

Lawrence E. Hall

Calling Preachers

Eld. T. R. EVERETTE
KENTUCKY

Dr. Luke says "For as much as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us," I do not think it amiss to write upon some of the things that are believed and practiced among us.

First, I must say that the idea of God calling a man to preach—"I feel that this phrase or idea has been overworked, or misunderstood. Paul wrote Romans 11:29, "For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance." This scripture does not refer to the calling of one into the ministry but the apostle is dealing with two nationalities, the Jew and the Gentile. He's bringing them into the one branch, the Church.

I am using "calling" to explain a common phrase that is much misinterpreted. The most of us have been taught or brought up to believe that God calls men to the ministry in a mysterious way, or rather one must have some premonition or mystical operation must present itself to one before he really is sure of his call. All such belief is not in harmony with the teachings of God's word.

The scriptures say: Matthew 28:19-20 “Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all thing, whatsoever I have commanded you and lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world.” This is the only call that God makes. The man or woman who really has repented their sins and have obeyed the Master in all of his requirements for disciple’ship, is as surely called as was Moses when God spoke to him at Horeb out of the burning bush. The call comes when everyone looks out on the field, sees it white unto harvest, and realizes the need of works and is so deeply concerned about the matter that they want to do something about it and are not satisfied until they see something being done. Like the women that were first at the sepulcher. They were early there but there was some hindrance. They said “Who will roll away the stone?"

They pushed on and behold the stone had been removed, and a messenger sat theron and talked with them and console them and said for them to “go on your way and tell his disciples that He goeth before you into Galilee.” Such is the call today if you believe that He has risen from the dead. Go tell the story in love and persuasion, and God will take care of the rest.

Delegates To CYF Commission

Dear Co-worker:

SPOAP of the International CYF has been changed to allow one young person from each convention area to attend the Commission. Previously we were allowed twelve delegates and they were elected at the National Convention, in its annual session, by the young people in attendance. In many instances the person elected did not represent the thinking of the people of the state. Therefore, since each convention will be allowed one person, it will be the responsibility of that state to elect its own representative to the commission.

I should think that the person should be an active young person in the state and local church program, and should be one who knows the youth work and of the CYF age from sixteen to twenty-four. This person should be selected as soon as possible and send the name and address to this office.

If you fail to elect your representative, then your state will not be represented into the Commission. Previously we (Continued on Page 6)

CHRISTIAN BOARD of Publication-St. Louis 3, Mo.
Race Relations Day Observed At Loudon Ave.

Sunday, February 10, proved to be a very high day for the Loudon Avenue Christian Church. The morning worship was highlighted with a celebration of Boy Scout Sunday, having many Scouts and Cubs represented in the service. Both groups took part in the morning's worship by repeating their oath and saluting the two newly purchased flags as the organist played a patriotic hymn. The audience stood during the ceremony. The message for the morning was centered around Character Building Organizations.

Perhaps the highest point of the day was when a big Trailway Bus arrived from Lynchburg, Va., full of students and officials from Lynchburg College, at 2:30 p.m. for a Race Relation worship service. The services got underway at 3:00 p.m. and was greatly pointed up with both music, coming from the College Choir, and a message coming from Dr. Ovville Wake, president of Lynchburg College. Dr. Wake spoke on the subject, "The Compassionate Christ."

The message brought by Dr. Wake was very pointed in that it brought out the fact that Christ was compassionate toward all groups, especially when they had the wrong concept of life.

Dr. Wake's brother, Mr. Author Wake, was the conductor of the Touring Choir and showed quite a bit of efficiency in having the Choir present such numbers as Bach's "New Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" and "The Omnipotence" by Schubert.

Centennial

on Jan. 27 the beginning of Youth Week. He brought greetings from Preston-Taylor Home and an inspiring message.

On February 10 Centennial celebrated Race Relations - Boy Scout Sunday by exchanging pulpits with Rev. Thomas Underwood of Compton Heights Christian Church (one of the largest white churches in the city). He brought with him Mrs. E. Boaz, who favored us with a beautiful solo. Approximately fifty Boy Scouts of the near by schools worshipped with us on the same Sunday.

The CYF will send $25.00 towards the CWFF.

Mrs. Fox was the guest speaker for the Christian Women's Fellowship at Union Avenue Christian Church on February 13. She spoke about the Southern Christian Institute.

Our pastor attended the Bi-Annual Conference of the National Council of Christian Churches of America, which was held in Columbus, Ohio. He represented the ministerial department. Mrs. Oneida Reed also attended, representing the Children's Division.

Our Youth also participated in the "Call!" to United Christian Youth Movement. An interracial Youth Rally at Scottish Rite Cathedral on February 3. Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University of Washington, D. C., was the guest speaker.
MISSIONS

As I see it, this is what missions mean.

It is for the young and old I would deem;

No age limit in service for others

In the sight of God all men are brothers.

Missions consist of worship and stewardship.

Evangelism comes into the kinship

Christian Education, part of the plan,

Linked together mean much in the life of man.

Jesus Christ said "Go ye into all the world"

For those who know not, His banner unfurled;

When we do missions, we accept His call,

A plan extended to one and to all.

The above poem composed by "Yours Truly" appeared in the church bulletin December 9, 1951, when the Christian Women's Fellowship observed Woman's Day with Mrs. McEwen Williams as guest speaker. Mrs. Williams teaches at Booker Washington High School, of which our own Elder Blair T. Hunt is principal, and is the wife of Rev. A. McEwen Williams, St. John Baptist Church minister. Mrs. T. R. McLemore, faculty member of LeMoyne College, presented the guest speaker.

Both Mrs. Williams and Mrs. McLemore are active in church and civic affairs. Mrs. Williams chose as her subject "The Christian Woman Goes Shopping"—a unique subject treated in a fine manner. Excerpts from her address follow: "Perhaps all of us should go shopping. What will we shop for? I am completely out of self-respect and tolerance as I should have been. I will look on the rack for tolerance; get samples of peace; we are little short of that and cannot have too much on hand.

"I've got to match patience. I want a garment of long suffering. Must have every day garments of goodness", appreciation and love. Must have sense of appreciation mended—it has grown very, very thin. Get a bolt of faith; it is essential in our home, business, professional and social life.

Sunday night, Elder Harold G. Bundy, Evangelist of the State of Tenne-see, preached a soul stirring sermon.

The Bible School, with Prof. J. A. Swayne as superintendent, ended its annual Fall Drive. The Drive was a success numerically and financially. Money raised during this period was $470.00.

Elder E. K. Burton of Madison, Missouri, was Evangelist for Revival services in October. The old time religion that served our fathers and mothers was advocated by Elder Burton. The Christians were greatly revived, seven (7) converts baptized in addition. Broth-erhood program. Actually it has realized the fact that our CYF treasury is extremely low, that we might help support ourselves as an organization of the National Convention. We are asking each CYF group in your church, we then appeal to the church to make the contribution of $10.00 so that the youth program may continue to grow and grow stronger.

This must be done as soon as possible so the treasurer may report your contribution in his report to the Board of Trustees.

The Falling Leaves

The leaves are falling from the trees. They fall on the hallowed ground. There's beauty in each burnished petal. Scattered hither, they fully abound. In the Fall the trees shed their armor. Through the winter months they lie concealed in the Spring their dresses of greenery stand out apart. God's power revealed.

Loven Elyntia as these

Have been bred as a reminder of His love. We can acknowledge them as such.

The Department of Church Development and Evangelism is only one area in which careful and thorough planning may be transformed into effective service when adequate funds are available from all the churches in every state. Our department gives assistance both orally and actively in several phases of church life including:
- Planning and promoting a National Program of evangelism.
- Local church program planning.
- Enlisting and training local church officers.
- Ministerial recruitment.

Our Editorial

Congratulation to Eld. R. L. Jordan, Pastor of the United Christian Church of Detroit. Only a few men in the history of our Brotherhood have done a better job in building a Christian church than he. From a beginning of five in October, 1936 to more than 350 in 1952, is no mean accomplishment. Likewise the officers and members are to be congratulated. For we all know that no leader can accomplish great things without the loyalty and cooperation of those whom he leads. There must have been a minimum of friction and a large measure of peace and harmony.

We sincerely hope the next 15 years will be as fruitful, and that Eld. Jordan and his family will be blessed for their labors and sacrifices. Eld. Jordan is a Member of the Board of Trustees of the National Christian Missionary Convention, and a former president of the Bible School Department of the National Convention.

Our Readers Say

Editor of Christian Plea:

On reading the Editorial in a former issue of The Plea I took note of what the good lady thought of ordaining men to the ministry that had formal training as so well, it's been said that the lady may have a point there. But if one will turn to Acts 4:13, he will find that Peter and John were ignorant and unlearned men. We don't have any ministers today with all their education that superceded the apostles. If education is the preparation in question here, of course, the apostles were prepared. But who or what prepared them? What did you do, Jesus, to prepare these men? I chose them out of the world and went over the country teaching the people the nature of the Kingdom of Heaven. Then just prior to my ascension I told them in Luke 18:3 that they would receive power after the Holy Ghost is come upon you and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem and in Judea and in Samaria and unto the uttermost part of the earth. I'm just wondering if ¼ of the present-day ministers have the above preparation. This Holy Spirit preparation is the kind that's going to take us up the road. The most good that educating preparation will do us is to prepare us for something in this world. But it won't do to carry up before that Sacred Judge. Don't get me wrong right here. I believe in education, but I don't believe in it to the extent that it will prepare one or one especially needs it to prepare him for the ministry. One among the best ministers that I have ever known in the 56 years of my Christian life was a man that had just a rural school learning and none too much of that. Since our ministry is in reality at a low ebb, I would love to hear from some of the Brethren on this subject. It's very important, Brother ministers.

Yours in Christ

UFU Appeal

RUBY RAMSEY, Pres.

Dear Ministers, Presidents, Officers and Members:

We are approaching our National Convention, and there is a lot of work to be done. We are making this appeal to all ministers and ushers boards to fully organize your groups and work out programs to raise your National Convention goal.

The financial goal for the Ushers' Fellowship is $250.00. Each local board is asked to raise its goal of $30.00 per year. We are urging each board to try to complete its goal not later than April 18th and send it to the National Convention treasurer, Dr. J. E. Walker, 480 Linden Ave., Memphis 1, Tenn., not later than April 30th.

We did not reach our goal last year, so fellow-workers help us to do so this year.

Our National project for 1952 is The Christian Plea. Every usher's pledge is to subscribe for the Plea this year if you have not already done so. You will hear more about this project at a later date.

We are looking forward to seeing every usher in Los Angeles, California, in August of this year.

Very truly yours,

Ruby Ramsey, Pres.

Elma M. Dupree, Sect.

Maple Street

The Maple Street Christian Church at Lockland, Ohio is really making progress under the leadership of their new pastor, Robert L. Brown, and his wonderful wife, Vera Mae Brown.

The Maple Street Church at Lockland, Ohio has been ten years old. Since the arrival of Rev. Brown additions to the church. The attendance and finances have increased greatly. Services are held twice per Sunday and prayer service on Wednesday evenings. A well rounded church program is being carried out.

Rev. Brown and family have very recently moved into the parsonage which is a few doors from the church. Plans are being formulated for the remodeling of the church building in the early Spring.

Mrs. Brown has organized a Junior Choir which is really doing nicely and adding much to the church. She transferred his membership from services. Mr. Elliot, who recently Covington to Lockland, purchased some material and his daughter-in-law made some beautiful robes for the Juniors.

The people have been wonderful and have taken a lot of interest in their pastor and his family. Seemingly, the people have a mind to work. The spirit of Jesus seems to be there and they should really grow and grow for Jesus "in the valley."

Detroit United Christian 15th Anniversary

United Christian Church commemorated 15 years of organizational life, and 15 years of the Pastorate of R. L. Jordan Feb. 17 - 29th. This congregation was organized by R. L. Jordan Feb. 28, 1937 with 20 persons. It has a membership of more than 350. From a budget of $150.00 annually today its budget is more than $8,000.00.

Ministers of various Church bodies participated nightly in the two weeks celebration. Sunday, 11 a.m. Feb. 24 - Dr. Willard M. Wickzier, Executive Sec. of the Home Missions Dept. of United Christian Missionary Society, preached the Anniversary Sermon. For several years the Home Missions Dept. supported this congregation.

The celebration closed Friday evening 7 p.m., with its 15th Annual Banquet. More than 200 persons filled the beautifully decorated dinning room to capacity. Members of Central Woodward Christian Church, Bethany Christian Church and the North Western Christian Church were in attendance. Rev. Louis O. Mink, gave the Invocation and Benediction. The Principal Address was delivered by the Hon. John B. Martin Jr. of Grand Rapids, Mich., Auditor General of the State of Michigan.

This congregation has 28 unit groups within its organizational framework. Mr. Jordan, organizer and church pastor for 15 years, was given a purse of $200.00 in recognition of his years of service. Mrs. Jordan was presented an orchid as a token of affection from the Employed Women's Club of the Church. More than $1000.00 was raised during the two weeks celebration. 1939 - the congregation purchased its first building for $3500.00, 1947 its present church home was purchased at a cost of $40,000.00.

Anniversary Committee - Chairman, Mr. Victor L. Hicks, Co-Chairman, Mr. John L. Johnson; Mr. Graham Q. Daniels, Mr. Ulises S. Harvey, Mrs. Woodie Mae Hardy, Mrs. Mable Anderson, Mr. Narry K. Bradley, Mr. Sidney Montgomery, Mrs. B. Ruth Cotter, Mrs. Daisy Gregory, Mrs. Willa Mae Johnson, Mr. Benjamin Strickland, Mrs. Ether Barksdale, Mrs. Sadie L. News From CYF President

Dear Co-workers: If it were not for the change of the quarter, I'm afraid I would not get to drop you these few lines. Very little news has come to me about how you are getting along in your C. Y. F. meetings, either locally or on state level.

The Jarvis College C. Y. F. presented the skit, "Why Missionaries" over station JCC which turned out to be very effective. They used it as an introduction to the observance of Youth Week.

Once in a while Ken and I together get the ball to rolling around here. I wish all of you could be in our C. Y. F. meeting. Clear water doesn't run smooth. Charles "Ceas-tos" Mills, one of our national youth work director, (you remember he and Al Pennybocker from our convention?) was here a few weeks ago. He showed us a movie, "Report From Mexico." I hope all of you get the chance to see this.

I wonder if our male sponsor is still suffering from the Missouri flood. We haven't heard from him. Also, our Missouri state president must be frozen in. But the cold weather in Indianapolis doesn't worry the C. Y. F. members there. They have elected new officers. Eddie Lee Evans is the president. I think we will go back to Indianapolis for the convention again. Ken and I were up during the Christmas holidays. Very little can be said about Oklahoma, California, Kentucky, Alabama, Mississippi, Michigan, and Ohio because something seems to happen to the mail between those states and 222 South Downey. Mrs. Ada Thompson, one of our adult advisors, has been ill; therefore, unable to correspond. Can we forget how adaptable she was at the commission and convention last year? Let's flood 4101 Byron, Indianapolis, Indiana with letters of cheerfulness. Have Floyd Osburn and Gene Mosley been drafted? We can't hear from them but we certainly have some fine representation of their work on our campus.

When you see Gene and Floyd, tell them they are holding up progress. Sometimes I wonder about Miss Edith Bristowe. Does she know that William Edwards is here from Kentucky? He claims that he had been in C. Y. F. meetings by taking the leading role (shortly after he came to the campus) in the skit, "Why Missionaries." Louise Harris, our national secretary writes that work in her district is going fine. She said new members have been added, new planning has been done, therefore, with her being president we have no doubts of Christian-like progress. Let's say luck to "Lue."

Just one question, how well are you able to use the Fellowship handbook which outlines the C. Y. F. program for each Sunday? Those of you who are in small churches and rural areas, does this fit you or is it too large? I have been a bit worried about this thing. Let me hear from you soon.

Please don't fail to send someone to commission and convention this year. Great things are planned at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana, August 18th and I dare mention the wholesome fellowship planned for the convention which will be held at Los Angeles, California. Strange things happen everyday. This year the commission and Convention meet on the same date in two extreme places, so your prayer, being Christ-like, plant to form a miracle on August 17. I'll just fall to pieces so that I might be both places at one time. Hoping this will be a reminder to those I haven't heard from recently and an answer to those I have heard from. I'll look forward to seeing you partly in Indiana and California.

Your C. Y. F. Prexy, Willietta Schley.

Lincoln Avenue Christian Church

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO

The Lincoln Avenue Church is moving forward under the leadership of H. Earl Jackson, who has been our pastor for 14 months. He has preached his first sermon. The message was so inspiring he received invitations to speak at other churches. He had time to fill one engagement. He accepted the one from Mt. Hermon Holiness Church, weather the church was filled and Elder Dingle, pastor. In spite of the meeting was a success both spiritual and financial.

Mrs. Smith is matron at the Preston Taylor Memorial Fellowship Home. This home is the property of the National Christian Missionary Convention of Disciples of Christ. Mrs. Smith will enter Indiana State Business College where she will finish her business course.

Louisa County, Va.

Elder B. A. Douglass came to us in June, 1950. Under his leadership we have built a new brick church, one of the best in Louisa County. The membership has increased. We have had one of the most successful year's work in the history of the church. The Lord is blessing the work in a wonderful way.

The church was dedicated Sunday, May 12, 1952, closing with a Building Fund Rally of $825.

Elder Douglass completed his theological work at the Hoods Theological Seminary, Salisbury, North Carolina. Elder Douglass is trustee of The Winston-Salem Bible College, Winston-Salem, N. C. He is vice-president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Concord.

Elder Douglass returned to Concord recently from a meeting of the Christian Missionary Fellowship in Michigan and Ohio. He visited in these two states a number of churches in interest of the Winston-Salem Bible College.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Smith spent the holidays in Reidsville with their parents and friends. Mr. Smith is the son of Mrs. Lula Smith. He is a student at Butler University School of Religion, Indianapolis, Indiana. While here he was ordained an elder. The ordination service was performed by his pastor, Elder M. L. Lambeth and Elder W. H. Brown, pastor of Cleveland Avenue Christian Church, Winston-Salem, N. C. Officers and members of the various churches in the city were present to witness the occasion. After the ordination Elder Smith preached his first sermon. The message was so inspiring he received invitations to speak at other churches. He had time to fill one engagement. He accepted the one from Mt. Hermon Holiness Church, weather the church was filled and Elder Dingle, pastor. In spite of the the meeting was a success both spiritual and financial.

The Bible School, under the leadership of Mrs. W. J. Ayers, is doing a good job. Our attendance for the year increased from 1960 to 2196. The offering average $5.25 per Sunday.

Our CYF is going forward under the leadership of Mrs. Charles Rainey. Joan Lytle attended the International CE meet in Grand Rapids last year because our CYF had the highest number of points in a contest conducted by the Lookout. Brownlee Bell attended Youth Meet at Girard, Ohio, Feb. 15-17. We plan to send some of our young people to Youth Conference at Camp Christian this summer.

The pastor is conducting two study groups: Church Doctrine on Wednesdays and The Church Board at Work.

Elder W. J. Ayers teaches “New Training Service” each Lord’s Day at the Sunday School hour and also the “Church and Its Program” to a group of CWF.

Mrs. H. E. Jackson teaches “Beginning at Jerusalem” in the Missionary Group of the CWF.

The Missionary Committee is doing a fine piece of work in promoting a better missionary spirit in the church. They have sent several “CARE” packages to Korea and Europe; sent relief to Jamaica; have given over $72.00 in local help. The church contributed $100.00 to Christian Church and Bible School on its Building Fund. They also have sent money to UCMS.

The 90-9 Club of CMF are not moving fast, but are on the move. They contributed money for the redecorating of Bible School Department and kitchen and did much of the work.

Elder Jackson, by his strong doctrine sermons, has helped all of us to see the real purpose of the church more clearly, that we are to grow to be like Christ if we are to have a strong church.

We will celebrate our 26th Anniversary this year. We have not yet reached the hundred mark in membership; we have 11 more to win for Jesus.

Our next objective is a revival for the winning of souls. And to raise $2000.00 for painting the church on the outside this summer.

We ask that the Brotherhood pray that each of us may have within us the Spirit of Christ as we go forward to build His Kingdom.

ALINE LANE, Reporter

Three-Mile Creek

Report from the Three Mile Creek Christian Church and Bible School.

We are thankful to say that we are getting along fine and the work here is improving this year. We have Sunday School every Sunday. We are trying to get our people interested in the work of our good Master for if we work in the Light as He is in the Light we have fellowship and the Blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin, John 11:7. Ge ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature, Matt 28:19. O love the Lord all ye His saints for the Lord persecuteth the unfaithful and plentifully rewardeth the provider. We are living in a day when men are so willing to try to cover up or get by. Many scandals are coming to light today which men have made effort to keep in the dark. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy. If there ever was a time we should live for Him who died on the cross for our sin it is now. Let us be true one to another and don’t carry false under our hat for if we say we love Christ and hate our fellowman Christ says we are a liar. We should know no man save Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

We had a very fine service on the 1st Lord’s Day. Elder A. I, Kinna d preached a wonderful sermon. Our pastor was not present. He was in an auto accident and was unable to be with us. We beg the prayers of the Brotherhood that our work here in South Carolina will continue to grow.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE MINISTERS’ WIVES

Dear Ministers’ Wives:

This is the first time I’ve had the opportunity to greet you since last August at the Convention. It was delightful to renew friendships and to see all of the “wives” take such a personal interest in the program of the Fellowship. May I express to each of you my very deep appreciation for your presence and for your splendid cooperation in helping to raise our Scholarship money. The states made a fine showing. West Kentucky Vocational School

PADUCAH, KY.

West Kentucky Vocational Training School is entering its fourth week of work since the return from the holidays.

All Western Kentucky is highly elated over the recommended increase in the appropriation to the school. The Institute is very grateful to all citizens and organizations that were instrumental in helping President Timberlake get the Budgetary request before the Commission.

President Timberlake is to be very highly commended for the wonderful things he has been able to accomplish at the school, and for the very faithful friends he has been able to make for it.

A Message To Church School Workers

L. J. EVANS, Director

Dear Church School Workers:

You will want to be keeping a record of the work done in your church school during this last year. It is only as we keep our records and check them against the old ones, can we really measure our progress.

The Achievement Committee will be sent to each local superintendent the last of June or not later than the first of July and he will be expected to fill it out and return to the national office not later than the last of July.

The superintendent should call together all of his workers and fill out this report jointly. As you already know it is on the basis of this report that the plaque from the Department of Christian Education of the National Convention is awarded to the school of the year, during the convention session. Your report is to be in the office by the last of July in order to give the committee time to study them and make its recommendations.

Every superintendent in the brotherhood should fill out this report and mail it in not only with the idea of winning the plaque, but because it will give you an opportunity to see the progress made by your own school during the year. The superintendent that develops the habit of keeping records with more than likely be the superintendent that will develop a school that Reaches, Teaches, Wips, Enlists and Trains.

What kind of school will yours be? You have the answer. I want to wish you a most successful year in your work.

in and about us at all times. We must let “GO” and let “GOD.” I know from my personal experience that we need never feel alone or apart from Him. Our consciousness of His presence lifts us above every sense of grief and depression. He gives us courage and strengthens our faith to meet any kind of experience that may arise in our lives. With these interesting testimonies and the singing of many favorite songs and hymns, these afternoon services were

News of Interest from TEXAS

By MRS. MAUDE DAVIS

Due to illness my report is some what late concerning our District Board, however I have a number of things to report in general. I will just report a few of the happenings among the Brotherhood here in Texas.

First—I was guest speaker Dec. 2, on Woman's Day at Boll St. Christian Church, Dallas Texas, in the evening. Mrs. Lenord Brown was guest speaker in the eleven o'clock service.

It was a great day, and meant a great deal to me as I sat in the morning service and listen to a little girl speak, whom I had known just a few years back as Alva Shackelford. I could not but feel deep down in my heart “look what God has wrought.” Here is the flame of the Lord's kindling of Boll St. which is bearing the torch of The Missionary Society, which has been lighted from the Holy Altar at Jarvis Christian College.

I am sure the worthy and able pastor Elder M.C. Dickson, Mrs. McKinney, the choir director at Boll St.; P. of T.W. Pratt and the members of that Great Church who gave help to this young woman while she was in Jarvis College hearts must have burned while she delivered her great and timely message.

Does it pay to help these young people in school? Alva Shackelford Brown is your answer. She has served as a field secretary of the United Missionary. She is now the wife of one of our young ministers, she conducts the Day Nursery School in Fort Worth, where her husband pastors. She is the devoted mother of two darling little boys who may become ministers some day.

They both are former students of Jarvis College. They have a great opportunity to build a great church in Fort Worth. May they work and never tire for the Master. May they both be as shining stars in His Kingdom here on earth.

Miss S.P. Walker is doing a great job as president of The Christian Women's Fellowship. Boll St. is a great church with a great preacher and with all her talent should be the biggest church in Dallas.

I have been watching the Plea to see the report of B o. Patton's gift. Bro. Patton who served as elder of Boll St. Church for a number of years and passed during the National Convention which was held in Indianapolis last August.

He left in his will five hundred dollars as a departing gift to his church for a building fund. I am sorry I had to report this instead of some of the members. When will we as Disciples be as glad to report GOOD NEWS as we are to stigmatize our preacher? Lord help us to see the good that is in one another and BROADCAST it, thus help to brighten the world.

The Tri State Evangelist in the person of Bro. J. Wesley Watson visited the State of Texas, preached in a number of churches on “The Back to the Book.” We all were so happy to have such a distinguished leader, he was the guest in our home for several days. A great preacher, may he live long and visit us again in the near future.

ONE DAY WITH GOD

among the most inspiring I have ever witnessed. The members and friends present voted unanimously to hold similar services next year.

During intermission between afternoon and evening services we enjoyed a most tasteful supper and more visitations with our brothers and sisters. At this period no one appeared to be impatient or restless, but we were looking forward to the closing service of the day with as much anticipation as we were for the first service.

The closing service began at 5:45 p.m. with more organ and piano music and silent meditation, followed by the procession of choirs. There was a most impressive worship service with participation of choirs and congregation. Our hearts rejoiced with the great messages of the evening. The spontaneous prayers and testimonies of this closing service of the day as well as the first created a new and unusual spiritual experience for those who were present. These services were well attended and enjoyed by all.

Our FIRST "ONE DAY WITH GOD" WAS A GLORIOUS SUCCESS.

Vocational School

Ohio, as president, is quite influential on the campus. Through its Service and Social Act on Committee, of which John Wesley Johnson, of Lexington, is chairman, it has performed the following services:

Presented purse to D. D. H. Anderson, President Emeritus of West Kentucky Industrial College, and also to Mrs. Herbert Weir, wife of the Auto Mechanics Instructor, who has been ill for several months. The group sold Christmas seals for the benefit of the McCracken County Education Association, and is now sponsoring the "March of Dimes" drive on the campus.

Among the future plans are the conducting of open forums, dealing with various subjects of interest to the student body. The forums will be conducted in the dining hall every other Sunday. The group is participating in the United Christian Youth Movement and formed a part of the 550 Paducah Young People which publicly dedicated themselves to Christ at the Grace Episcopal Church, February 3, at 7:30 p.m. The West Kentucky Chorus, under the direction of Miss Luella E. Williams, furnished the musical attraction for the service.

THE WEST KENTUCKY LIONS

The West Kentucky Lions, under the coaching of Mr. Charles Whitcomb, have played ten games this season. Three with Brookport, Ill., two with Madisonville High School, one with Murray High School, one with Lincoln High School, one with Hickman High School, and two with Russellville High School.

The Lions have won five games and lost five.

PRESIDENT TIMBERLAKE SPEAKS

President Timberlake is very much in demand as a speaker. Among the speaking engagements that he filled recently were at the morning services of the Washington St. Baptist Church.

He is scheduled to speak at one of the services of the celebration of the 98th Anniversary of the Washington Street Baptist Church.

Convention Date Is Changed

TO: ALL Members and Friends of the National Christian Missionary Convention.

Dear Co-workers:

The 36th Annual Session of the National Christian Missionary Convention will meet in Los Angeles, California, with the Avalon Christian Church, 4272 Avalon Boulevard, August 11-17, 1952, Rev. B. C. Duke, host pastor. The registration fee is $17.00. You will note that these dates are early in August and will enable you to use August for your convention trip to the west coast. Special railroad transportation is to be made available for convention delegates. Please inform your congregations and groups of these dates so all will know the time, place and registration fee for this great National meeting on the seaport of southwest California.

Dates: August 11-17, 1952.
Place: Avalon Christian Church, Los Angeles, California.
Registration Fee: $17.00
Theme: The Christian Church In a Changing World.

Blair T. Hunt, President

Delegates To Be Given Special Rates

By M. F. MITCHELL

As Secretary of National Transportation, I am not leaving a stone uncovered to give to each delegate the lowest possible rates on the trains to and from Los Angeles when we will be honored locally to be hosts. The Ministers will have an incentive for a pass on our proposed chartered trains — every 30 delegates, the railroad has made the following commitments: Clergy passenger will be honored with a pass. I know you will be working hard to be a recipient of this courtesy. The passengers on our chartered cars will not necessarily be confined to our own delegates, you may solicit others to come.

We propose to have a chartered train for every section of the country; for example, a chartered train from the Atlantic Sea Board which will accommodate the New England States; one at Memphis, Tennessee; one at Dallas, Texas; one at Detroit; one at Saint Louis; and one at Kansas City and Chicago. Announce Dates For Christian Family Week Observance

Members of 29 Protestant and Orthodox church bodies which cooperate in the National Council of Churches will observe Christian Family Week, May 4-11. Materials to aid in this observance have been sent to pastors and correspondents of more than 4,500 churches of Disciples of Christ from the department of religious education of The United Christian Missionary Society. Theme of the 1952 Christian Family Week is "Brotherhood Begins at Home." A statement drawn up by the National Council's Joint Department of Family Life points to this theme as "both a challenge and an opportunity to strengthen the homes of America.”

"Such undergirding was never more urgently needed," the statement continues. "In our country one million homes are broken annually by death, desertion or divorce. The demands of the world crisis cause members of additional thousands of families to live separated from each other by many miles. The pressure of living costs and housing difficulties impose severe strains upon family relations.

"Multitudes of people, frustrated, disillusioned, or confused have ceased to hope for any fundamental brotherhood among men and have become reconciled instead to unbrotherly attitudes and behavior. Yet, written into the very soul of..."
Our Editorial

In an article in the March issue of the Christian Century by Rev. John R. Wilkins on the subject, "Three days in the Pentagon," Rev. Wilkins states that he participated with 78 clergymen, Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish in an "orientation conference for religious leaders" held in the Pentagon Building in Washington January 15, 16, and 17th.

Space will not permit us to re-print much that Rev. Wilkins had to say as a reporter and commentator. We can only suggest that those who have not read it do so and those who have read it, read it again, thoughtfully and prayerfully. However, we cannot escape the conclusion that this "orientation conference for religious leaders," is the boldest, if not the first, attempt of our own Government to dictate to the Church what its position and conduct should be in the present world crisis. While we believe that Rev. Wilkins leaned backwards trying to be fair to the Pentagon and at the same time not compromise his convictions, yet it is difficult for us to see how the 78 "Distinguished Devines" could have gone through that experience without a feeling of deep resentment for the whole "orientation" idea, and those who fathered it.

It seems to us that the Church has come to a sorry state when the military leaders and politicians can tell it what it ought not to do. Among the "danger signals" mentioned by Rev. Wilkins was the statement made by an acting chaplain that "Brotherhood has no place in New Testament teaching." That "as far as the idea of brotherhood is concerned, that is a carryover from stoic philosophy and has no place in New Testament teaching." The writer has always been bitterly opposed to ministers being chaplains. Not that we object to young men in the Armed Services having spiritual guidance, but because we object to the state dominating the ministry and saying what they should preach and should not preach. We are not surprised at what happened at the "orientation conference" at the Pentagon. We believe the Church "sold out" to the state when it let the Government put preachers on its payroll and dress them in uniforms instead of clerical vestments and called them chaplains instead of preachers.

The Plea believes every citizen has an obligation to support and defend his country, even in the Armed Services, even if he is a Christian. But only as a citizen and not as a Christian. As Christians we have but one obligation that is "To fear God and keep His commandments, that is the whole duty of man to his God." The Church must preach love, goodness, peace, kindness, forgiveness, brotherhood, and "goodwill toward all mankind." The Church must never condone war or attempt to justify the taking of human life whether it's classified as murder or homicide and it's up to every individual Christian to let his own conscience decide when there is conflict between what the state demands and what the Church teaches.

Youth and The CALL

What in the world are we going to do with all of them? The CYPers, the Disciple young people who have answered The Call. You are probably thinking that this is a strange thing to be writing to you, a pastor of a local church—asking what are you going to do with young people who have answered a Call to United Christian Youth Action. But this letter is not out of place. Young people have answered this Call of Christ not only to work in projects of united action but to participate more loyally in the total program of their church. This because without the young person aspect of The Call must not be lost working wholeheartedly in his church, his deepened commitment can count for nothing.

"But if he has made this commitment to a deeper loyalty to his own church, why do you bother me about it." You may ask. The guiding hand of an adult and especially of a pastor for a young person on seeking to know his God better through his church is always a problem raised in the minds of young people when the task of increasing one's loyalty to his church is a rather intangible and abstract term, is placed before him. And that question is—How do I do it? This is where you as a pastor can end your guiding hand and help to show your young people the way.

There are some definite steps to help them which you can take right away.

1. Secure from your local Call Committee a list of Disciple young people who answered The Call.
2. Meet with these young people and discuss with them the positive steps they can take in deepening their commitment to Christ and His Church.

Jamaica Rebuilding Started

James Sugioka, national director of construction and maintenance for the United Christian Missionary Society arrived in Jamaica, British West Indies, Feb. 6, and at once undertook preliminary work on rebuilding mission properties which were destroyed in the August, 1951 hurricane. His first reports indicate that critical shortage of tools, materials and skilled labor on the island are making the task a slow and difficult one.

Construction will be carried forward this year on three churches, three parsonages, an open air meeting house and one school building. Repairs are being made on other damaged buildings. However, this work also moves slowly, Mr. Sugioka reports, due to lack of equipment and material. He found workers painting walls with rags because they had no brushes. There were few paint brushes in the shops and new brushes slipped in from the United States are assessed a high duty, in addition to the original purchase price.

As of Feb. 15 the Jamaica Hurricane Relief and Rehabilitation Fund being raised by the United Society amounted to $85,000, which was $65,000 short of the total sought to carry on relief and reconstruction work through the Disciples of Christ Jamaica Mission. Used clothing for Jamaican hurricane victims should be sent through Church World Service depositories.

Board of Church Extension Meet

The members of the Board of Church Extension of Disciples of Christ held their annual meeting in Indiana on January 31, 1952. Mr. Oreon E. Scott of St. Louis, Missouri, and Mr. H. C. Gemmer of Indianapolis, Indiana, were elected to serve as president and Vice President, respectively, throughout the coming year.

Financial reports approved by the members reveal that gross assets of the Board have climbed to $5,926,063.69. Net assets above liabilities increased by $296,120.41 reaching a new high of $3,725,064.31 as of the end of the year.

During 1951, conventional loans were made to 128 churches in the sum of $1,185,375.65. As of December 31, 1951, $1,682,347.83 in additional loan commitments was outstanding in favor of 112 churches.

Of unusual interest was the fact that, of the 657 loans outstanding, only two were as much as three months delinquent in their loan payments.

Mr. William T. Pearcy, Executive Secretary, reported that the financing of buildings for new mission churches was to be an increasingly important emphasis throughout the coming year.

Two From UCMS To Go To Conv.

Miss Jessie M. Trout, vice president of The United Christian Missionary Society and Spencer P. Austin, executive secretary of the Society's department of resources will appear on the program of the World Convention of Churches of Christ in Melbourne, Australia, Aug. 5-10.

Miss Trout will speak on "An Enlarging Fellowship of Christian Women" and will conduct a symposium in the convention women's session. Mr. Austin will be heard in an address on evangelism and will hold informal conferences with groups from churches in Australia and New Zealand. Both will visit missions sponsored by the United Society in Asia.
Filipino Youth Give for Jamaica

The Northwest Luzon Christian Youth Fellowship, which centers in Laoag, Ilocos Norte, the Philippines, recently sent to the United Christian Missionary Society an offering for Jamaica Relief and Rehabilitation. The gift of 94 pesos was sent by Wilfrida Pascua, teen-age president of the CYF groups in Northwest Luzon. Churches in India and four Latin American countries also have joined with American churches in making contributions for Jamaica relief.

The emergency fund being raised by the United Society for hurricane relief and reconstruction in Jamaica amounted to $75,000 as of the first of February. The Jamaican Mission reports that sufficient used clothing have been received to care for storm victims in the churches of Disciples of Christ, but lack of funds for the church building program is now the major problem.

Another $75,000 is needed to rebuild the churches and complete major repairs on mission properties damaged in the August, 1951 hurricane.

Youth To Visit Missions in Mexico

A visit to Mexico and the mission work carried on there by Disciples of Christ is being arranged for the summer of 1952 by the youth work office of the United Christian Missionary Society. Open to boys and girls who have completed their sophomore year in senior high school, the tour will be conducted June 23 to July 13.

One of the unique features of the Christian Youth Fellowship tour will be two full days of work on mission property in Aguascalientes. Visiting youth from the United States will share in the work project with young people from the church and social center in Aguascalientes.

The CYF Mexico Tour will include a day at Mexican Christian Institute, San Antonio, Texas and mission work will take place in San Luis Potosi, Aguascalientes, Pueblo, Los Haro and Mexico City, Mexico. Information on the tour can be secured from Charles C. Mills, 222 So. Downey Ave., Indianapolis 7, Indiana.

Twenty Seven Bible Schools Make Convention Donations

Dear Co-workers:

Listed below you will find the Bible Schools and Youth Groups that have paid all or a part of their financial goal to the National Convention as of March 27, 1952. This information is based upon the treasurer's report Dr. J. E. Walker. Each school received a report blank and you were asked to fill it in and send it to Dr. Walker with at least part of your financial goal. You should receive within a few days if you haven't already another letter and report blank asking that you fill out and mail to the treasurer's office 480 Linden Ave. Memphis, Tenn. not later than May 15. This is an opportunity for those schools that have paid a part of their financial goals to complete them and those schools that have not paid anything this gives you a chance to share in the support of the program. Friends it is important that your school reach its goal. Our whole program is based upon our faith in you and your school supporting the work financially. Every time your school fails to reach its goal it simply means that the work has to be curtailed just that much. There is not a school that can't reach its financial goal if it really want to. As you look at the record can we as God's stewards feel proud of what we have done? Let us remember that all we possess belong to God. Are we being honest with God? You have the answer. I still have faith in you because I believe you love the cause. Will you see that your school is listed in the next financial report. If your heart is in the work your treasurer will be there also.

New Plans For Summer Programs

A new plan for unifying administration of young peoples summer conferences and interstate camps was inaugurated in a meeting of conference directors, early this year at Fort Worth, Tex. Around 180 men and women who direct summer camps and conferences in 34 states or areas attended the meeting which was sponsored by the youth work office of The United Christian Missionary Society.

The Fort Worth meeting marked the culmination of the conference dean system which has been in operation since the conference movement was launched in the early 1920's. In the summer of 1952, full administrative responsibility for camps and conferences will be carried by local directors.

Training and guidance formerly offered to a small group of deans will now be provided to a larger number of local pastors and lay people serving as conference directors.

Plan Audio-Visual Workshops

Workshops designed to help pastors and lay workers improve their use of movies, filmstrips and recordings in church programs will be held in eight centers across the nation during the coming year.

The department of audio-visual services of The United Christian Missionary Society is participating in several of the annual workshops which are being sponsored for the second year by the National Council of Churches in cooperation with local and state church councils.

Detailed information on the workshops can be secured from state directors of religious education. The meetings are scheduled as follows:

- Midwest Region, April 14-18, Bloomington, Ind.; Southwest Region, May 5-9, Atlanta, Ga.; New England Region, July 15-24, East Northfield, Mass.; Southwest Region, July 14-18, Georgetown, Tex.; Pacific Southwest Region, August 4-8 (tentative), Redlands, Calif.; Rocky Mountain Region, August 18-22, Pueblo, Colo.; Mid-Atlantic Region, August 3-8, Spruce Creek, Penna.; and Pacific Northwest Region, October 27-31, Seattle, Wash.

So don't find one such a con-centration of active, talented, con-secrated youth in a church of less than seventy-five active members and with a non-resident pastor (serving twice monthly). This choir has been together nearly ten years and has rendered service in all local colored and several white churches. It has also traveled to Roanoke and Martinsville, Va. and Winton-Salem, N. C. to sing.

eral. I know you will cooperate with us in boosting delegates, etc. Please answer this letter immediately. We are open for suggestions. One more suggestion, may I request you to arrange to bring your State Convention the first week in August. This suggestion was made to our Executive Secretary, Dr. Dickson, because it would be far better for us to entertain the convention the second week in August.

We are working hand in hand with the National Federation of Women's Club in regards to housing our delegates. The local Committee of the Women's Committee will turn over to us their housing opportunities. In other words, when they approach people to house the delegates, they will make an appeal for two weeks which will include our delegates. As to general rates, etc., will inform you through the Christian Plea.

Negroses In The Majors

ST. LOUIS, MO.—The important role of Negro players in the major leagues, since Jackie Robinson broke in with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947, is emphasized in an exclusive story in the February 6 issue of The Sporting News.

Constituting the first over-all appraisal of the part taken by Negro performers in determining the outcome of the pennant races, the copyrighted story pointed out:

(1.) No major league club using Negro players as regulars throughout an entire season has ever finished out of the first division. Four of them—the Dodgers in 1947 and 1949, the Cleveland Indians in 1948 and the New York Giants in 1951—won pennants.

(2.) Only five teams in the majors used Negro players all last season—and all five clubs finished in the first division. Eleven teams did not use them all season—and only three of these teams gained first-division berths. The st-ry said, "It looks as though second-division clubs have something to ponder."

(3.) When the vote for the most Valuable Player was taken last fall, (Continued on Page 8)
Jarvis Christian College Given 4-Year Recognition

By WM. BENNETT

Jarvis Christian College is now fully approved as a four-year liberal arts college by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Jarvis was approved at the annual meeting of the Association which was held in St. Petersburg, Florida last December.

Dr. John B. Eubanks, President of Jarvis, recently received official notification of the action of the Southern Association.

The approval of Jarvis College by the Southern Association is attributed to three important factors. (1) The dynamic and forceful leadership of President Eubanks, the Board of Trustees and the United Christian Missionary Society; (2) A cooperative and an interested faculty; and (3) a philosophy of and a program in education which are consistent and practical.

Dr. Eubanks assumed the administrative responsibilities of Jarvis in the summer of 1949. To him accreditation was a "must." The Board of Trustees and the United Christian Missionary Society were induced to follow his suggestions of increasing the faculty, improving the physical plant, raising salaries, and reorganizing the college curriculum.

New faculty people were added in music, art, and social sciences, and in the library. Three faculty persons were added to the Home Economics Department and the English Department was strengthened this term. In all, some 15 new persons were added to the college faculty and staff during the last two years.

The curriculum was changed from a traditional four-year liberal arts course to a two-year integrated program in general education which permits tapping off into special fields of knowledge during the last two years. A General Education course is required of all first and second year students, in administration through three divisions: The Division of Humanities and Communication; The Division of Biological and Physical Sciences; and The Division of the Social Sciences. General Education at Jarvis is designed to show the student the interrelatedness of knowledge: to acquaint him with the basic principles underlying society and the universe; to show him how man has worked with God, nature, ideas, and with himself in the progression of total development; and to develop in him the ability and the desire to communicate his knowledge, beliefs and ideas to his fellowman so that they may live together harmoniously.

In connection with the program in General Education Jarvis has added a two-year terminal program in Vocational Education. Courses are offered in Home Economics, Business Education and Agriculture, leading to the Associate of the Arts degree. Students who enter the terminal program must also take the survey courses in general education. The purpose of these courses is to meet the needs of those students who, for various reasons, find it impossible to take a four-year college program. Non-credit courses in homemaking are offered by the Department of Home Economics for the housewives in the local community.

The Physical improvement includes the enlargement of the College Library so that it will seat two-thirds of the students at the same time and house up to 20,000 volumes. Five new homes for faculty members were built during the last two years. The dining hall was completely refurnished and the women's dormitory is being completely renovated. New fluorescent lights have been installed throughout the academic building and the dining hall. In addition, to these improvements, a much needed commons building has been added which houses faculty offices, classrooms, a na men's lounge.

The student organizations are considered co-curricula activities. They are so organized that they supplement the formal classroom offerings. Students participate in the formulation of College policy through membership on all administrative committees.

In showing the students how to make a living, Jarvis produced and preserved over 18,000 cans of food; 100 bushels of sweet potatoes; two tons of watermelons; 1,000 pounds of cantaloupes; 600 frys, and some forty turkeys on the college farm in 1950. Students in agriculture get first hand practice in helping with poultry, hogs, cattle, and the garden. In addition to the hundreds of dozens of eggs produced last year, five hundred hens for laying purposes were grown.

The farm program for 1952 includes the raising of caster beans, broomstraw grass, and fifty acres of garden crops. More than the five tons of feed raised last year is expected in 1952. An orchard of peach, pear, and grape vines has been planted this winter. The plants are two-years old and should go into production.

Students are able to practice making a life through helping others. This year the General 1 class has organized a chapter of the American Association of United Nations Club. They have selected as their chief project this year the helping of peoples abroad. To do this, the students requested and were granted one acre of good farm land on which they will grow food. This food will be sent to CARE to be distributed abroad. The club will select seeds, plant, and work the acre and will harvest and prepare the food for shipment under faculty guidance.

All of the activities and programs at Jarvis are designed to do two things: (1) To teach the student how to make a living, and (2) to teach him how to make a life.
Negroes In Majors

three of the first six men in the balloting were Negroes. Roy Campanella of the Dodgers was first, Monte Irvin of the Giants, second, and Robinson, who had previously won in 1949, was sixth. In the American League’s MVP voting, Orestes Minoso of the Chicago White Sox was fourth.

(4.) Negro players came close to sweeping the baseball writers’ Rookie of the Year awards. Willie Mays of the Giants won in the National League. In the American, Minoso was edged out by Gil McDougald of the Yankees by two votes, but he was named Rookie of the Year by The Sporting News, a selection that won wide support.

The Sporting News, which devoted two pages to stories on the general theme that Negroes are strengthening their position in Organized Ball, noted that the Texas League may have Negro players this year, and it also is possible that at least three clubs in the Florida International League will have Negroes in their lineups.

Perhaps the greatest baseball figure of all time, Ty Cobb, a native of Georgia, was quoted as saying that he had no prejudice whatever against the use of Negroes in any sport. “Anyone who qualified as a gentleman,” Cobb said, “is qualified anywhere, regardless of his color.”

CYF Executive Group Meet

Plans for the 1952 International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission meeting were outlined by the Commission executive committee in Indianapolis, Dec. 27-31.

Albert Pennybacker, Chattanooga, Tenn., Commission president, led the meeting which was attended by Margaret Ann Humbert, Miles, Ohio, associate president, Howard C. Smith, Blue Island, Ill., secretary, Goodwin Moore, Ayden, N. C., David Murphy, Denver, Colo., Larry Kinnamon, Bloomfield, Ia., Janet Marshall, Port Orchard, Wash., Kenneth Henry, Palestine, Tex., Bruce Poundstone, Lexington, Ky., Willietta Schley, Knoxville, Tenn., and Jim Lemon, West Lorne, Ont., Canada.

The 1952 CYF Commission meeting was tentatively scheduled for Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., in August, prior to the Quadrennial Christian Youth Conference, an interdenominational meeting also scheduled for Purdue. In the executive meeting, committee chairmen reviewed projects in worship, study, service, enlistment and recreation which they will present for discussion and further planning at the Commission meeting in the summer.

Russell F. Harrison, national director of your work commented that the executive committee took a significant step toward channeling interfellowship work with youth of other communions through local CYF committees.

A LITTLE

DEMOCRACY PLEASE

Dr. Donald Beatty, of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, revealed some shocking facts the other day at a C.I.O. Conference on Human Rights. He reported that "with the exception of some eleven offices located in communities where fair employment practice laws have been adopted and where no discriminatory requests for workers are accepted, the proportion of employment agency requests for "white workers only" for full-time jobs ranges from 30% to above 90%." And in the capital city of Columbus, said Dr. Beatty "it is closer to 90%." In other words, nine out of every ten job openings in the Columbus area are restricted to white workers.

And some of the politicians are saying that civil rights present no serious issue to the people of Ohio and America.

SMITH CHILDREN TO TOUR

The Smith Children’s Quartette, from Lexington, Kentucky, will begin their Annual Tour in July which will carry them across the country into California to join that great host of Disciples for the National Convention to be held in Los Angeles in August.

This group of children singers are well prepared and highly recommended by the presidents of the National Convention and the United Society. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Smith, members of the East 2nd St. Christian Church, Lexington, Ky., where Mr. Smith is a deacon. The children are all baptized believers in Jesus Christ and are said to be the youngest quartette on the road. They can be contacted by writing to Mrs. Jasper Smith, 429 Washington Terrace, Lexington, Ky., for any details or further information.

WHAT LADIES WEAR

Dear Editor, Christian Plea:

One of our lovely ministers wives wrote the undersigned for suggestions as to what the ladies should wear. I think it is a wise request. By letter, I have already conveyed the desired information. This good minister’s wife suggested to me that others may desire similar information.

Permit me therefore to make the following suggestion. During the day, you may wear your usual summer clothes, but at the turn of the afternoon, dress suit will feel comfortable. For the use of evening services, top coat and furs will not be uncomfortable.

We are not leaving a stone unturned to make our lovely delegates happy. Any question you desire to ask, drop a postal card or letter to 3309 Hooper Avenue, Los Angeles 11, Calif., and you may be assured of an answer.

Fraternally yours,
M. Frederick Mitchell

TRANSPORTATION TO CALIFORNIA

Editor of Christian Plea

% Elder L. L. Dickerson

Dear Sir:

Please reserve space to convey to the Brotherhood the following information regarding transportation to the National Convention which will be in Los Angeles, California, August 11-17. First, I want to ask the cooperation of the Pastors and state Evangelists in all the states! Namely, assemble names of delegates expecting to attend the convention. Keep in mind about thirty delegates, an Evangelist or any ordained Minister will get free transportation.

For the benefit of chartered trains, we should have this information before June.

We propose to charter trains from a given point in the Atlantic Sea Board which will accommodate the New England states: One in Memphis, Tennessee; one in Dallas, Texas; one in Chicago, Illinois; one in Detroit, Michigan; one in St. Louis, Missouri; and one in Kansas City, Missouri. As to rates, I am sending one presented to me by the railroad company, to and from Los Angeles.

Brethren, do cooperate with us in this manner. Each city, town, village and local district begin now and mobilize delegates in order that the Railroad Company might have time to arrange the lowest possible rates. We wish to further state that Los Angeles is getting ready to have as her guests the finest group of people this side of Paradise. Locally, we shall endeavor to treat you with the best, the lowest possible rates; food, lodging, and transportation. We will not let you down, but please answer my letters. We would like to have at least four mats from our Pastors and Evangelists. Please send them at once and write your names on the back.

Fraternally yours,
M. Frederick Mitchell

KENNETH HENRY
SELECTED DELEGATE TO INDIA

Hawkins, Texas. April 22, 1952. Kenneth E. Henry, Freshman at Jarvis Christian College, has been selected to represent the youth of the Disciples of Christ at the World Conference of Protestant Youth in Travancore, India beginning in December of this year.

The World Conference of Protestant Youth is made up of protestant denominations throughout the world. Mr. Henry, representing the Disciples of Christ, is one of thirty Americans chosen to represent the United Christian Youth Movement in the United States and Canada.

Kenneth has served three years on the executive committee of the International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission. He will serve as chairman of the Recreation Committee when the commission meets at Purdue University in August this year. As a member of this group, Kenneth attended the world Convention on Christian Education at Toronto, Canada in 1950. He was elected to the council of the United Christian Youth Movement Southern Regional Conference which met at Lake Brownwood, Texas last year. As president of the Texas Christian Missionary Convention CYF Department, he has been engaged in various youth activities for several years.

Entering Jarvis Christian College as a Freshman last September, Kenneth has been outstanding both in academic and co-curricular activities. He is president of the freshman class; he sings in the college choir, is on the debating team, plays football, and is an active member of the YMCA and other student organizations. While participating in the co-curricular activities, Kenneth has maintained a scholastic average which has warranted his being placed on the Dean's Honor List both quarters this term.

Kenneth feels that the training which he receives at Jarvis under the general education program is preparing him to analyze any problematic situation which may arise. He feels that he should be able to isolate points of interest and points of contention and to find remedies where they are needed.

The delegates tentatively are scheduled to leave New York via the Sarah Marquis Traveling lines in late October. The trip will take them to points in Europe and Asia as they approach Travancore, India.

After the conference, Mr. Henry will join other delegates on international protestant service teams and will visit mission stations throughout Asia. The conferees are expected to return to the United States in April 1953.

JARVIS CHRISTIAN COLLEGE ANNOUNCES SUMMER SCHOOL

Hawkins, Texas. April 22, 1952. Summer School begins at Jarvis Christian College on June 3, 1952. For the twelfth year Jarvis offers a solution to the problems confronting veteran teachers, prospective teachers and first year students and others who feel the urge to continue their studies through the summer months.

A program of studies designed to meet the needs of the in-service teacher in meeting the certification requirements of the minimum Foundation Education Bill and at the same time increase the individual competence and skill of the teachers will be provided.

Jarvis, recently accepted as a member of the Texas Association of Colleges, will retain its regular faculty to teach during the summer session. This faculty is representative of the best universities of America. Their grasp of the problems facing Education in America today is astounding.

Summer session will consist of two terms extending over a period of twelve weeks. Students may enroll for one or two terms. Classes will meet five days each week. Beginning June 3 classes will end July 16 for the first term and on August 22 for the second term.

The total cost is approximately $89, for each term.

Jarvis has work opportunities for fifty men this summer. Through these work opportunities students may earn as much as $200 toward their college expense for the 1952-1953 term. Any interested student should write the president of the college.

In his Chapel message on April 9, 1952, President Long reminded us that the first Christian College had Jesus as the teacher and the Disciples as learners. Among the later events which proved that they learned well their lessons, he told of the time when Peter and John shared with the lame man at the gate when Peter said, “Silver and gold have we none but such as we have give we unto thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.” Then our President recounted the difficulties which Church Colleges have had since that time and the present dangers which have closed many and threaten to close many more. He insisted that recent decisions of the Supreme Court and other evidence of the encroachment of government upon education threaten not only our Church Colleges but all private enterprise. He said that if we want to save democracy and Christianity we must give all-out support to our Church Colleges in the spirit of those early Disciples who said, “Such as we have give we unto thee in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.” Then he recounted a number of ways we might help our own Alma Mater even if we had no silver nor gold, principally by living lives worthy of the rich things that Southern Christian has made possible to us and by influencing others to help us to secure some of the things we need to make our work here more effective.

It is in that spirit that we who make up the Alumni of S.C.I. are securing funds to make possible a gymnasium on our campus. We have no auditorium which will hold our entire student body, to say nothing of the host of friends who want to attend programs on our campus. We have no place where we can conduct an adequate physical education program for our students. During this present school year we were able to play only one basketball game on our campus. The other times we had to rent a gym in Vicksburg when we played visiting teams. In spite of this our team won the Conference Championship, but our students and community were unable to enjoy the games. We need an auditorium-gymnasium desperately and we Alumni are out to share what we can and to get others to do likewise.

We know there are many such calls upon you for such support, but we know of your concern for (Continued on Page Eight)

THE PENSION PLAN

Our brotherhood has a plan whereby every minister may provide income for old age and protection for his wife and minor children in the event of his death or total and permanent disability.

This is called “The Pension Plan of Disciples of Christ.”

FROM THE MAGNOLIA STATE

I. C. Franklin, Port Gibson, Miss.

Dear readers of the Plea: I enjoy reading the Plea, and to hear from the many writers, there are not many writers now, those older ones have passed off, and the younger ones do not do much writing. I miss the writing of Elder C. H. Dickersons, and many others, glad to read the article from Elder T. R. Everett, of Kentucky, one of the first to attend the first National Convention, as I think of the beginning of our National Convention, my mind refers to so few now living that were at the beginning of the National Convention there are a very few left to tell the story of the beginning.

Here in the Magnolia state we are trying to keep alive the story of the Old Rugged Cross the best we can, altho the ministers are very few in this state, the Lord has called three of our ministers from labor to reward during the past year, and this year, in the persons of Elders G. W. Walls, N. R. Trevillian and J. J. Thaxter, all were aged ministers their passing leaves me the oldest ordained minister in the state.

Elder Walls served the Mound Bayou District as District Evangelist for more than twenty years.

Elder N. R. Trevillian was Vice President for the state for more than twenty five years, then he served as president for seven or eight years, he pastored one church (Rose Hill) for thirty five years, this you know, is unusual for our people, so many of our congregation just keep a minister two or three years.

Elder Thaxter served as District evangelist for the No. Two District some fifteen or more years.

The Lord has called a number of our good women from labour to reward. Mrs. Sisie Winn of the Christian church, sister Winn was (Continued on Page Eight)

I shall attempt to give you a Summary of Church news for the first three months 1952. The new year started out just right with 120 enrolled in Bible School the first Sunday. There were approximately 170 people at the 11 o'clock service. Mrs. Ambrie Brown, one of the devout christian women at Miss. Blvd. Christian Church, is the leader for Prayer Meeting services. At the first meeting of the new year, Sister Brown made this challenge to those present, "Let Us Get In Step And Be Wrapped Up In Love As We Begin A New Year."

Forum Hour was observed by the Christian Youth Circle, Sunday night, Jan. 27, 1952. The subject, "What Is Right And Wrong To Do On Sundays" was ably discussed by the youngsters. The Youth conducted special services at the 11 o'clock service. Miss Elna Jean Briggs is president of the Circle and Mesdames Lucille Woods, Louvenia Moore and Katie Yarbrough are Supervisors.

Bros. C. W. Winn and James T. Chandler were ordained Elders and Bros. Charles Bonhart and W. R. Pegues were ordained Deacons by Elder Blair T. Hunt in a very impressive ceremony at the 11 o'clock service Jan. 20, 1952.

The Laymen's League honored Dr. J. E. Walker the first Sunday in March at their monthly breakfast, March being Dr. Walker's birth month. The kindergarten school of Miss. Blvd. Christian Ch. taught by Mrs. Laura Cade, presented Mrs. J. E. Walker with an orchid corsage and Dr. J. E. Walker with a carnation boutonniere. There were about 50 people present at the breakfast. The men were permitted to bring their wives and sweethearts to this spe-

MINISTERS' WIVES FELLOWSHIP

The Ministers' Wives Fellowship of the National Convention is presenting Miss Winifred Perpener, an advanced student of music and a candidate for graduation from Jarvis Christian College this June, in recital in Los Angeles, California, Sunday afternoon, August 10, 1952 at 4 o'clock. Your donation of $1.00 given to any member of the Ministers' Wives Fellowship enables you to contribute directly toward the support of our annual Scholarship Fund. Miss Perpener plans to enter Drake University in September to begin graduate study in her chosen field. We hope to raise our scholarship money prior to this recital in order to avoid soliciting donations at the convention.

Ministers' Wives: This is your opportunity to make YOUR state win in the contest. All monies sent in from your state will be credited to that state in the contest. Order cards are coming in rapidly for tickets. Have you mailed your order card? DO IT TODAY! The more tickets you sell, the better chance your state has for winning!

Make all checks and money orders payable to The Ministers' Wives Fellowship and mail them to me at the following addresses:

the total cause of our Master and believe you will want to have a share in this worthy project. We believe, too, that you will agree that the noteworthy contribution which Southern Christian has made through these seventy-six years of its history merits full support from all who want to hasten the coming of the Kingdom. Please call this project to the attention of your people and encourage their generous giving toward it. We have a large book called THE BOOK OF ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND NAMES, in which we are recording the name, address and contribution of all who give $1.00 or more. These names will be recorded alphabetically. We hope there will be such names recorded from your church and that we can announce soon through our church papers that this project of our Alumni was a complete success.

one of Mrs. Rosie Page Welch’s aunts, she was loved by all who knew her.

Mrs. Janie Green, the wife of Bro. Joseph Green was buried March 24. She was a great woman, she was one of those good women Solomon speaks of, she was loved by all who knew her.

The work in the state is not progressing as fast as we hoped it would progress, but we can say thanks to God it is not dead, the majority of our ministers are young, and they are to serve their present age, they may not do as the older minister have done, they should do more, and will do more if they have the Master’s Cause at heart.

It is a sure thing, one can wear a shoe if it is too large for his foot or if it is too small for his foot, he can wrap something around the foot and make it fit, if the shoe is too small for the foot, he can cut the shoe, this is done so often with leaders, they get jobs too large for them, and they have to do a deal of wrapping something around themselves to fit the job, and on the other hand they get jobs too small and they have to cut to fit the job.

One thing I would like to know is this: Will the National Convention be held this year in Los Angeles, California?

I would be glad to have some articles from our state President, the vice President, the secretary and the state Evangelist, all of them are fine men, but will not write about the work. Then too we never hear a word from our Bible School officers. I wonder if they get the Plea?

This leaves me so I can go about, but not well, may the Lord bless and keep you all, until we meet where the wicked will cease to trouble us, and the weary be at rest.

cial breakfast. Many fine tributes were paid Dr. Walker at the breakfast.

The church presented Elder B. T. Hunt with a Scroll for his thirty (30) years service as pastor. The pastor was also presented two baskets of beautiful flowers, one from the church, the other from Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker. The church has never regretted their selection of Elder Blair T. Hunt as pastor 30 years ago. Elder Hunt has shown himself to be a conscientious christian gentleman, serving wherever needed in causes contributing to the upbuilding of good citizens. Our wish is that he could be with us 30 years more.

The men observed Men’s Day the 2nd Sunday in March. Lt. Geo. W. Lee was guest speaker. Amount of money raised — five thousand five hundred eighty five dollars (5,585.00). Dr. J. E. Walker gave $2,000.00 of this amount.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

“Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.”

Unto the Churches of the Brotherhood.

From Blair T. Hunt, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I can’t see you face to face therefore I am using the Pauline method (an epistle).

May I repeat a few things that last year were warming to the heart of each Disciple of Christ, they remain true this year.

Chapter I

Good news of success Youth Conferences. May the work with your youth blossom into a beautiful fulness. The youth of today determines the Church of the future. Brother Lorenzo J. Evans, you are doing a great work.

Chapter II

Evangelism has produced an increased Church membership — great work Brother Charles Webb and preachers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Preach on until the good news shall cover the land as the waters cover the deep.

Chapter III

Our good sisters, as usual are mission minded. They are doing a good work, leave them alone. Truly the mission of the church is missions. Thanks to Mrs. Charles Mosley, Miss Anna B. Jackson and a host of our ladies for their leadership.

Bluefield, W. Va., Mr. J. E. Banks, Reporter.

We are very happy to report the good news of having presented the outstanding musical genius, Mrs. Rosa Page Welch, in a recital, which was held at the Appalachian Assembly Room in April.

Mrs. Page, a Mezzo-Soprano, was accompanied by Mrs. L. L. Spencer, a music teacher at Bluefield State College. She sang to an overflowing audience of both white and colored, holding them spellbound.

THE INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

There were many fine things about the International Convention which was held in Chicago in May. We cannot mention them all, but we do want to refer briefly to a few that was of particular interest to our own people. At the Cincinnati Convention, Eld. R. H. Peoples submitted a resolution calling upon the Christian churches throughout our Brotherhood to drop the color-line and accept people into their memberships without regard to race or color.

This resolution came up for final action at the Chicago Convention, and was adopted. Of course we all know that all Christian churches are not going to admit Negroes even though the International Convention passed that resolution. Our Conventions do not have any authority over the local church, and no desire nor means of forcing a local church to comply with any Convention adopted resolution.

And as long as there is prejudice in the hearts of men and women who claim to be Christian, there will be discrimination and segregation in religious institutions even the church that wears the name of Christ. But it was a noble thing for those who claim to be the Disciples of Jesus Christ to say to themselves and to the world that the Church of Christ should be free from prejudice and discrimination.

We realize that it took a great deal of courage to do this. Yes sir, believe it or not, it took a great deal of courage for those who represented people who believe in our American pattern of segregation and discrimination, to say that it should be abolished. But they did it. And we are proud of the fact that we are a part of a Brotherhood that is trying very hard to be what our name implies.

Another significant action of the International Convention was the adoption, (over strong opposition) of a resolution to endorse "Federal Aid to Education" under strict government supervision to guarantee against discrimination in the use of these funds by the several states. We believe these actions to be significant because they indicate very clearly the trend of thinking among the Disciples on those questions where race or color is involved.

Its true we have a long way to go yet, but it is encouraging to know that we are at least "ON The Way."

WE VOTE FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

When you read this both of the political parties, no doubt will have met and nominated their candidates for president and stated in their platforms what they consider the most important issues facing the American people today, and just what they propose to do about them. We confess that there are many vital issues any one of which might decide not only the fate of our Nation but our entire civilization. But regardless to what the Republicans or Democrats may declare to be the most important, to us the eleven million nine hundred and eighty two thousand four hundred and twenty two other American citizens of color, the most important issue in America to-day is whether or not all of its citizens will enjoy equal rights and privileges as guaranteed by the Constitution, regardless to race or color. We believe that is the most important issue because we are convinced that there will not be and cannot be any peace in America or anywhere else until all men accept the principle that "All men were (Continued on Page Four)

Chapter IV

Our brotherhood is awake as never before to the dire need of recruits for the ministry. A part of the answer to the question: "How may we recruit for the ministry?" An adequate scholarship fund. It may appear each time one of our great leaders dies—we set up, in the name only, a scholarship fund, e.g. Irwin, Herod, Moss, and it is soon interred with their mortal remains. Thanks for the stimulating cry: "We need ministers."

Chapter V

Originally we were a rural people but exoduses have almost made us an Urban people, hence our rural churches are suffering. Recipe pastoral unities. Let three or four rural churches get together and take a minister and support that minister. There are many of our large cities without an organized congregation. So many things ought to be done—if you and I would give the money. And now the final chapter, a long chapter, subject: 'MONEY'.

Chapter VI

Money, Money, Money

The various agencies are doing their part, keeping their sacred promises. They have great confidence in our National Convention staff; they have confidence in you. But each disciple, each Church, each district, each State Convention must ask "Am I doing (not my bit) my best?" "If everybody were just like me and mine, what kind of a Convention would my Convention be?" "How would our staff live, how would evangelism and missions fare?"

Hasten and get your name with its gift on the National Treasurer's sheet, I mean the printed report which our treasurer gives at the Convention. This report goes to the printer after the last week in July. So hurry, send your gifts.

Let individuals, churches, conventions et al increase their giving. Let us all lay by in store (send to the National Treasurer, Dr. J. E. Walker, 480 Linden Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee) as God has prospered that there be no financial dearth in our National Convention in Los Angeles—August 11-16, 1952. We are thankful to God for the executive leadership of Brother Emmett J. Dickson. His very soul glitters with bigness. Many a business concern would count itself blessed to have Mrs. Marjorie E. Parker, too they would double her salary. Brother L. L. Dickerson has done a most difficult task keeping alive our Christian Plea. Jarvis and S.C.I. are two bright spots in year's life of our brotherhood.

Wish I could call you each by name and clasp your hand. If God be willing, I'll see you and Brothers Dukes and Mitchell with all the people in Los Angeles—August 11th.

Your servant in Christ,
Blair T. Hunt, President

Those who try to do something and fail, are infinitely better than those who try to do nothing and succeed.

NATIONAL OFFICERS

The National Convention is going to lose a good president this year because of an unwise provision of our constitution that prevents a man from serving more than two years. Eld. Blair T. Hunt our president for the past two years has served in a most excellent and dignified manner. The Office did him great honor, and he in turn gave to it dignity and prestige. Our National Convention is fortunate in that every man that has served this great Office has done so with distinction. The usefulness of some was limited by this same provision.

No organization or Institution can expect to go far or accomplish very much without capable leadership. Men (or Women) of intelligence, vision, courage and industry. Preston Taylor, Henry Herod, B. C. Calvert, L. H. Crawford, President Ervin, R. Wesley Watson, W. H. (Baltimore) Taylor, S. S. Myers, R. H. Davis, Blair T. Hunt. We certainly owe a lot to these stalwart servants of our Brotherhood. Not only for the services they rendered as president of our National Convention, but also for the great work they have done in their respective fields of labor.

Nor should we forget those who have served so faithfully as heads of the various departments. Mesdames, Alphin, Taylor, Martin, Hancock, Herod, Garrett, Mosley, of the Woman's Department and Prof. Pratt, Eld. Walton, Eld. Jordan, Miss Chandler, Eld. Henry of the Bible School Department, Bragg and Chandler of the Men's Department and a host of others, some secretaries, treasurers and just plain workers who have made our convention the power and influence that it is in our Brotherhood life. May those who follow in their footsteps guard zealously this glorious heritage.

"created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights."

The Republican party nor any other party will ever succeed in getting the Negro vote until it takes a courageous stand on this issue. Most Negroes no doubt would rather be Republicans than anything else, for sentimental reasons if for no other. It is the Party of Lincoln the great Emancipator whom all Negroes revere. It is the party of our Fathers, founded upon the principles of Liberty and Justice for all. But when it forsook those principles, Negroes had no other alternative but to forsake it. Our Candidate this year is "Mr. Civil Rights." Whoever is for that, that's who we are for. Everything else will have to take second place in the line of important issues.

TIMELY HINTS FOR DELEGATES TO CALIFORNIA

Looking forward to time well spent in Los Angeles at the NCMC is just what Avalon and the sister churches are planning beginning August 11 to 17th.

It may not be necessary to replenish that wardrobe for Los Angeles as everything you wear will be new to us. After 4 p.m. you must have a top coat, jacket or etc., since the breezes from the Pacific are a bit chilly. Our days have appeared a bit warm but if I were you, play safe and bring that fall or spring suit.

If possible to the tourist, try and make motel reservations ahead since there will be many vacationists on the road. However attempts can be made without reservations for a good night's sleep.

Remember the need for good tires and the cars checked, may be well to watch that battery while on the road. The roads are fine and a cross-country trip can be most enjoyable.

Los Angeles this year became THE Convention city. Send in those Pre-Registrations as of NOW or before August 1st. This is a MUST. "WE'LL BE SEEING YOU."

GREENWOOD CEMETERY

By L. L. Dickerson
Sec. Property Mgmt. Committee

Eld. Preston Taylor, Founder of the National Convention, willed his entire estate to the National Convention. Greenwood Cemetery of Nashville, Tenn., is a part of this Estate. Since the Death of his widow, Mrs. Ida Taylor the National Convention has had direct control of this estate, and through its Trustees has endeavored to operate it in compliance with the terms of Eld. Taylor's will. A few months ago the Property Management Committee of the Trustees of the National Convention received from Mr. M. R. Eppse, the Manager of the Taylor Estate a proposition to conduct a sales promotion project. He submitted to the Trustees through the Property Management Committee a proposed Contract, between the National Convention and Mr. Eppse, which in substance provided that he be given the right to sell lots and graves in the Greenwood Cemetery upon a commission basis. The Contract also specified that Mr. Eppse would employ a Sales Manager and Salesmen, that the salesmen would be trained and properly equipped and paid by Mr. Eppse. That Mr. Eppse would receive a Commission of 50% on all sales and that the contract would run ten years.

There has been some considerable opposition to this proposition. A great many questions have arisen. Ist some say that the commission of 50% is too high. The property Management Committee gave serious consideration to this point and decided that in consideration of the amount of time, effort and expenses involved to carry on a successful sales promotion campaign, that 50% was not unreasonable. 2nd Some seem to think that the National Convention would lose control of the Cemetery under this contract. That is not true. One provision of the contract states specifically "The Trustees will have general supervision of the policies pertaining to the operation of the cemetery — and that any changes in the operation of the cemetery must have the approval of the parties hereto as represented by the Manager and the Trustees of the National Christian Missionary Convention." 3rd objection has been raised on the grounds that the eight years the contract is to run is too long. When we consider the fact that selling burial lots to Negroes in advance on a large scale as this proposition proposes, is something more or less new and those who launch out on such an endeavor are Pioneers. Therefore the project proves successful they should be given some protection of the business they will have established.

The Property Management Committee gave careful consideration over an extended period of time to every angle of this entire proposition. The committee secured the counsel and advice of its attorneys, and finally concluded that the proposition has merit and should be given a trial. Now there are a few things that our people should know about Greenwood Cemetery. 1st the Cemetery is not producing enough to do what the situation demands in keeping good business practices. All of us have not had the experience of managing business enterprises, especially cemeteries. Therefore we must depend to a large extent upon the advice of those who are supposed to be expert in this particular field.

ELD. CAMPBELL AT ROCKFORD

Eld. William E. Campbell, who was recently called to the Second Christian Church at Rockford, Illinois, has instituted a new plan for the future education of the children of the congregation. Saving accounts have been opened for seventeen members of the church ranging in age from 5 months to 11 years. Initial deposits in the Christmas Savings type plan were all made from the pastors personal funds. Accounts then are turned over to some relative, church member or friend who is charged with the responsibility of seeing that regular deposits are made in the child's name. At the end of the year funds are to be transferred to individual trust funds earmarked for education.

The idea of the plan was born as an aftermath of a talk concerning the need for educated and trained youths before the congregation by Dr. E. G. Roberts, local physician and member of the Illinois Commission on Human Relations.

Impressed by the lack of college trained men and women as described by Dr. Roberts, Eld. Campbell and his congregation realized (Continued on Page Seven)
Copy of Proposed Contract between Mr. Eppse and Nat'l Convention

(Editors' Note: In view of the wide spread interest in the proposed contract between Prof. Eppse and the National Convention for the sale of burial rights in Greenwood Cemetery, we feel it to be advisable to make available to our readers the full text of the agreement.)

This CONTRACT entered into by and between the NATIONAL CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION, a Tennessee corporation, hereinafter referred to as the "OWNER" and DR. MERL R. EPPSE, hereinafter referred to as "MANAGER".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the OWNER hereinafter designated owns and operates a cemetery for the burial of human beings located in Davidson County, Tennessee, adjacent to the Lebanon Pike and also owns land adjacent to the Elm Hill Pike and the portion of the property now operated as a cemetery is known as Greenwood Cemetery; and,

WHEREAS, the OWNER desires to employ Dr. Merl R. Eppse as the MANAGER of said cemetery and he is hereinafter referred to as the MANAGER.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed by and between the parties:

(1) The MANAGER will devote a sufficient amount of time to the operation of the cemetery to properly and efficiently manage same and in addition to the duties usually performed by a General Manager, he shall have the privilege of fixing the forms of contracts to be used in the sales of burial rights and he shall in his discretion plot the areas available for subdivision into lots in such a manner as to make same more desirable to the public and at the same time afford the greatest number of burial spaces consistent with accepted landscape principles prevailing in modern cemeteries. Subject to the MANAGER first securing the mutual consent of the OWNER or the designated agent of the OWNER, the said MANAGER shall have the right to fix the price and terms of burial lots and the same shall be maintained at uniform prices according to the location, size and other conditions controlling the desirability of burial spaces in portions of the cemetery.

(2) The OWNER in event burial rights are sold on contracts permitting a cash payment and thereafter monthly payments shall have the right to declare a contract as cancelled on account of the delinquency of the purchaser but the OWNER may delegate this right to the MANAGER.

AND IN CONSIDERATION of the services to be rendered by the MANAGER the MANAGER will receive 50% of the gross sales of burial rights, monuments, markers, etc. He shall not receive any portion of the amount payable to the cemetery for the opening of graves.

The MANAGER may solicit funds to beautify or maintain the cemetery. Out of the funds solicited for this purpose, the MANAGER shall receive 50% of any such funds solicited by him. The other 50% of such funds solicited by the MANAGER shall be used, by mutual consent of the OWNER and MANAGER, to beautify and maintain the cemetery. The MANAGER shall pay all expenses incidental to such solicitation and accumulation of said funds.

The amount to be paid to the MANAGER contemplates sales of plots or lots, monuments, markers and all income from such sources only.

Out of the 50% of all income to be received from sales or burial rights, the OWNER agrees to set aside 15% for a perpetual care fund, as required by the statutes of Tennessee Section 4181, Williams Tennessee Code. The OWNER agrees to use a portion of the 50% received from the sales of burial rights for the development of the cemetery.

Contracts and printed matter usually used in office records and office equipment are to be furnished by the OWNER. Also there shall be employed by the OWNER a superintendent and a bookkeeper and such other personnel as may be necessary in order to maintain the cemetery and open graves and perform the usual labor incident to the operation and maintenance of a cemetery.

The MANAGER shall out of the 50% of the gross collections of the cemetery paid to him furnish sales contracts, sales kits, promotion literature and he shall also out of the money received by him pay a sales manager and salesman and in view of the fact that the above personnel will be paid by the MANAGER it is understood that out of all moneys received from the sales of burial rights or from other sources that the MANAGER shall receive all of the cash payment and the subsequent installment payments until he shall have received 50% of the amount due.

It is further understood that for and in consideration of the MANAGER executing this contract that the OWNER is paying to him as of the date of this contract the sum of TWO THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED ($2500.00) DOLLARS and the MANAGER will out of the above payment remodel his office on the grounds of the cemetery and also will out of said moneys pay necessary expenses incidental... to modernizing the cemetery and will pay to H. RAYMOND LIGON for advice and services the sum of ONE THOUSAND ($1000.00) DOLLARS.

It is understood and agreed that this contract shall continue for a period of eight years from the date hereof and Dr. MERL R. EPPSE shall have the right to renew the contract upon the same terms and conditions provided the business of the cemetery is being operated at a reasonable profit during the last twenty-four (24) months prior to the expiration of this contract, subject to the approval and determination of the OWNER.

It is understood that the MANAGER will seek the advice, counsel and guidance of persons competent to advise in the management of the cemetery and the expenses incident to obtaining said advice will be paid by the MANAGER and also the OWNER agrees that the perpetual care fund will be deposited in such bank or banks as may be designated by the OWNER but same will be invested and the investments will be held in trust in an institution to be designated by the OWNER, and the OWNER agrees to designate a committee of three or more persons in Tennessee, with full authority to make investments to be deposited with the designated Trustee. It is understood that the income from such trust fund (Perpetual Care Fund) will be used exclusively for the maintenance of the cemetery.

All funds derived from the opening of graves and belonging to the OWNER shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds or funds derived from other sources. All obligations pertaining to the current operation of the cemetery, such as maintenance, personnel and equipment, etc., will be paid by the OWNER. The MANAGER agrees to maintain and keep a set of books reflecting the profits and losses of the operation and to submit annually to the OWNER a complete certified auditors report, on or before the ______ day of August, of each year.

The MANAGER herein designated shall have only the specific authority herein given to him and shall be subject to the authority herein given to the Trustees and the Trustees will have general supervision of the policies pertaining to the operation of the cemetery and the Trustees by entering into this contract will not be considered as having surrendered complete control of the management to the MANAGER herein named.

It is especially provided and mutually agreed that any changes in the general operation of the cemetery must have the approval of the parties hereto as represented by the MANAGER and the Trustees of the NATIONAL CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

The OWNER has caused this contract to be executed by its duly authorized officers on this the ______ day of ______ 195_, and as evidence of his agreement to all of the terms hereof the said DR. MERL R. EPPSE has likewise executed this contract on the day and date as indicated.

that the lack of finances was one of the major factors in the picture and decided upon this plan as one means of helping alleviate the situation in the future. The Second Christian Church has had 29 additions since Eld. Campbell began his pastorate less than a year ago. Each Sunday the small building is filled to capacity and a new spirit and enthusiasm seems to have enveloped the members. Eld. Campbell is the son of the late and beloved Eld. A RECOMMENDATION the election of all executive officers of the National Christian Missionary Convention whose term of office is now limited to two years until such time and occasion as will permit the convention to study and act upon a constitutional amendment, now pending, extending the two year term of office to three years retroactive to 1950 National Convention in Memphis, Tenn.

The enactment of this resolution would give the present officers an opportunity to end their administration duties under favorable conditions, and would thereby give the new officers of 1953 a good start toward success.

Very sincerely yours,
J. F. Whitfield

An Amendment to the National Christian Missionary Convention Constitution

WHEREAS for the reasons given by the undersigned in a special resolution to the National Christian Missionary Convention meeting in Los Angeles, California, the following amendment to the constitution is offered:
ARTICLE VII.
OFFICERS:
Section I. The officers shall be elected annually, except in case of some overriding reason for not doing so, and the tenure of office for President and Vice-President shall not exceed three years in succession and no president or vice-president shall succeed himself without 3 years intervening. (3 yrs). This does not mean that these officers must serve (three years), before a change can be made, except for some overriding reason given by a member of the convention at least thirty days before the close of the convention, and provided that such overriding reason is given in writing and that it is placed before the convention in the form of a recommendation by the recommendation committee to be voted on by the convention. The Recording Secretary, assistant recording secretaries, parliamentarian and Treasurer are not subject to this three year tenure of service. The election of officers shall be by members of the convention in annual session.

Signed: J. F. Whitfield, member of the National Christian Missionary Convention.
Date: July 10, 1952.

We went beyond our goal and on the following Sunday, our three month's Building Fund Rally ended with five hundred and seven dollars, ($507.00).

We are greatly indebted to the following for their loyal support; The First Christian Church of Bluefield, W. Va., Rev. Mays, Pastor, the Christian Churches of Princeton, W. Va. and Bluefield, Va., the Rev. John (Jack) Johnson, Pastor of the Richlands First Christian Church. All of the above mentioned are our white brethren, and the greater part of our audience was made up of our white friends from far and near.

We are also grateful to Miss Minnie Weaver, who is president of the white Y.W.C.A. of this city. And to our own Prof. John F. Banks the President of Christianburg Industrial Institute, along with many other outstanding men and women. We thank and praise God for this fine Christian character.

Faithfully Submitted,

THE LOS ANGELES CONVENTION

The 36th Annual National Christian Missionary Convention of the Christian Church met in Los Angeles, Cal., August 11-18, The Avalon Christian Church, Eld. B. C. Duke pastor as host. The Avalon Church was assisted by the several other churches and pastors of Los Angeles. In many ways this convention was one of the best in the 36 year history of our National convention. Several hundred delegates and visitors from 16 states, some traveling more than 3000 miles were in attendance. The entertainment was fine in every way. Eld. Duke the Pastor, Mr. Edgar Hampton of the Avalon Church, the general chairman and Eld. M. Fredrick Mitchell pastor of Cosmopolitan church and a host of others spared no pains in making the delegates comfortable and happy. The program was excellent. The General Theme of the Convention, "The Christian Church in a changing world," was well treated by all of the speakers. Every participant on the program seemed to be at his or her best.

Eld. Blair T. Hunt, the president conducted the entire convention in a most capable and efficient manner. Two of the highlights of the convention was the Presidents annual address on the opening night and his sermon on Sunday morning at the close of the conven-

DEDICATES NEW BUILDING

The Mississippi Boulevard Christian Church of Memphis Tenn., will dedicate its new sanctuary the 3rd Sunday in September. This addition to the present building was made at a cost of $100,000.00. With this new addition the Mississippi Boulevard church will have one of the finest houses of worship in our brotherhood. The Christian Plea extends to the pastor, Eld. Blair T. Hunt, and the Officers and Members of the Mississippi Boulevard church sincere congratulations for this outstanding achievement. Eld. Hunt has served as pastor of the church for more than 30 years, and recently completed a term of two years as president of the National Christian Missionary Convention.

S. C. I. LOOSES ITS RATING

Negro Disciples everywhere deeply regret the announcement that the Southern Christian Institute of Edwards Miss. has lost its rating in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This is a tremendous blow to S. C. I. and also to the thousands of our people who are proud of S. C. I.'s record. We do not have all of the facts and therefore will not attempt to place responsibility for this most unfortunate occurrence. We do hope however that those who are responsible will take the necessary steps to correct this situation as soon as possible.

It is extremely unfortunate for Negroes that our white brethman have not seen the wisdom nor the urgency of developing a realistic and aggressive program for promoting the Restoration Movement among Negroes here in America. We realize that much has been done for which we are grateful, but even the much, has only been a drop in the bucket. It is also true that we Negro Disciples can do a lot more to help ourselves. The progress that our National Convention has made in the last decade seems to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that we can and will do more to help ourselves. But while we are developing this "spirit of cooperation and sense of responsibility" among our people we need additional help from our white brethman. To a large extent our churches have been traditional "ruggedly individualistic." It will take a little time to teach stewardship and cooperation. But progress along this line is being made. We sincerely hope that some of the rumors of the cause for S. C. I. loosing its rating will be proved to be untrue. If qualified teachers is S. C. I.'s problem, all we have to say is this, there are dozens of Negro Disciple teachers in other Class A Schools, why not in S. C. I.

NEGRO CHURCHES

According to the Pittsburgh Courier

"A recent survey made by Drew Theological Seminary of Madison, N. J. showed some very interesting but not too pleasant facts about Negro churches. Out of 13,888 Negro families interviewed 47.3 families had no call from a minister during the past twelve months. Of 570 churches studied there were seven per county without song books or hymnals of any kind. That 43 per cent of the pastors had never gotten beyond the eighth grade, and 58 per cent had never gone beyond high school. Over three fourths of the ministers, 78 per cent, had to engage in some occupation other than preaching to support their families. Their average salaries from churches was 768 dollars per year."

We do not know what percentage of the churches surveyed were Christian churches. But we do know that many of our churches would fit this description of Negro churches most accurately. However we do believe that the Negro Christian church has made more progress in the last 25 years toward a trained ministry, adequate salaries for its ministers and adequate houses of worship, than perhaps any other religious body. We do not mean that we have solved any of these perplexing problems, we merely say we have made progress. Its true we have a long way to go yet, but we should not loose sight of how far we have come. Unfortunately too many of our better churches are still in the rut on this matter of ministerial support. They offer no encouragement to the smaller churches to do better, nor inducement to young men to enter the ministry. Too many of our most competent ministers have failed to lead their people forward as rapidly as the circumstances demand.

THE PREACHER

Why not stop kidding ourselves. If you need a preacher, and you are willing to support him, contact the Christian Plea. We may not have enough to meet all the needs, but we do know of several young men who want to pastor. The Plea can recommend them too. But we cannot ask a man with a family to accept a church for the same salary the church was paying back in 1930. The men we have in mind are willing to make a sacrifice. They are not asking for big salaries, but they do want some degree of security for their families. Is that asking too much? Suppose its your son or your daughter thats married to a preacher. DOES YOUR CHURCH WANT A PREACHER?
tion. Both messages were timely, thought provoking and inspiring. The financial reports were very good. A larger number of churches reported this year than ever before. One of the most striking things about the Los Angeles convention was the notable progress that has been made in the last ten years. The attendance has tripled and the financial support has increased 800 per cent. A fine spirit of fellowship and goodwill characterized the convention from beginning to end. The convention voted to hold the 37th session in Roanoke Va. August 1953, with the Loudon Ave Christian Church as host. It is expected that the 1953 convention will exceed all previous records in attendance, finance and the spirit of cooperation and goodwill. The following persons were elected as officers for this conventional year.

President—L. L. Dickerson, Ohio
1st Vice-Pres.—M. F. Mitchell, Cal.
2nd Vice-Pres.—Berniece A. Holmes, Okla.
3rd Vice-Pres.—Edith Bristow, Kentucky

From National Benevolent
Ass'n .......... 750.00
From Pension Fund .......... 600.00
From Board of Church Extension .......... 600.00
From Christian Board of Publication .......... 2,000.00
Total Receipts from Aug. 1951—July 1952 .......... $ 30,550.76

It is extremely gratifying to those who have followed the convention through the years to note that in the last 10 years the giving of the churches and individuals to the support of the Convention has increased 800 per cent, and the attendance has increased nearly 400 per cent. Of the $30,550.76 received by the National Convention in 1951-52, $10,517.46 came directly from Negro Churches and Individuals. This does not include the several thousand dollars our churches gave to Unified Promotion, and several thousand dollars more that they gave to support some 15 state conventions.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION OF DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

July 19, 1952

To the National Christian Missionary Convention
Care of: Mr. Emmett J. Dickson, Executive Secretary

Dear Brethren:

Please accept our Christian greetings and best wishes for a most successful Assembly of your Convention in Los Angeles. How we wish that it might be possible for us to share at least part of this experience with you. However, I will be on my way to Australia attending the World Convention in Melbourne.

It was our pleasure to have your esteemed Executive Secretary appear on the program at Chicago last May with Greetings from your Convention. He made a splendid statement and his appearance this year was most timely inasmuch as the application of your Convention for membership in the International Convention was received and placed on file at this time.

Perhaps it would be of interest to you to know that your proposed application will have the happy effect of preserving your own organizational integrity, which we are sure is very precious to you, and at the same time provide a means of fellowship and reporting status which will make you in fact a real part of the International Convention of Disciples of Christ as an organization. This is the same relationship sustained by The United Christian Missionary Society, The Pension Fund, The National Evangelistic Association, and others.

As individuals you have always been entitled to membership in the Annual Assembly of the International Convention upon the simple conditions of attendance and payment of the registration fee. This arrangement applies to individual members of the other fifteen cooperating units with the Convention. Therefore, upon your admission to membership in the Convention next July your individual status will in nowise be altered.

It is our hope that through negotiations, ways and means may be developed by which the National Christian Missionary Convention through its State Conventions, may find some equitable representation on the Committee on Recommendations. Such representation has already been considered and we feel confident that the said representation can be easily worked out through mutual conference. In fact, it is greatly to be desired.

In behalf of the International Convention I wish to express my appreciation for your spirit of patience and understanding with regard to some of the delicate situations which have arisen, through no fault of ours, in entertaining cities. Please be assured that the International Convention officers and management have earnestly striven to secure Christian arrangements in all entertaining cities. We have been grieved over the necessity of even attempting to secure such Christian arrangements, but we pledge to you that we shall continue in every situation where necessary to secure the best possible arrangements under existing conditions. We take some satisfaction over the fact that definite progress has been made, but we are not yet satisfied.

We extend a hearty invitation to all members of the National Christian Missionary Convention to be present at and participate in the Portland Assembly, July 4-9, 1953. No effort will be spared in making this Convention inclusive.

We know that you have many important items before you for consideration in your Los Angeles Convention. The International Convention will be glad to receive any fraternal communication from you or any recommendations for better administration of the International Convention.

With our sincere greetings, I am

Cordially,

Gaines M. Cook
Executive Secretary
International Convention of Disciples of Christ

REPORT,

CHRISTIAN PLEA

L. L. DICKERSON, Editor

Mr. President and members of the National Board of the National Christian Missionary Convention: Please allow me to submit this report for the Christian Plea. Four years ago I was elected Editor of the Plea. While I have done my best to give to our Brotherhood the kind of journal it should have, one that would not only carry news items from the various churches but a paper that would also interpret to some degree the hopes and aims and aspirations of some 60,000 Negro Disciples. A medium through which we could speak to our Brotherhood at large and the world in general. “A journalistic platform” that would permit one and all who so desired to express themselves on all questions and issues of interest to our people.

I confess that the high hopes of four years ago have not been realized. While we have not missed an issue of the Plea during these four years, a great many issues have been late and hardly any of them have been of the high journalistic quality that we desired and the Brotherhood deserves. While I certainly do not want to put myself in the position of offering alibis for my failure to do a good

REPORT COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL ISSUES

Truly we are living in a changing world. Never before in the history of the world has mankind stood face to face with so many critical issues, anyone of which may determine the future of our civilization for the next thousand years, or even decide the ultimate destiny of the human race. Never before in the history of mankind has there been so many radical changes in the moral, spiritual, social and economic thinking and acting as in the past century.

In the midst of this turmoil and confusion doubt and fear, weakness and strength, ignorance and intelligence, stands the church of Jesus Christ, with its God given responsibility preserving all of those moral and spiritual values that time and experiences have proven to be both sacred and inspiring.

It is the inescapable duty of the church to be the keeper of men’s conscience, and to continually point the way to peace, justice, mercy and good will among all men.

The issues of the present day are many and varied; world peace, human rights, social justice, economic security and moral integrity. The church of Jesus Christ is basically, essentially and unalterably opposed to war. We believe that all wars are useless and senseless to contrary to the teachings and the spirit of Jesus, and that the church shall mobilize all of its resources to bring about peace and good-will among all men. We urge the members of our church to work and pray for a just and lasting peace.

Human Rights — One is your master even God and all men; out of one blood God made all men dwell upon the face of the earth.

All men are created free, equal, and are endowed with certain inalienable rights. These immortal pronouncements constitute the basic principles upon which the whole program of human rights must rest. We believe that the question of human rights is the foremost and most critical issue facing the world in general and our own country in particular. Discrimination, prejudice, segregation, social, political and economic injustices against millions of loyal American citizens because of race or color as practical in America, repudiates and nullifies every great principle and ideal upon which this government is founded.

The establishment of fellowship churches and all peoples church is a splendid gesture and example of what should be, but they are a poor excuse for the Christian church’s failure to practice its basic doctrine, “The Divine Fatherhood of God and the universal Brotherhood of man.” We believe in tolerance, but we know that that too is a poor substitute for brotherly love.

We reaffirm our wholehearted support of the president’s civil rights program and urge our people to support only those candidates who are wholeheartedly in sympathy with and are willing to actually support civil rights legislation. We endorse legislation for federal aid to education to be administered by the federal government with safe guard against discrimination because of race or color.

We believe that all peoples are endowed with the inalienable right, to work, to food, to decent housing, proper medical care, and security in time of old age. We believe that labor is entitled to a fair share of the fruits of labor and are obligated to give honest labor in return.

Our whole nation has been alarmed and rightly so by bribery and corruption in both government and private life; wide spread drinking and gambling in high and low places, broken homes, juvenile delinquency. We realize that this only is a symptom. A symptom of the general moral and spiritual breakdown in our social order. We realize that a change in national administration (whether democratic or republican) nor pious pronouncement of eternal principles of righteousness, and Justice will cure this terrible condition of our moral state.

Our greatest need is for repentance. Genuine, sincere, heartfelt repentance. We therefore call upon our people to re dedicate and re consecrate their lives to Jesus Christ and make the principles and ideals that he so beautifully personified, a living dynamic force in our own lives, to the end that his Kingdom may come on earth, as it is in heaven.

DISFRANCHISEMENT OF VOTERS

There are all kinds of political polls these days. Here’s one that may not have come to your attention and which, to us, is significant.

Elmo Roper, in his survey appearing in the New York Herald Tribune on June 23, revealed that 62% of United States Negroes considered themselves Democrats, 24% Republicans and 14% Independents.

But only 31% (about 3 million) of the Negroes voted at least once during the past 4 years, as against 52% of the total population.

The low figure was due to conditions in the South, where only 15% (1 million) voted. 62% voted in the North.

And, of course, only 15% voted in the South because of poll taxes, phony intelligence tests, restrictive legal requirements, fear and intimidation.
REPORT OF RECORDING SECRETARY

R. L. SAUNDERS, Secretary

To the officers and delegates of the Thirty-sixth National Missionary Convention of the Disciples of Christ of America, Greetings:

As the Recording Secretary of the National Board and Convention, I hereby submit this report of the Trustees and National Board for your information and approval.

The Board has held two regular meetings, one at the close of the Convention at Indianapolis (Aug., 1951), the other at the beginning of the 36th National Convention, held at Los Angeles, (Aug., 1952).

The Trustee Board held two meetings, one at the convention in Indianapolis (August, 1951) and the other in March (27 & 28), 1952, in Indianapolis. At these meetings, reports and recommendations were given by the Staff workers and the Christian Plea Editor. Each report was given consideration. From the reports, it could be clearly seen that the work is progressing.

The first meeting was given wholly to the organization of the Board into trustees and organization into the following committees:

1. Administration and Finance
2. Missionary Organization and Education
3. Christian Education
4. Evangelism and Church Development
5. Management of Real and Personal Property.

The necessary sub-committees were also formed.

Each Committee gave prayerful attention and thought to its respective work.

The meeting of the goals of the "Long Range Program" is the most important issue before the Brotherhood and Convention at this time.

It was moved, seconded, and carried that the report of money and personnel from Cooperating Agencies would remain the same as last year. We are deeply grateful for the support that the Agencies have so faithfully given our work during the past year.

It is the hope and aspiration of the National Board that we strengthen our work to the point that we will be able to expand to meet the needs of our Brotherhood. Some of the outstanding needs from the standpoint of personnel are Children’s workers, Men’s workers, and trained area leaders.

The Treasurer's report was received together with Certificate of C.P.A., which stated that the accounts were fairly accurate as to receipts and disbursements.

The following Budget has been approved for 1952-53:

TREASURER’S REPORT

Indianapolis, Indiana, for the period, August 9, 1951 to July 29, 1952, verified certain invoices and checked other accounting records and vouchers to the extent and by means we deemed necessary. Our examination included tracing of cash receipts to deposits in bank (except $1,485.44 cash spent during 1951 Convention), verifying certain requisitions with checks and checking returned checks for proper endorsement, signature of maker and amount. Cash in bank ($1,680.66 as of July 29, 1952) was confirmed by direct correspondence with the depository.

It is our opinion that this statement presents fairly the cash receipts and disbursements as shown by the books and accounting records of the National Missionary Convention for the period, August 9, 1951 to July 29, 1952.

job as editor of the Plea, I do feel that I should point out AGAIN some of the things that make the editing of the Plea a most difficult and almost impossible task.

I say "AGAIN," because my predecessors in this work and many others who have had no direct experience with the Plea as Editor, have repeatedly pointed out the problems of publishing the paper. First of all our major problem is finance. Or I should say a lack of adequate financing. One of the reasons the Plea has been coming out at irregular intervals is that we have not had sufficient funds to have the Plea printed by reliable and efficient printers. We have had to have our printing done by small shops that could do it comparatively cheap but not efficiently, and take it when ever we could get it.

Another problem is collecting subscriptions when due. Even though we have sent out hundreds of notices to delinquent subscribers and dozens of letters to local pastors and church leaders, we have not been able to collect from more than about 40 per cent of our subscribers in any given year, and more than half of that amount has been collected by the editor in person at state and National Conventions. Only about 20 per cent of our subscribers pay their subscriptions by mail.

Another problem is to keep the Plea from being a "one man paper." We have tried in vain to get the ministers and leaders of our churches to contribute from time to time articles that would be of interest to our readers. With but a very few exceptions all of the items appearing in the Plea aside from the news items from the various churches and promotional letters from the Officers and the staff, were the thinking of the Editor. This has served to limit the usefulness of the Plea and also kept it from being more interesting.

I feel sure that most of our people believe that we need some kind of an organ that will serve as a "voice" for our Negro Brotherhood. Some "link of fellowship" with our widely scattered brethren of like precious faith. No religious body can succeed very well without a journal and a school. These are two musts for us if we are to survive and continue to progress. The National Convention contributes $1000.00 a year to the Plea. We receive about $150.00 a year from ads. About $400.00 a year from subscriptions and approximately $300.00 a year from convention registrations. A total of approximately $1800.00.

The cost of publishing the Plea is as follows:

- Printing $1500.00
- Mailing 60.00
- Wrappers and addressing 60.00
- Clerical help 200.00
- Misc. Supplies 60.00
- Travel, telephone calls, etc. 50.00

An approximate total of $1930.00.

The Plea should have an additional $600.00 to be used as follows: Travel, $300.00; editorial assistance $100.00; clerical help, $100.00; making a total of $300.00 a year for clerical help.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. That we provide the Christian Plea with an additional $600.00, $300.00 of this amount could come from funds used by the staff for "direct by mail promotion." A letter to the churches through the Plea would reach more people and get better results than a letter sent to individuals which in most cases ends up in the waste basket without being read. This would also lessen the work load of our office secretary in Indianapolis. In this manner the Plea could serve in a larger way as a medium of promotion and at the same time carry enough other material to make it interesting and effective.

2. That the Trustees secure as soon as possible another Editor. I would like very much to be relieved of this honor and responsibility, especially the responsibility.

ELD. MITCHELL COMMENDS CONVENTION

Dear Editor of the Christian Plea:

I know the delegates from our church throughout the nation would be happy to get items of interest from the impulses of our Great National Convention recently held in Los Angeles, California. Judging from the many cards of thanks and expressions from the delegates before they embarked for home to the effect, "we are thoroughly satisfied with the entertainment of the convention." We truly tried to do the job—we poured out our very souls in effort to make the loveliest brothers and sisters in all the world the happiest. The earnestness and the solemn way the officials and delegates went about the program of the convention made me doubly proud. Truly, you have made an everlasting impression upon all Los Angeles. Never before in the history of conventions was a deeper and more abiding impression made upon the citizenry of Los Angeles. Our theme, "The Christian Church in a Changing World," awakened Los Angeles, and provoked their thinking as to the great import of our great convention.

Our devoted President, Dr. Blair T. Hunt, is deserving of much credit—the dignified and streamlined way he went about the duties of his office. Our vice Presidents were actuated and carried out the duties enjoined upon them in a

APPEAL TO THE LAYMEN

Dear Brethren:

The National Christian Men’s Fellowship of the National Christian Missionary Convention wishes every local church in each State fully organized, to do this, we have a program of organizational promotion.

Each local church is asked to send a special gift to insure our efforts toward a fully organized local laymen group in every local church.

Your contribution will be given credit toward your state apportionment to the National Christian Missionary Convention report in Roanoke, Virginia, in 1953.

Please send your contribution to T. W. Pratt, 2121 Leonard St., Dallas, 4, Texas; Treasurer, National Christian Men’s Fellowship, who will forward all funds to Dr. J. E. Walker, Memphis, Tennessee, Treasurer, National Christian Missionary Convention.

We earnestly and prayerfully urge you to observe National Laymen’s Day, October 19, 1952 by preparing and conducting a Men’s Program, with the guidance of your Minister and the whole-hearted co-operation of every man available in your church and community.

Yours in Christ,

Alfred M. Thomas

Thanksgiving Offering for State Missions and Christian Education

The Church and Christian education can make the difference between wasted resources of life and useful Christian citizenship. Tens of thousands of American youth are today without Christian influence and direction. These boys and girls live in every community, both rural and urban.

Many, perhaps most, of young America could be reached for Christ with a vitalized program of Christian education and church expansion. Church leaders are aware of the opportunities which are before us and of the urgency of the situation.

State Missions, by which we mean the work of the state missionary societies, is concerned with

MONTHLY PROGRAMS FOR MEN'S MEETINGS
Compiled by Department of Men's Work
Complete Instructions for 12 Programs

"Having a special speaker is perhaps the easiest way to have a meeting. If that is your method, here are timely topics with helps.

"A better way to develop man is to select a topic and have the program committee arrange for several speakers to participate. The old 'Christian Endeavor' type of meeting, with a leader and speaking from the audience still works. Try it!

"We shall never develop intelligent, effective laymen if we simply talk to them or at them or simply try to entertain them. Our men are thinking deeply about the church and its problems. They will have volumes to say if given the chance."

Get these program helps for your men and plan your work. Then work the plan. Have the church pay for the programs.

NEEDS OF THE MINISTRY

In speaking to one of the simultaneous sessions of the men's Workshop, Mr. Fred Michel, national director of Church Maintenance, said, "The small income for our ministry is creating a great many pulpitless churches in our Brotherhood today. We need badly young men to take up the ministry and take over our churches that haven't any minister. Our laymen should think seriously about this and see to it that our preachers are adequately cared for.

SEVENTEEN NEW MISSIONARIES COMMISSIONED

Seventeen young men and women were appointed to serve on foreign mission fields under The United Christian Missionary Society, June 18. The commissioning and communion service was held in Graham Chapel at the Missions Building, headquarters of the Society in Indianapolis, Ind.

Those commissioned and expecting to sail for their fields this summer or early fall are, Mr. and Mrs. Jack T. Barron, Miss Ruth Coates, Miss Jane Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Williams, all of whom will serve on the Belgian Congo.

most masterly manner. Our executive secretary, Dr. Emmitt J. Dickson, acted as though he had just been from Paradise. In fact, everyone related to the program of the convention, including the earnest ministers, portrayed the spirit of our Elder Brother, Jesus Christ our Saviour.

The most excellent contribution our convention made to Los Angeles is yet a town talk. The ministers whom we sent across the city to be guests of the various pulpits, acquitted themselves like Christian Preachers—we have had commendable reports. Among the several things that was on our mind’s agenda was the following: place our ministers in the various churches of the city, not leaving a stone uncovered regarding the publicity; satisfactorily feed and house our lovely delegates. I believe that we can be of help to other churches desiring to entertain the National Convention.

I believe the convention made a wise choice in selecting Dr. L. L. Dickerson as its president. I consider it a great challenge to be chosen the vice president. I pledge the president my wholehearted support and am confident that I will enjoy his cooperation because we are all one in Christ Jesus having as our golden aim the ongoing of the church of Christ.

I do think it should be the aim of our National Convention officials to make each one greater than the last. It can be done. In the first place, I think we ought to increase our giving. I am of the opinion that our giving could be increased 500 per cent. In the second place, the project “Men, Women, and One Hundred Dollar Movement” should be ignited and the flames should be spread to all the members of our respective churches.

We are blessed of God. We are the children of God. We are abundantly blessed and I do believe that as we bring in to his storehouse tithes and offerings he will open the window of heaven and shower upon us greater blessings. We ought to find in all of our churches men and women whom the Lord has blessed to become a member of the “Men, Women, and One Hundred Dollar Movement.” We are thoroughly convinced that the church is man’s greatest interest on earth—man’s only refuge, the bulwark of our present civilization. “Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things will be added unto you.” It would be so good to find 200 persons of our various churches, with each church represented irrespective of how small, to swell this new project to the strength of 200 persons. That would mean $20,000.

We have also dreamed out another project that I will work on ere the time of the next convention, which we will share with the churches of our different states. Namely, let each church set as a goal, independent of other askings or commitments, from $500 to $1,000. This plan does not include the members of our respective church giving, but the honorable businesses and firms whose very existence depends upon the influence of the church. For example, whether we have 10 members or 500 in the local church they are patrons of the local firms; groceries, dry goods, motor vehicles, or shoe stores, etc. Were it not for the church, these firms could not exist. I know a small Methodist church with 300 members which collects from above named firms $2,000 conference money. Wouldn’t it be heartening if all of our respective churches in the nation would become interested in this type of program and fill our coffers with money enough to do a great and big job in the work of evange-the task of establishment of new churches. Last year 43 new congregations were organized. This represents but a small fraction of the opportunities presented, but funds were not available for a more extensive program.

Statistics can never tell the story of Christian education. It is impossible to place a dollar value on the character of a girl or boy, nor can a price tag be put on a Christian home. The program of Christian education involves the total educational program, including trained leadership and improved materials and methods for the Sunday School, conferences and camps for youth, student work on the college campus, social education and support of the church related colleges of our brotherhood.

Support is given to the work of State Missions and Christian education by the Thanksgiving offering. Materials, including teachers manuals, coin boxes and envelopes and worship materials for children are available free from Unified Promotion, Box 5636, Indianapolis, or the state office. These should be ordered at once.

after a year of required study in Belgium; Miss Hazel Wait, who will go to India; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brummitt, who will serve in the Philippine Islands; Miss Diora Spear, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Palmer and Vern Rossman, who go to Japan.

This new group brings the total number of missionaries in active service under the United Society to 224, working in eleven foreign countries.
PART OF RECOMMENDATIONS OF NATIONAL CONVENTION

Whereas, the Greenwood Cemetery of Nashville, Tennessee, a great gift to the National Christian Missionary Convention from the late Preston Taylor, is in need of improvements, development, and a pre-needed grave and lot sale,

Whereas, some percent of our National Convention finance is not proceed from the Greenwood cemetery and without a re-development of same, the proceeds from the cemetery will be greatly reduced.

Whereas, the Trustees have studied the plans for re-development, etc.

Whereas, the Trustees voted against the contract as published in the Christian Plea

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Trustees make a further study of conditions and contracts

Resolve that when contract for re-development and increased revenue is drawn up which will be for the lasting benefit of the Taylor Estate and the National Convention, the Trustees be empowered to enter into such contract.

That the department of women's work of the National Christian Missionary Convention have its name changed from the Department of Missionary Organizations-Education to the Department of Missionary Education and Christian Women's Fellowship and that the constitution be amended to that effect.

That a committee be appointed to study the requirements of the Loving Cup in the light of progressive reports of organizations.

That the National Laymen's Organization accept the title of Christian Men's Fellowship and that the constitution be amended to conform thereto.

That the reports of churches be printed statistically instead of in paragraphs.

That the National Christian Missionary Convention become a reporting agency to the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ with all rights and privileges to be gained under the constitution of the International Convention.

That the constitution be amended to meet the request for membership in the International Convention.

The principle of increase in the 1952-53 church goals is 50% over 1949 goal or giving. If a church has reached its goal for the year, the increase is 10% of its giving. We recommend that this principle of goal increase be accepted and dollar goals be sent to each church.

Whereas, there is a scarcity of Christian Churches in these United States of America, even in some of our very large cities, whereas this condition has caused many of our members to attend other churches and finally become members thereof, be it resolved that there be every effort possible put forth by the Department of Evangelism and Church Development to organize and establish churches in every city and town of these United States which has five thousand (5000) or more Negro inhabitants.

We recommend that all churches who are seeking pastors be urged to secure the endorsement of the National Office of Church Development and Evangelism, State Board, or Regional Evangelist will not be considered in good standing in this convention.

That each church would receive more information concerning the youth department of the National Christian Missionary Convention and the oratorical contest through the Christian Plea and other Christian literature being sent to the local churches.

That there be a youth rally on the day the board meets at each National Christian Missionary Convention annual session.

That the states take definite steps to see that each local youth group is organized in each church reporting to the state.

That each state youth group pay $5.00 representation fee to the National Convention and each local group pay $10.00 representation fee as a minimum.

That Tuesday or Wednesday night be given over to the youth on the National Convention annual program.

That we accept the invitation from the Louden Avenue Christian Church to entertain the 37th Annual Session of the National Christian Missionary Convention. (Roanoke, Virginia)

That there be allowed for not more than two years from 1953 to 1955 the sum of $500.00 to be matched by the states or areas to be used for evangelistic work in the weaker states.

That a conference of state presidents be held in cooperation with Unified Promotion, United Christian Missionary Society, National Christian Missionary Convention, and other interested agencies for the planning and promotion of the Brotherhood program.

That whenever the Gay-Lea Christian Fellowship effect legally a corporate church body and secure a bona fide Christian minister The Preston Taylor Estate, Trustees Board of the National Board will not be considered in good standing in this convention.

That each church would receive more information concerning the youth department of the National Christian Missionary Convention and the oratorical contest through the Christian Plea and other Christian literature being sent to the local churches.

That there be a youth rally on the day the board meets at each National Christian Missionary Convention annual session.

That the states take definite steps to see that each local youth group is organized in each church reporting to the state.

That each state youth group pay $5.00 representation fee to the National Convention and each local group pay $10.00 representation fee as a minimum.

We the pastor, officers and members of the Summit Christian Church of Dayton, Ohio extends an invitation to the National Christian Missionary Convention with our church in either of the following years; 1953, or 1954 or 1955. This invitation comes from the entire membership of the church. We assure you that we will meet every requirement that the convention demands of the entertaining church in caring for the convention. As a church that is full accord with convention program we truly hope that you will accept our invitation to be our guest in one of the years stated above.

That our Brotherhood urge greater financial aid to our two fine colleges, Jarvis Christian and Southern Christian Institute. We further recommend that the Brotherhood carry on a greater program of student recruitment for these two colleges.

Whereas Blair T. Hunt, minister, education and orator has served our National Christian Missionary Convention for two consecutive years and led us to great spiritual heights,

Whereas in appreciation of the high level of administrative ability we are humbly trying to express our love and esteem for one who has served us so valiantly,

Whereas, we the committee on recommendations do hereby wish for our great president and his fine staff, long life and continued prosperity for their unselfish service rendered,

Be it resolved that a copy of this resolution be recorded in the minutes of the convention.

THIS MOMENT

by Kenneth Henry Palestine, Texas

Among the many features of the Christian Youth Conference of North America that convened at Purdue University August 25-29, there were dramatic presentations of This Moment for the more than 1000 young people assembled there. Inspiring posters, drama, music and many techniques were employed to vividly portray the problems, anxieties, the hopes and fears of our times and to realize the necessity of the action of christian youth at this moment.

The International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission met the week before during August 21-25. Representatives from our states and convention areas came together to plan and consider emphases for youth program planning throughout the brotherhood of the Disciples of Christ for next year. They came from local churches of different sizes and areas where C.Y.F. is just beginning or developing. Out of the cooperative study, work and play during that week the greatest bond of unity was discovered, that of allegiance to one God and the brotherhood of all mankind.

For a third conference at Purdue the week of August 31-September 5, the General Council of the United Christian Youth Movement met. Youth leaders from most of the major denominations of America came to discover similarities and to chart some course of action united, committed, in Christ. Attention was given strengthening denominational youth programs as sources and channels for U.C.Y.M.

It was my pleasure to share in these conferences as just one with many others like myself. While we were there representing our various groups we did not feel that we were doing the whole job. Our highest ambition was to try to discover the role of christian youth and how to begin the task This Moment.

In this same manner I go as a representative of the Disciples of Christ to the Third World Conference of Protestant Youth at Travancore, India. Three hundred delegates from fifty-six countries of the world will assemble on December 11-25, 1952. As we transcend barriers of language, race, geography, and many more it will not be ours to forget our differences or idealize our cause but to know our “oneness” and recognize our task in proclaiming to all the world “Christ the Answer.” With the help of the Father of all mankind we must play our part in our world “this moment.”

Christian and Scholarship for our youths. Money from this source to augment this project could be made a reality by appointing an energetic or known person in the church under the supervision of the minister. We can readily see if this project is put into effect with prayerful effort, success will light upon our banners with folded wings.

Let us all keep in mind that we represent the church of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The plea that we represent and the ground upon which we stand were made hallowed by our Lord and Master when he was walking under the very shadow of the cross. “That they all may be one even as we are,” and the echo of the sacred words of the apostle Paul, (1 Corinthians 1:10) “Now I beseech you brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment.”

ANNUAL REPORT — 1952

CHARLES H. WEBB

To: The National Board
Delegates of the 36th Session, National Christian Missionary Convention — Friends

GREETINGS:

The National Christian Missionary Convention, Disciples of Christ, is a great organization and is becoming more and more a symbol of cooperation and consecration. It is a pleasure to have had the opportunity of this very close and intimate association with this work. It is my sincere hope that the associated churches and the individuals who may be touched by our influence, and to the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ everywhere.

Before the last delegates had left the convention city last year, we were busily engaged in the business of preparing the Taylor Memorial Fellowship House for occupancy before the expected occupants arrived. By the time school opened, the house was in good condition, the matron was in residence, and seven young men were ready to enroll in Butler University. The first year of operation has been a rather rugged one, but has supplied us with valuable experience which will facilitate our efforts the second year. There is a prospect that two or three additional men will be added to the number in the new school year.

I. Recruitment

It may be that some people are already beginning to ask questions, and are expressing doubts that some of the men who take advantage of generosity of our Brotherhood and the ministerial training program. Some believe that several of our young men will never be of any real value to the Brotherhood. Of course it has been borne out by much study that it takes three recruits to make a preacher. Our percentage is a bit higher than that for the past two decades and by concentration of effort we can have relative assurance that it will not lessen. Some of the men who are screened through our process will not hold out but some of them will. Those who will are the ones for whom our efforts are put forth.

II. Planning For Service

It has been the privilege of the Director to attend meeting of the Christian Education Planning Conference of our own Department of Christian Education; the Fall and Spring meetings of the National Brotherhood group “The Home and State Missions Planning Conference,” and working as a member of its committee on Evangelism. In this committee the program of evangelism of the Brotherhood is carefully worked out and ways by which it may be adopted and utilized by any and every church which finds a need for them. The Pre-Easter evangelism materials will be mailed to each minister early in the Fall so that early plans for the Spring campaigns may be launched. The 1953 Pre-Easter theme will be “Christ Gives Power For Today.”

One of the most forward looking trends in the Brotherhood today is the trend toward statewide planning. It has been my privilege to assist in planning meetings held by State Boards or designated representatives of all the constituent departments in several areas, including, Texas, Oklahoma, Alabama and Tennessee. The next step in the emphasis on planning is a concentration on the local planning for the church. The most thorough planning job now being done is at the National level. Efficiency, thoroughness and even interest, tend progressively downward to the local church level. The trend continues on down from over-all church planning to departments and committees within the church. There should be as much concern shown for planning IN the local church as the National groups show in planning FOR the local church. The responsibility, of course, is upon the minister.

III. Long Range Program

It was during the 1930’s that one of the best crop of young men were gathered together, as ministerial recruits, given the opportunity of training and guided into the work of the church, insofar as it was possible. It should be said that only a small percentage of that group and the few subsequent groups have contributed to a pastoral ministry. For example, in a three year period between 1936-39 eleven men spent at least one year in residence at the Coop House for ministerial students in Indianapolis. Of that eleven men, two were teachers from Southern Christian Institute and Jarvis doing graduate work. They returned to their post, leaving nine. Four of these have served the church in no capacity of leadership since they left Butler in 1939. Two entered full time teaching fields within the Brotherhood, though one later accepted a position with another institution out of the Brotherhood. Only three have ever held full time pastorates. Today of the eleven five are committed to full time religious work, but only one is holding a full time pastoral ministry to the church. Only one.

This narrative points up several things which gain added significance as we pursue the problem of recruitment and training and placement of ministers. (1) In the first place we need not attempt to be clairvoyant to the point of being able to adjudge with our frail human capacities whom God has called to be His messengers, most certainly we can not know, but we can most assuredly practice a far better brand of judgement in the selection of the men in whom the vast investments of interest, money and hope will be made. The percentage of full time ministers which will accrue from a given number is small enough when all the best methods of recruitment and training are practiced. (2) The significant pain in this is that job opportunities were scarce when these men were ready, and (3) there is no evidence, except in one case, that 35% of the eleven would have accepted Christian service had the opportunity been presented. This is an indication of basic indifference or an absence of the fundamental first step in the Christian warfare, the compelling passion.

Today there are six principle institutions which are supposedly training ministers for Negro Disciples of Christ churches. They are Butler University, Jarvis College, Southern Christian Institute, The College of the Scriptures, Winston Salem Bible College and Howard University. From the best available information the total number now in training is about 30 in these six institutions.

We are able to produce preachers at about the rate the churches can absorb the brand produced. There are about five men who have entered the ministry from adult laymen's groups in the last two years. These men had families and home responsibilities and therefore cherished no hope of receiving formal training, but all of them have accepted calls to churches and are preaching every Sunday. A young seminary student refused a student pastorate that would not pay more than $80 to $100 per month while his schooling was assured and he needed the experience.

Actually the picture is a confused one with our churches. According to the 1951 Year Book, there are 546 churches and 573 ministers. Of the churches 118 have preaching every Sunday and 342 have part time preaching. Seventy-two hold no regular services. Of the ministers, 46 are full time pastors, about 240 serve the 470 churches having regular services; of the remaining 267 a majority of lay ministers and NBO's and many whose activities are accountable to no one.

In the field of evangelism the Long Range Prospect is that each year will add to its membership a number equal to 10% of its current strength. In the course of ten years there should be a net increase of approximately ten percent of the 1950 report if the church program continues consistently. This will require not only a strong teaching program but a strong preaching program as well. One of the principle jobs of the pastor is his preaching. When he gets tired the first thing he weakens on is the preaching. It takes strong, convincing, and powerful preaching to make and keep churches strong. Furthermore it will be the means by which many now groping in darkness will be led to the Christ way and eternal salvation.

IV. Institutes and Conferences

In the majority of cases I have been called into youth groups, minister's meetings and conventions to teach courses and lead discussions on a theme with which the individuals in charge felt we qualified to deal by virtue of special experience and broader information gathered through our wide travel. In a lesser number of institutes and retreats for ministers, my principle objective was to observe the method of operation, building program and etc, in order that the best that they have, when practical, might be utilized to the advantage of our ministers. This year a new need is realized which can be met only through a closer working and clinical relationship with the ministers and pastors. It is therefore our hope that this year our state minister's institutes, or pastor's retreats may be revived. With the active and financial participation of the state convention and the missionary associations, such will be easily possible.

VI. Promotional and Educational

A portion of the tremendously important job of getting the National Convention to the local church in visible form was accomplished in Kentucky when Brother L. J. Evans and I joined President Frazier for a one week tour of some strategic points in the state. We promoted the state, national and brotherhood program, answering and asking questions. As a result of this and a similar tour of Texas as well as a steadily increasing revelation of the desire of the people on the field to know more about the causes which they were being called upon to support, a four page promotional leaflet has been developed presenting all phases of the work of our National Convention. Evangelism — emphasize the need for preaching — its importance of preaching in church.

The National President of the Laymen’s League along with Mr. Dickson and your Director, planned and promoted a National Laymen’s Retreat which was to have been held in Memphis during June. It was necessary to postpone the Retreat when it became apparent that for a number of excellent reasons, there would not be enough men in attendance to justify the effort and expense. There are strong plans under way now to hold this Retreat in the late Fall.

We request at this point that if you receive a letter requesting information regarding your ability to attend such a meeting please WRITE BACK.

My friends, I have put in writing a sketchy statement of the effort made by the Director of Church Development and Evangelism. I can add to the list the fact that through my efforts 19 were added to the church and one young man made the commitment to full life

ELDER MITCHELL

Brethren, we truly are enriched with a great heritage. On our left, representing the past, we are compassed with a great cloud of witnesses; and on our right, which represents the present and the future, we are coming to the end of a world when men are pinning their hopes on materialism. Because of failure in these respects, the children of men, never before, are looking toward the church for the way out. They have truly found out that there is a way that seems right to man, but the end thereof is the ways of death. Never before has the church of our Lord Jesus Christ been confronted with a great challenge as now. May we acquit ourselves like men. I am convinced more than ever that we who choose to have no book but the Bible, no creed but Christ, no name but Divine have a definite contribution to make. It will take, besides earnestness and consecration, grit, grace and greenback.

We have a consecrated and truly interested national treasurer who has been our National Convention treasurer for many years; who is truly tried, who fits in the scriptural injunction, answers the question “How can a man who is unable to direct his own affairs take care of the house of God.” Our Treasurer is a success in his home life, in his business life, and in his church life. May God help us rise up in all the strength of our might and do the great things for our Lord.

Fraternally yours,

M. Frederick Mitchell

XENIA CELEBRATES 108TH ANNIVERSARY

In June, 1844, Rev. Anthony Beard of Paris Kentucky began a discussion with his father on the question of slavery. He attempted to prove to his father that slavery was wrong and that he should free his slaves. He requested his father to turn the slaves over to him. After carefully considering the matter the father agreed to do so. Shortly afterwards the son Rev. Beard freed all of the slaves on the plantation and brought them to Xenia, Ohio, bought them farms and set them up in business. Mr. (Continued on Page Three) not been for your interest and concern it would not have been possible for these gains to have been made. Over 500 young people in summer conference and camp, character bond giving increased, over $1,100.00 reported to the national convention by the Bible Schools, a number of the schools making excellent progress in their program of christian education. This required work.

We must ever keep before us that if we are to make our contribution to the building of the Kingdom of God it will take work. The joy of it all is to know that gathered around me are those like you who are concerned about this program of christian education that will never fail.

As we look ahead for this new year it will mean a year of hard work if we are to achieve our goals. The goals have been increased both financially and in program. This as you know is the only way that progress is made by increasing. I have the faith in you to believe that the goals will be achieved. Although I know they will not be achieved with ease. As Paul says: “We can do all things through Christ.” With the help of God and the help of all of you we will come again to the 38 session of the convention rejoicing because of the victory achieved through work. My slogan for the year shall be Victory Through You, I know that you will not fail because of your love for the cause. I am is today. We could speak of B. C. Calvert, L. H. Crawford, J. N. Ervin, R. Wesley Watson, Rosa Brown Bracy, Mrs. Alphin, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Herod, Mrs. Hancock, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Towns, Garrett, Mosley, Pratt, Jordan, The Chandlers all of whom served in positions of leadership. Our program of Church Development, Evangelism, Christian Education, Missions and Stewardship has produced splendid results. But we have only scratched the surface in these various areas of christian service. There is so much that needs to be done now. “Truly the fields are white unto harvest,” but we are handicapped by the lack of both trained leadership and money. Certainly no one can deny that our program is a worthy one and deserves the whole hearted support of every local congregation and every individual Disciple. Most of our churches cooperate either directly or indirectly through state organizations. One of our main objectives this year will be to increase the number of churches giving direct financial support to the National Convention by 25 per cent. To this end we earnestly solicit the cooperation of every minister and church Board. If your church did not make a contribution last year we urge you to have fellowship with us in this manner this year. Send your National Convention Money to The National Treasurer, Dr. J. E. Walker, 480 Linden Ave., Memphis, Tenn. With very best wishes for your success in all you may attempt for the Master’s cause and my sincere thanks for your future cooperation.

I remain Yours in Christian Service.

XENIA CELEBRATES 108TH

Beard was a Christian man and he urged his son to see that these former slaves did not forget their Christian training. After they were settled on their farms they began having prayer meetings. Not having a meeting house they held services in the home of Charles and Hannah Brooks. Among them were Capt. James Smith, John Ferguson and Aaron Blackburn. After meeting in homes for over a year they decided to organize a church. With the financial assistance of their former master they purchased church building on Cross Street opposite the present white high school. Their first pastor was Elder Sledge. They remained at this location for about forty years. Under the pastorate of Elder Sledge the church began to grow. Other families that were added were the Hunters, Busters and Brandons. The church soon found it necessary to have a larger building and the present site on East Main Street was purchased. For more than forty years they wore the name Church of Christ. After many of the other churches changed their name to Christian Church, the East Main Street church did likewise. Among the Ministers that have served the Xenia Church were, Elders Stone, Campbell, Louderback, Hedges, Furgerson, Blackburn, Brown, Buchanan, Hathaway, Wilson Ewell, Womack, McMicken Cowan McDuffy, Mitchell, Hancock, Oldham, Cromwell, Butler, Smith Pinkney Johnson, Reeves, Jones and the present pastor Eld. James Gilbert. For 108 years the Main St. Christian Church has stood as a beacon light in the City of Xenia and has been a source of spiritual help and inspiration to all who have come under its influence. The church has the distinctive honor of having had one person to Africa as a Missionary, Miss Katie Blackburn.

The trustees of the National Convention will meet in Indianapolis, December 17th and 18th beginning Wednesday evening at 7:30.

William H. McKinney

Dr. William H. McKinney is the executive secretary of the department of men's work of The United Christian Missionary Society, international board of Christian missions and education of Disciples of Christ.

Dr. McKinney came into the leadership of the department of men's work with an exceptional background for this responsibility. He has held pastorates in several influential churches of the brotherhood, and during the past war he served in Jimmie Doolittle's flying group in Okinawa, as Lt. Colonel during his chaplaincy.

Dr. McKinney received his education from Bethany College, Bethany, West Virginia, and Yale University. The former conferred on him the D. D. degree for outstanding achievements.

Dr. McKinney has strong convictions, and has become one of the most sought after speakers in the country. He has given addresses in Canada and the Hawaiian Islands, and Australia has invited him to the World Convention of Disciples of Christ. As a world traveler, Dr. McKinney has personally interviewed men in many cities of the world.
PIEDMONT REPORT

The Annual Disciples Youth Conference of the Piedmont area, held at Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N. C., July 27-August 2, was highlighted with a special appeal for two Disciple young men who will serve as delegates to the Third World Conference of Christian Youth, to be held in India early in December. The Bulletin Board gave priority to our Disciple delegates through pictures and other information concerning them: Newton Fowler of Atlanta, Ga., a student of Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Va., and Kenneth Henry of Palestine, Texas, student of Jarvis Christian College, Hawkins, Texas. As a result of daily talks and a canvas of the entire student group which represented the various churches of the Piedmont area, thirty-five paid Character Bonds of one dollar each were purchased and voted unanimously to be sent to the Youth-to-Asia Fund and applied on the passage expenses of these young men. Mrs. E. G. Starling of Martinsville, Va., is a Director of this conference.

More recently, the Fayette Street Christian Church, Martinsville, Va., raised through its Bible School and other auxiliaries twenty-five dollars which was also sent to the Youth-to-Asia Fund for our Disciple Delegates. Pastor of the church is J. L. Law. Bible School superintendent is David L. Wade.

The Centennial Christian Church of St. Louis, Mo., W. K. Fox, Pastor, has recently prepared a Handbook Calendar, vest pocket size, which in a very unique manner keeps the membership posted of its regular church activities and its leadership personnel, and also includes a 12 month calendar outline of the important dates of the local church and of the entire brotherhood. Mrs. Rubena Stultz Fox, wife of the Pastor is very active in the leadership of young people and adults.

Upon the retirement of J. L. Law, as Pastor of the Fayette Street Christian Church, Martinsville, Va., C. C. Griffin of Thomasville, N. C. has been called to serve this congregation. Rev. Law served actively for more than 40 years in many offices of leadership for Fayette Street Christian Church. He acted as assistant pastor under the Late J. H. Thomas, at whose death in 1940, Rev. Law assumed full ministerial duties. He now becomes Pastor Emeritus of this congregation. Mr. Griffin has recently served as Supply Pastor for the London Ave. Christian Church, Roanoke, Va.

Thank You

Real gratitude is best expressed in deeds and not words. In this spirit, the NATIONAL MISSIONARY CONVENTION in their recent annual assembly put into action their gratitude for those aged ministers and missionaries who faithfully served the churches in years gone by and who now look to the church for aid in their time of need.

An offering for Ministerial Relief and to supplement low pensions was taken at the California convention. It amounted to $73.31. It has been gratefully acknowledged by the Pension Fund. It is a privilege to administer this money for these faithful servants of the Lord—in whose behalf we say to all who had a part, “thank you.”

Last year more than $3,000.00 of gift money was sent to aged servants of the church who formerly served churches participating in the National Christian Missionary Convention.

That you may share in the appreciation, here is a sample of their need and gratitude in a letter received in the Pension Fund Office in September. (The name and address of the individual is not published out of respect to him.)

“Dear Pension Fund Friends: I am now totally blind and I can not see, but I got this friend to write for me to let you all know how thankful I am for what you send. I ask your prayers.”

This is one of many who say “thank you” that you remembered them.

DESIRES INFORMATION

Dear Friends:

This letter is important to you, to me, and to all who are grateful to those who have in the past made the church of Christ humanly possible to us. I refer to those who first grasped the idea of a church built on the Bible alone, after the New Testament Pattern. Those who first stepped out in faith to follow that way of life. A wonderful story of the beginning of the Disciple Churches in Texas is being written by Colby Hall, Dean Emeritus, of Brite Bible College, Texas Christian University. In many of the lists of charter members of the first Christian Churches there are some names of Negro members. Would you like to know these names? Here is what I am trying to find out. When? How? by Whom? did these Negro Christians in white Churches separate themselves and become Negro Churches on their own. When and where was the first Negro Christian Church organized in Texas. When and where were the first Negro Christian Church Conventions held. Does anyone have program of Conventions, Rallies, Camp Meetings or copies of the Gospel Plea, or family letters or leaflets of any kind that you would lend or give to help secure the information we want. Who were the first Christian preachers that your mother or grandmother talked about. Copies of very old church records. All of these things will help us construct a reliable historical story and will be greatly appreciated.

What am I getting out of it, Exactly what you are, the pleasure of doing it for the Kingdom of God. I receive no salary, pay my own way and postage. Write anything you know or think you know. You need not make it pretty or fancy. I can read anything on any kind of paper. Wouldn't it be nice to make a history of all the states together.

Maybe we could have it published in the Christian Plea from time to time.

Yours in Sisterly Concern,
Bertha Mason Fuller

MINISTERS WIVES

Dear Minister's Wife:
The 1952 National Convention of Disciples of Christ is now history. You had a very vital part in making that history and we take this opportunity to thank you for whatever contribution you made, large or small, in helping to put over the program of the Ministers' Wives Fellowship. When you solicited patrons and sent in the money, you helped to make it possible for our fellowship to grant three $100 scholarships this year. Our goal for next year is five $100 scholarships.

We elected a fine group of officers for the ensuing term. They are: Mrs. W. K. Fox, Missouri, President; Mrs. Thomas Courts, Michigan, Vice President; Mrs. C. H. Webb, Indiana, Recording Secretary; Mrs. L. L. Dickerson, Ohio, Financial Secretary; Mrs. Vera Pierson, Ohio, Treasurer; Mrs. A. W. Davis, Kansas, Chaplain; Mrs. R. L. Saunders, Kansas, Pianist; and Mrs. John Compton, Ohio, Corresponding Secretary. We know you are going to give these officers your wholehearted cooperation and support when they call upon you to help foster this worthy program. We solicit your continued prayers that God may direct our activities and grant us the wisdom and strength to do His will.

You will no doubt be hearing from our new president soon. She will perhaps outline the program for 1953 and assign responsibilities to each of us.

With every good wish for your continued health and happiness, I remain

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. R. H. Peoples

STEWARDSHIP

"Discipleship Requires Stewardship." This is more than a stewardship theme promoted by a committee or department. Disciples of Christ accept the authority of no man or organization, but claim Jesus Christ as our authority and the Bible our rule of faith and practice. Christ made stewardship central in his teaching and in his life, which began with the title, but ended with the cross. To become a disciple, one must accept Christ with mind, heart and will. To live as a disciple, one must follow and obey the Master, which includes Christian stewardship of life, expressed in the commitment of a definite portion of time, talent and income for the Kingdom of God. What Christ made primary, we dare not make secondary or incidental. Disciples of Christ should major in Christian stewardship.

Many local churches are giving special emphasis to stewardship in October, as a phase of church loyalty month. The fall stewardship packet was mailed to each church in June in order that the ministers and stewardship committees might plan their fall church program. This included the manual of suggestions for stewardship education and enlistment and for the every member enlistment. Each church was furnished with the beautiful, colored stewardship poster, "Lord, What Wilt Thou Have (Continued on Page Eight)
THE PIEDMONT CHRISTIAN YOUTH CONFERENCE

The Piedmont Christian Youth Conference was held at Winston-Salem Teachers College the week of July 26—August 2. This is the most interesting and effective activity of the Christian church in this district which includes the Christian churches in Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina. Mrs. E. G. Starling, who founded the Conference twenty-two years ago in Martinsville, Va., served this summer as Director.

Mr. A. I. Terrell, Business Manager of the College and a highly esteemed member of the Christian church gave valuable assistance in arranging the Conference. Faculty and staff members included the daily Vesper speaker, Rev. Charles Ward, Mrs. Cora Mae Carter, Worship and Music; Mrs. Louise Dickerson, Enlistment; Miss Justina Spencer, Mrs. Daisy Roland, Service; Miss Margaret Ridley, Mrs. Lucy Bannister, Dean of Women; Rev. M. L. Lambert, Dean of Men; Mrs. E. E. Byers, Business Manager; Miss Cordelia Hairston, assistant; White faculty members Mr. Garnett Day, Recreation; and Mr. Herman Reynolds, Missionary to India. Miss Mabel Frazier had classes in Study.

The Conference opened with a concert of sacred music by the Youth choir of the Jones Street Christian church of Bluefield, W. Va. directed by Mrs. Cora Mae Carter. This was followed by the camp fire and circle of the Chi Rho group which met simultaneously during the week with the Conference. The Chi Rho camp is organized and led by Rev. W. H. Brown, pastor of the Cleveland Avenue Christian church. He was assisted in this work with the children of the twelve to fourteen year old age by Misses Pauline Staples, Alberta Clark, Arzola Brown, Mrs. Cornelia Hairston, and Mrs. Jacqueline Hayes Harris.

Almost one hundred persons participated in the Conference and the Chi Rho camp and the fourteen Conference graduates constituted the second largest class in the history of this conference. Their graduation exercises on Friday evening were most impressive. Members wearing caps and gowns, presenting their class poem, song, history, will, salutatory and valedictory addresses, were: Bernice Burgess, Peggy Ann Drewry, Phillip Green, Louise Hairston, Anna Harris, Loretta McMillan, Foretine Pannell, David Pettie, Inez Pettie, Horace Taft, Ruth Dickerson Taylor, Shirley Travis, Colonel Vaughn and Shirley Walker.

The theme of the lovely Consecration service which followed was: “That We Fail Not Man Nor Thee.” The speaking parts and music were flawlessly rendered. The tableaux, or background scene consisting of a portrayal of “The Last Supper” by members of the Graduating class, was unforgettable. The beautiful closing candlelight circle with all conferee girls in white dresses and shoes preceded the night of silence. At dawn everyone partook of the Lord’s supper in another excellent, spiritual service. After that came breakfast, a final friendship circle and the twenty second Piedmont Christian Youth Conference became history.

UNITED SOCIETY EXECUTIVES TO VISIT MISSION FIELDS

Dr. A. Dale Fiers, President of The United Christian Missionary Society and Dr. Virgil A. Sly, chairman of the Society’s Foreign Division will visit several mission centers abroad during November. Leaving the United States October 22, they will go to England to meet with the British Missions Committee, then to Brussels, Belgium where Congo missionaries are engaging in study required by the Belgian government. The two men will be in the Congo during November and Dr. Sly will return to the United States on completion of administrative work in Africa. Dr. Fiers will proceed to India, Thailand and Japan on his first visit to mission stations in those countries. He will return to the United States January 21.

PHILIPPINE CHRISTIANS SEND OUT FIRST MISSIONARY

The United Church of Christ in the Philippines voted in August to send out its first missionary to another country, when Mr. Dario Alampay was approved for service in Thailand. He will go from the Philippines to do educational work in the Disciples of Christ Thailand Mission at Nakon-Pathom, starting in March, 1953. At present, he is attending the Union Theological Seminary in Manila. The arrangement for him to undertake the new work was made jointly by the United Church and the Thailand Mission.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

It is the right of every American youth to receive the guidance and influence of Christian teachers and institutions. The direction of children and young people to an understanding of the Word and purpose of God is a primal responsibility of the church. The foundation of character and the development of life upon Christian principles is the ultimate objective of the program of Christian education.

State Missions (the work of the State Missionary Society) is concerned with the founding of new congregations and the giving of assistance to pastors and churches. During the year some type of definite service is rendered to majority of the congregations.

Christian Education includes the work of the state director and the national work, student work, leadership training, camps and conferences, children's work, etc.

State Missions and Christian Education receive support from the Thanksgiving offerings. All Sunday Schools and churches are urged to emphasize the significance of the work and take a generous offering. Materials, including informative leaflets, coin boxes and offering envelopes are available free from Unified Promotion, Box 5636, Indianapolis or through the state office.

FALL PLANNING CONFERENCE AND COMMISSION

The Fall Planning Conference and Commission of the Department of Christian Education of the National Christian Missionary Convention is being held again in Indianapolis at the Second Christian Church, 2901 North Kenwood Avenue, November 28-29, 1952. Each year the state leaders of Christian Education are invited to this meeting with the National Staff members to plan the program emphases. It is our hope that every state will be represented, and we will have a complete cross section of leaders to help plan the total program for the National Convention churches.

The Commission was inaugurated August, 1951 with the hope of helping to undergird the Christian Education program financially. A committee on finance was set up last year, and through its efforts the offerings from the Church School were more than doubled. At the meeting in Indianapolis in November, we will study the budget of the Department of Christian Education and make recommendations as to its approval for the year 1952-1953. By all means be sure that your state is represented in this meeting.

THE TRI-STATE ASSEMBLY

The 1st Tri-State Assembly, composed of the Christian Churches of Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri, met at the West Paseo Christian Church October 23rd-26th. Convention Theme was: “The Assurance Of Things Hoped For; That We May Know Him.” Activities began Thursday Morning with the Executive Committee meeting; they reviewed the program and planned the work for the next quarter.

Delegates attended the 1st session Thursday Evening. Devotions were conducted by Frank H. Coleman, Jr. Excellent music was rendered by the local choir. The meeting was turned over to G. Ellinson Lakes by the minister, S. S. Myers, who also presented Raymond W. Baldwin, Executive Sec’y of Kansas and President of Tri-State Board, who brought a most helpful message upon the theme: “The Messengers of Jesus.” After this the delegates, visitors and workers were introduced by the Field Worker, R. Wesley Watson.

After a delicious breakfast, served by the local church Friday Morning, activities continued with Devotions led by Mrs. Agnes H. Jones of Kansas City, Kansas. The groups assembled in different workshops held upon the theme: “This is the way we’re doing it.” (a) In Christian Education, Mrs. Hazel Batsell, Chr., and Mrs. R. L. Saunders, Resource Leader. EDITORIAL

In a recent issue of the Christian Reformer, Eld. W. H. Taylor, Editor, had the following comment: "We hope that Brother L. L. Dickerson has become president of the National Christian Missionary Convention for such a time as this! In order that you might know where he once stood, we publish the following recommendation (that was presented to the 27th Annual National Convention in Columbus) which he helped frame and signed."

Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace in our National Brotherhood, we offer the following resolutions:

Whereas, we are living in a time of great stress, when the most sacred and inspiring things are being ruthlessly trampled under foot, and whereas there is a great tendency to stray away from the Apostolic Faith and order, and a flagrant disregard for the traditions of our fathers,

Be it resolved, that we express our unalterable opposition to those liberal and modernistic teachings, practices and scriptural interpretations and the admittance to membership of those who fail to comply with the conditions set forth in the New Testament; Be it further resolved that we reaffirm our belief in the Divinity of Jesus, the Supreme Authority of the New Testament on all questions of faith and order, and that we "earnestly contend for the faith" and zealously guard the heritage left us by the Taylors, Smiths, Browns, Walkers, Herods, Louderbacks, Spencers, Thomases, Handcocks, Alphins, Dickersons, and . . . a host of others too numerous to mention, who gave their last full measure of devotion to the Christ and the Church he established.

Be it further resolved, that we reject as leaders those who do not teach, practice, or believe those things which the Christian Church has held to be mandatory and essential: and that the National Convention of Disciples of Christ teach and preach in no uncertain terms against open membership.

Brother Taylor submits this bit of evidence as "where we once stood." For some reason he seems to doubt that we stand on the same position we did in 1943. But for his information we are happy to reaffirm that same position. "We are still unalterably opposed to all liberal and modernistic teachings, practices and unscriptural interpretations, and the admittance to membership of any and all who fail to comply with the conditions set forth in the New Testament. We shall always regret loosing the fellowship of Baltimore Taylor, C. W. Arnold, A. G. Nelson and the other Bretheran of the Preaching Convention. On behalf of the Members of the National Christian Missionary Convention, I would like to say to them, that it is our sincere desire that the breech between us be closed. We have too much in common and we need each other too much to let anything stand between us. We appeal to you in the words of the great Apostle, "Let there be no division among (you) us." The National Convention never has and never will, make support of brotherhood agencies nor non-support of brotherhood agencies a test of fellowship. There is room enough in the National Convention for all of us. The National Convention never will accept as leaders those who reject the fundamental principles of the church of Christ. "Some may creep in unawares," and we may out of charity tolerate them for awhile, but we will never accept their heresy. We need Taylor, Arnold and Nelson and all of the others. "In faith, let us have unity, in opinions, liberalality, in everything else love." Let us forget the past differences and unite in building the church we all love so much and for which we all have suffered and sacrificed. We all belong to each other.

Evangelism and Membership Cultivation, Prof. G. B. Buster, Chr. and R. Wesley Watson, Resource Leader. After which all came together and evaluations and reports were given by each group with questions. This session concluded after a splendid sermon by the Rev. R. L. Saunders of Kansas City, Kansas.

Friday afternoon Raymond E. Brown of Hannibal, Mo. presided. After a brief song service, delegates divided into workshops. S. S. Myers conducted a workshop on "Christian Education and Youth Work." Report on Progress of Tri-State Work was given by R. Wesley Watson, Field Worker. Dinner was served by the local church.

Services Friday Evening with Wm. Martin, of Fulton, Mo. presiding. Devotions by the Young People with Mrs. Cora Bragg, Sponsor. Splendid music was rendered by the choir of 8th St. Christian Church, Kansas City, Kansas, and an excellent sermon was delivered by Warrick E. Graves, of Wichita, Kansas, upon the theme, "To Whom Shall We Go?"

Saturday Morning Devotions led by W. S. Sims, Lawrence, Kansas and delegates again enjoyed splendid workshops. Roy L. Thorp, National Director of Stewardship, of Indianapolis, Indiana conducted a most helpful workshop on Christian Stewardship, and Mrs. Helen Schwab, Executive Sec'y, of Women's Work for Kansas led the women in a study of missions. In the combined assembly reports and discussions were made on each workshop. Raymond E. Brown delivered a most inspiring sermon on the Convention theme: "The Assurance Of Things Hoped For; That We May Know Him."

Saturday afternoon Mrs. R. L. Groves of Jefferson City, Mo. presided. Workshops were held on Church Administration and Program Building with W. E. Graves, Chr. and Stewardship for the total church, with Anderson H. Thomas, Chr. and Roy L. Thorp, Resource Leader. Reports of each workshop were given. A Special Message was given by Rev. S. S. Myers on the theme: "Of Special Interest to You." Rev. Myers told the story of the start and work of the Tri-State Board and the relation of this work to the local church.

The Assembly then held a brief business session and expressions were given of the meeting and the Assembly voted to hold another meeting which will be worked out by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is composed of Raymond Baldwin, Executive Sec'y, of Kansas, President. G. Ellison Lakes, Vice Pres., Pres. of Kansas State Convention. Lester B. Rickman, Executive Sec'y, of Missouri Christian Convention, Ira D. Crewson, Executive Sec'y, of Arkansas Christian Missionary Convention: S. S. Myers, Sec'y-Treasurer and R. Wesley Watson, Field Worker.

Saturday Evening a special meeting was held for laymen on Men's Work, with Prof. C. C. Daniel, of Jefferson City, Missouri, Chairman. After giving a very timely message upon the theme and raising some very pertinent questions, Prof. Daniel presented Dr. G. Robert Cotton, Pres. of Kansas Technical Institute, Topeka, Kansas, whose message was a challenge to the men of the church into greater service. Mr. Horace N. Moore, of Jefferson City, Mo., Field Worker for men's work of Missouri brought the message in which he stressed organization and activities of successful men's groups. Everyone left the meeting greatly inspired to put forth their best efforts for Kingdom Building.

The women's group was led by Mrs. R. L. Groves, Chr. Mrs. Helen W. Schwab, Executive Sec'y, for Women's Work of Kansas, brought an interesting message on "Missions and the Long Range Program of the Church." The session concluded with an impressive devotional message by Rev. Wm. K. Fox, of St. Louis, Missouri.

Sunday Morning Bible School at 9:45, Services 11 A.M. Rev. Horace N. Moore of Jefferson City, Missouri brought a very challenging message to the Tri-State Assembly. After services the assembly retired to the Social Hall to partake of a delightful luncheon which was donated, prepared and served by the men and women of the Christian Churches in the Kansas City, Kansas area, through the cooperation of Raymond Baldwin, Executive Sec'y, of Christian Churches of Kansas.

Resolutions of appreciation were read by Mrs. Lillian Wilhoit, of Vandalia, Missouri. The assembly closed with a very impressive and uplifting consecration service and friendship circle conducted by Raymond Baldwin.

cash, pledges and the equivalent, $14,000. We prayerfully request the ministers and churches in our entire brotherhood to raise an offering for our new church home. Your offering will be gratefully acknowledged. We hope to raise enough money for the down payment by January 15, 1953. If each church in our great brotherhood would raise from one to ten dollars, our goal would be reached by February, 1953. There will be a few churches and individuals who will give $100. You will have reason to be happy that you were a part of this great humanitarian and church promotional program.

TRAVEL LETTER NO. 1

unforgettable experience. They sang beautifully, too. It was my first experience with an interpreter; but it went rather well. My greatest difficulty was trying to talk slowly enough and not too long before giving the interpreter a chance. But gradually I learned. In the late afternoon of that same day I made tape recordings at the Aavaco Studio.

SEPTEMBER 5—Miss Daisy Edgerton and I went on a sightseeing trip into the large State of Buddha. It was most interesting, and I took a number of pictures which I hope are good. In the evening I spent about two hours recording.

SEPTEMBER 6—In the late afternoon I sang at a sacred concert at Ginza Church.

SEPTEMBER 7 (Sunday)—In the morning I sang at the Kanazawa Congregational Church. In the evening after services at the Union Church we had supper, and then for about an hour I led this wonderful group in informal singing. It was a great experience.

SEPTEMBER 8—I visited the kindergarten school at our mission. These precious Japanese children looked just like dolls! In the afternoon, Mrs. Hannaford, of the Presbyterian Mission, took me shopping. Then Mr. Hannaford met us at a lovely Japanese restaurant and we had a delicious lunch. That night Miss Hana Kawai (my accompanist and interpreter) and I left for a week’s tour in other parts of Japan.

SEPTEMBER 9—In the morning we went to Hokuriku Jogakuin, in Kanazawa. In the afternoon at city hall I sang to more than fifteen hundred school children. Everywhere we went we sang to hundreds, yea, thousands of school children—elementary, high school, and college—and I’ve never been more moved than I was by their eagerness and appreciation for my songs and what I had to say. And how they loved singing with me, especially the spirituals! At Kanazawa I asked them to sing one of their songs for me. It was one of the most beautiful melodies I have ever heard, and I decided to learn it and include it in my program. Everywhere I sang it, the audiences were thrilled. That night, after a short rest and dinner, we gave another program in the auditorium of the Presbyterian school, and again had a large and appreciative audience. Then we left for Osaka, arriving at 5:15 the next morning.

SEPTEMBER 10—Sang at eleven o’clock in the morning and again at 3:30 assembly in the afternoon, and at a formal concert in the evening, in a beautiful new auditorium on the campus. (It was good to sleep in a bed that night in Osaka! ...) After the concert I met several missionary couples (Episcopal, Disciple, and Presbyterian) in the Presbyterian House; Miss Taylor, another missionary, joined us, and we had refreshments. A newspaper reporter from one of the Japanese magazines had quite a long interview with me, and the next day an article with my picture appeared in the paper. My interpreter read it for me. It had the familiar sound of some portions being twisted, but my interpreter said it was largely favorable, which was unusual, it seemed. All in all, it was a good report. A large broadcasting station recorded the entire evening’s concert.

SEPTEMBER 11 — We left by morning plane for Fukuoka. The plane was three and a half hours late, so we were unable to keep our appointment at a Baptist school; but a wonderful young missionary couple from the school met us and were most understanding about the situation, and helped us to get the train from there. We arrived at Shimonoseki about 6:15 in the afternoon and were met by our good friend, Virginia Mackenzie.

SEPTEMBER 12—The next morning at 8:30 we left for Kumamoto. We were guests at a large Lutheran mission school. Sang to nearly two thousand school children and adults. Another great experience! I learned that nearby there was a leprosarium, and so I asked to go there. Miss Ackard, from the Lutheran Mission, took me out. About a thousand lepers were enjoying a movie. I mentioned to the doctor that I would be glad to sing for them if they would like me to, and lo, these precious people were willing to stop the movie to listen to poor little me! It was a relief and an inspiration to find that they were happy and having a good time. I did not expect to find that, and was ready to pour out all the sympathy I had. I sang for them and included the Japanese folk song I learned from the girls at Kanazawa — and their expression of appreciation was almost overwhelming. We returned to the Mission, and had a time of wonderful fellowship with the four charming women in the Mission House and the president of the school.

SEPTEMBER 13—We left for Fukuoka, where we got the plane back to Osaka. The plane was late again, so we could not sing at Kobe College. We went by car to Doshisha Women’s College where the huge auditorium was packed with people. Such appreciative people even for a tired singing voice! We had to rush to get our train right after the concert to return to Tokyo.

SEPTEMBER 14—(Sunday) Arrived Tokyo in the morning. Spent almost three hours making recordings (speaking as well as singing) for a large new broadcasting station. Two of these programs have been broadcast; I did not hear them, but reports are that they came out all right. In the afternoon I sang at a sacred concert for the benefit of the Hiroshima atom bomb victims. In the evening I sang (Continued on Page Eight)
These are the members of the Finance Committee of the Commission on Christian Education of the National Christian Missionary Convention. This committee was formed as a result of the first commission meeting held in Indianapolis, Indiana, 1951. The purpose of the committee was to promote the program of finance to undergird the total program of Christian Education. Last year over eleven hundred dollars were reported by the church schools before the convention met in California. This was more than three times the money reported by the schools in any previous year.

The goal set for 1952-53 is $3,892.50 for the National Convention and the same amount for Unified Promotion for a grand total asking from the schools, $7,785.00. Each member has been assigned an area that he or she is responsible for promoting the financial program. A. C. Stone, Cincinnati, Ohio, Chairman, is assigned Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. W. H. Brown, Winston-Salem, North Carolina will carry out promotion in North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Eastern Seaboard area and South Carolina. I. Q. Hurdle, Austin, Texas will work in Arkansas, California, Oklahoma and Texas. C. J. Hinson, Montgomery, Alabama is area promoter in Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Mississippi. Miss Odie Belle Lewis of Lexington, Kentucky will promote finance in Kentucky, Kansas, Tennessee and Missouri. I feel sure through the consecrated efforts of these leaders and the cooperation on your part, we can and will reach our goal. If you as a local school superintendent have not as yet sent in your first report, now is the time to do so. Your school is being counted on 100%.

Sincerely yours,
Lorenzo J. Evans, Director

ROMINE STREET
AND DISTRICT NO. 2

It is almost time for another Woman's Day, and yet the Romine St. Church and the citizens of Dallas are still talking about our last Woman's Day program at Romine. Mrs. J. E. Walker of Memphis, Tenn., was our guest speaker. Her subject was “Home is a Woman's Institution.” For forty five minutes with her charm and personality she held her audience spell bound with this most helpful and inspiring message. The Romine Church, its pastor, Eld. R. L. Searcy. Officers and members are very grateful to Mrs. Walker for coming to us, and we pray God's rich blessings upon her. Her message was a great inspiration to our youth as well as the adults. Our district board was held in Fort Worth, October 31st, Nov. 1 and 2nd, and was very successful. The workshop for C. W. F. and the bible school was well attended. We are grateful to Mrs. Elnora Rollins, Mrs. G. A. Evans and Mrs. D. W. Boyd for conducting the workshops. Our thanks to Eld. Leonard Brown and wife, and the members of East Annie Christian Church for the fine way we were entertained. The theme, “Discipleship Require Loyalty and Stewardship” was well developed. The meeting closed Sunday afternoon with Eld. M. C. Dickson, state president bringing the closing message which was truly great. Amount raised, $325.60.

SPECIAL DAYS

Dear Friends:

One recently wrote . . . “It is the responsibility of churches in our era to revive faith in the power of God to direct our destiny, to give new life to faith in Christ as Saviour . . . and to restore faith that God has not left Himself without a witness among any people.”

To meet such a responsibility requires the enlistment of concern of every possible Christian. The task is too big for a faithful few! The influence of the church will be increased in direct ratio to the effort leaders make to reach others.

A vital part of the program of increased outreach relates to increased sharing. Leaders within our churches have declared that our giving for brotherhood work should be doubled within the decade. Substantial gains have been made. We are on the way to the achievement of this worthy objective. The cooperation and participation of all is needed to assure continued growth.

The Thanksgiving offering helps support State Missions and Christian Education. All Special Day offerings (Thanksgiving, Easter and Children's Day) sent to Unified Promotion or the cooperating causes are credited as regular missionary giving.

Cordially yours,

Julian E. Stuart

WEEK OF COM-PASSION, FEB. 15-22

Dear Co-worker,

It has often been expressed that compassion is more powerful for good will and peace than force. Compassion is an expression of Christ's concern for all people.

The first impulse of Christ when he saw people in need physically or in distress spiritually was to help them. He loved them—the impoverished, the demon possessed, the disease ridden, the destitute and the distressed. He revealed a new note in religion. This new note needs to be sounded by Disciples of Christ in the present world. The Week of Compassion offers an effective opportunity.

You are requested to make your own goal in light of the following considerations:

- The physical and spiritual needs of people in Europe and Asia.
- The necessity for Christians to share.
- The ability of the members of the church to share.
- The fact that $127,273.44 increase over last year's giving is essential to reach the financial goal for 1953.

The situation calls for larger gifts from the churches which gave last year and a larger number of churches participating this year.

Our lives are enriched by compassion today because Christ never grew weary in helping others. May we respond to the call of compassion in February in the spirit of Christ.

Cordially yours,

M. Frederick Mitchell—Pastor

at the service center for American forces and met a few I knew. It was good to get in a visit with a half dozen Negro servicemen. Afterwards, my lovely new Japanese friend, Naomi Kikuta, invited Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks and me to a delicious dinner in a beautiful Japanese restaurant. I learned to use chopsticks!

SEPTEMBER 15—In the morning I sang at the Keisen Girls' School, of which Miss Michi Kawai is principal. It was a glorious experience to have a visit with this saintly woman. Then I went to ICU. This is a most beautiful campus, and the one building is a magnificent structure. It was good to see Dr. and Mrs. Yuasha and to meet the other fine faculty members and several missionaries from the station. For once I didn’t have to have an interpreter, for all the students speak English, and we had a great experience singing together. From there we went to Joshi Gakuin for a big student rally—another great experience of singing for and with the students. The proceeds from this rally were for the delegates to the World Youth Conference.

SEPTEMBER 16 — At Women's Christian College, one of the most beautiful, and with one of the largest and most wonderful groups of students. This was a tremendous experience. Tuesday evening I sang my only formal concert. You should have seen me, dressed in a beautiful Japanese evening gown and wearing Japanese costume jewelry, all gifts from these extremely generous people!

SEPTEMBER 17—At 9:30 I sang for the boys' school of our Disciple Mission, the only boys' school in which I sang. After having only one hour feverishly to pack my bags I left to go to Yokohama to sing at Ferris Girls' School and at another Baptist school. Both were wonderful experiences. I was weary to the point of exhaustion, but the amazing thing happened which constantly is happening: though we sing when we are the most tired, we have our greatest inspirations, and God gives us the strength to carry on.

On my last day, at Kokohama, I had an opportunity to go to one of the orphanages where the "war babies" are. I saw so many beautiful children, all of them precious and tugging at the heartstrings. We went out to the playground and many of them (all colors and mixtures) rushed to me, looking up into my face as they clung to my skirt, and saying, "Momee, Momee, Momee." I tried to show love to all of them. We went into a room where some little girls were playing; one, a beautiful dark-brown, curly-haired one, came to me. I took her in my arms and she hugged me and lay her precious little head on my face. I caressed her and pressed her to me. She didn't want to let go of me, and I wished I could have her as my very own. It was difficult to keep back the tears. . . .

I wish I had the time to write in detail about the many experiences I am having through the kindness and generosity of all of you who had faith in me. I shall try to do so another time.

With good wishes to all of you, I am

Your friend and ambassador of good will,

TOM PAINE SAID

Thomas Paine, the great American revolutionary political philosopher, had many important things to say in those dismal days when Washington's forces were beleaguered and the revolutionary efforts appeared to be done in. Try these on for present size:

From the American Crisis—"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman."

"I love the man that can smile in trouble, that can gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection. 'Tis the business of little minds to shrink; but he whose heart is firm, and whose conscience approves his conduct, will pursue his principles unto death."
