REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY
Emmett J. Dickson

Introduction
The call from 1945 to 1955 has brought about some progress in the work of the churches of the National Christian Missionary Convention. This convention has been and is a worthy vehicle of communication in the type of work and the Brotherhood we serve. Great work has been done and is now in progress by the National Christian Missionary Convention.
The sense of belonging to a larger fellowship has at last arrived among our members. The convention is a member of all the program planning bodies and participates in the work of helping to build the program for the local church. As a member of the International Convention we have the services and the guidance which is granted all member agencies of the International Convention. There has been a marked improvement in service and program during these ten years. All phases of the work have been alert to the tasks assigned.

Staff

The staff has been the most wonderful servant, the most understanding comrades anyone could find in a small staff. All directors have proven their worthy devotion and love for the work of the church in the National Christian Missionary Convention. The reports given by members of the staff each month and reports made to the Board of Trustees, and the Annual Report made to the National Board, and the convention does not tell the full story of the staff services. May we pray that the Lord will continue to bless the work the staff carried forward in His name.

This year is our year of Promotion of money. I feel that the churches are now ready to launch into a program of giving money for the work of the convention. This year we shall begin to ask them to make full their hopes and desires. We hope to reach an all-time high in the raising of money for the convention. The plan will be an easy plan if the members will give the money.

The Goals

The dollar goals have been prepared for release. You will find only one system of asking; that is, we think the churches can reach the goal asked if they start early in the year making remittance to the Treasurer, Dr. J. E. Walker, 480 Linden Avenue, Memphis, Tennessee.

National Financial Promotion Committee

The Board of Trustees has recommended that a National Financial Promotion Committee be created to promote the giving of money to the convention. The committee set-up is:

Executive Secretary of Promotion—E. J. Dickson.
General Chairman—A. C. Stone.
Six Promotional Directors,
Rev. S. S. Myers—Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma.
Dr. C. C. Mosley—Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia.
Dr. J. E. Walker—Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee.
Rev. C. B. Terrance—California.
Prof. A. I. Terrell, Piedmont, Tri-State, Florida, South Carolina.

In each state and convention area the Boards have set up National Christian Missionary Convention promoters to work with the responsibility of the Executive Secretary and General Chairman. Reports shall be made November, January, March, July, and at the Annual Session.

Budget

There was no violation of the total last budget, but we fully found out the difference in money in the treasury on the budget lists.

Cooperation
All state conventions are in harmony with the work. All the cooperating agencies are giving more than lip-service in time and money to the work of the National Christian Missionary Convention.

RECOMMENDATIONS
1. That the goals be released.
2. That the Financial Promotional Committee be authorized and the Executive Secretary placed in charge of all promotions.
3. That we complete Taylor Men’s Fellowship House, Christian Men’s Fellowship Project.
4. That the Rosa Page Welch Scholarship Fund be completed this year.
5. That all state conventions be asked to give $100.00 grant-in-aid to the Taylor Memorial Fellowship.
6. That each preacher be asked to give $100.00 to help train a preacher.
7. Consideration must be given to the celebration of the Fortieth Anniversary Year, Dallas to Baltimore, $40,000.00.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHURCH DEVELOPMENT AND EVANGELISM
C. H. Webb
The year of Stewardship in the Long Range Program of Disciples of Christ has closed. Somewhere, while the embers of our anxious fires of months gone by subside, there should perhaps be an accounting. There have been some marvelous results of the planned efforts which so many well-trained people have put into the year of Stewardship, and the best is yet to come. This is as it should be, for if the year of Stewardship was anything at all, it was a teaching program. This single feature made the advent of the year of Christian Education a normal and logical follow-up to the local church emphasis for the previous year. Whether or not Negro Disciples of Christ will henceforth be concerned and active in making Stewardship an integral part of the Christian life, or in developing for our constituency an aggressive program of Stewardship Education, and whether or not we shall recognize the needs and opportunities in the world as ample motive and challenge to practice a deepening Christian Stewardship and the extent to which individual Christians are more willing to commit themselves to the full Stewardship of Life, can be determined only by the passage of time, the recruitment rolls, and the condition of the mission treasury.

Evangelism

Our department co-sponsored with Second Christian Church, an Evangelism Institute. Thirteen (13) Ministers from five states attended and took part in the laboratory experience. There, approximately forty-five (45) workers enlisted to do the visiting aside from the preachers. The visitors made four hundred and sixty (460) calls in two hundred and fifty-two (252) homes and received one hundred and three (103) commitments. At the close of services “Decision Sunday,” seventy (70) new members had been added to the church. Of this number, thirty-eight (38) were candidates for Baptism and thirty-two (32) transfers. The total additions from this effort reached about eighty (80) souls. Mr. Bayne E. Driskill of Oklahoma (Stillwater) served as director of the project. Planning and promotion were shared by the pastor and the Director.

In other Evangelistic Efforts, the Director served as leader for a similar project with the Central Christian Church of Cleveland, Ohio, Elder S. J. Compton. A group of seventeen (17) visitors serving alternately as teams of two made approximately seventy-four (74) calls in fifty-four (54) homes and received thirty-two (32) commitments. On the close of “Decision Sunday” there had been twenty-one (21) additions. A similar project with the Cedar Church yielded seven (7) additions on Decision Day.

Special one-week Revival meetings were held with the following churches:

- Avalon—Los Angeles
- Eleventh Street—Birmingham
- Central—Cleveland
- Mosely Avenue—Macon, Georgia
- Cedar (One Day)—Cleveland

Total additions numbered forty-one (41). (See Exhibit “A” on Evangelism.)

Ministers’ Institutes

All of the Institutes this year carried, at least as a part of the program, some phase of the Long Range Emphasis. In addition to this, practical local needs were taken under consideration and the program fashioned accordingly. The schedule was as follows:

Convention

Since the last annual session of the National Christian Missionary Convention your Director has taken a part in the functional program of Station Convention in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Ohio and Missouri. In each instance, without exception, I was assigned responsibility for helping with the teaching program as the Conventions emphasized the current Long Range Themes.

Other general meetings attended were International Conventions in Miami, Florida, National Christian Missionary Convention Trustees, National Christian Missionary Convention Administrative and Finance Committee, Disciples of Christ Committee on Christian Vocations, Home and State Missions Planning Council, and Conference on Desegregation.

Special Services Rendered

This service included a variety of activity such as studying merger prospects for the churches in Jackson, Mississippi. Christian Men's Fellowship speaker on "Why Support the National Christian Missionary Convention Meetings." Guest speaker for the annual church meetings, speaker for anniversary and dedication services, counseling churches seeking ministerial replacements, and trying to assist in solving local church disharmonies. I extend my thanks to the Trustees for your prayers, for our efforts in the California Mission. I think your prayers were answered, but no one should have banners. There is still unrest, and only time can heal the many wounds of the conflict.

This Ministry

The Taylor Memorial Fellowship House remains in operation. For the second consecutive year, we have succeeded in getting a room papered. The project which the Christian Men's Fellowship and the Christian Youth Fellowship intended to help repair and redecorate the manse was stymied on the out-set by disulacement of contract and later was sidetracked to make way for the National Financial Promotional Program. Last year there were five men residing in the house. They were William J. Barber, North Carolina; James E. Blair, Ohio; Samuel Holder, South America; Ronald Fowl's, Ohio, and Gerald Cunningham of Missouri. Three of these are graduate students and two are undergraduate. The prospect for the coming year is two additional students, one of whom has already arrived.

The financial situation at the Taylor House is constantly critical (and needs increase and accumulate steadily).
The really great issue now, however, is this matter of "What Is Happening to the Preacher?" A close survey of the field will reveal that about ten preachers who were active pastors two years ago, and who still have service years of health are sitting on the sidelines or have left the church. There is imperative need today for a concentration of effort in the careful training and complete integration of our ministers and Lay-leaders into the total life and program of the brotherhood in order that the great causes and noble purpose of Disciples will not be confronted with such general apathy and indifference.

Our Year of Christian Education
The Department of Church Development and Evangelism recognized the great potential of both the Local Church and outreach emphasis of this Year of Christian Education. It is our intention to be alert to every opportunity to join with the various functions and fellowship groups within the framework of the church and the brotherhood to make the benefits of this year’s program more helpful to the larger number of church people.

New Churches
The Mosely Avenue Church in Macon, Georgia, is growing steadily stronger as are the other new churches including the Third Church of Cleveland, Ohio, and the New Church of Springfield, Ohio. The baby church of the group is the new Walker Memorial Church which was born since the convention last August. It now boasts approximately 75 members. Additions in new churches have been numerous and the leadership is proving effective and efficient. Support and careful nurturing will bring these new congregations to full fruition in a short space of years.

This Is the Way We Look in the Year Book

In many instances records in the office of the National Director indicate a far more healthy trend. Some of the State Conventions have records available to the National Convention Office, but in order to get in the Year Book, your Year Book Report Blanks will have to be sent into the International Convention Office before the publication deadline. Return the report within three days of receipt. The Deadline is August 15.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Lorenzo J. Evans

Mr. President, members of the Board and the National Convention.

I am happy to bring to you a report of the work of the department for the past year.

International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission

I left the National Convention in St. Louis on Saturday, August 31, 1954, in order to attend the commission meeting at Bethan Hill, Tennessee. The states and area that had their delegates at this planning meeting were as follows: Mississippi, Tennessee, Eastern Seaboard, Goldsboro District, Piedmont District, Ohio, and Missouri.
The Commission this year is meeting the same week on the campus of Indiana University, Bloomington. This is the delegated group of Young People which plan the program emphasis for the Youth of Our Brotherhood. Our goal is to have a youth representative from each one of our convention areas.

State Conventions
Since our St. Louis Convention I served in four State Conventions, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi. The South Carolina Convention met at Burton and it was well attended with a larger number of delegates registering the first day than at any other convention I have attended. There were reports coming from about every church in the state.

The Georgia convention met at Valdosta. The state work is rather weak and will remain so until our churches are stronger. The Secretary Director, Mr. C. W. Ross of Macon, was in attendance at this meeting and one of the bright features was the setting-up of plans for a state planning commission in May during which time the state staff would come in and give assistance to the planning of a total state program. The Alabama Convention met at Mt. Willing. The State of Alabama is slowly building a strong program which is being underwritten by the churches. The Mississippi state convention met at Shaw. I worked with the group in setting up plans for following through with the program emphasis of Christian Education during the year.

International Convention
I attended the International Convention which met in Miami, Florida. I served as one of the resource leaders in the workshop for church school superintendents. This convention reached an all time high in registrations. Some very inspiring sermons and addresses were brought to the convention under the general theme: "God Or Mammon." I am sure that these messages sent us all away with a sense of guilt realizing that all of us had fallen short of what was expected of us as Christians.

Executive Committee Meeting of the International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission
The Executive Committee of the International Christian Youth Fellowship Commission met during Christmas week, December 27-31, 1954, at Missions Building, Indianapolis. The representative of the National and member of the committee, Miss Lois Mothershed of Little Rock, was in attendance. The commission is in session at Bloomington, Indiana, now.

Christian Education Assembly
I attended the Christian Education Assembly at Spring Mill. This group has the responsibility of developing the curriculum which was previously done by the curriculum committee. A. C. Stone of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the only representative of the National Convention who was able to attend this meeting.

Religious Education Field Staff Meeting
I was in attendance at the annual meeting of the field staff of the Department of Religious Education Christian Missionary Society which met at Spring Mill. A major portion of this meeting was given over to discussing plans for undergirding the program emphasis for the year 1955-56. This meeting always serves as a refresher in Christian Education with the workers from over the country sharing their experiences in the work and plans for the future program development.

National Council, Churches of Christ
I attended the Division of Christian Education of the National Council, Churches of Christ which met in Cincinnati, Ohio. I served as one of the representatives of the Brotherhood in the section on Leadership Education Administration.

Curriculum Program Council
I attended the Curriculum Program Council which met at Christian Board, St. Louis. I served in the Youth section of which I am a member. This group had the responsibility of reviewing the descriptions and spread for the youth curriculum of our brotherhood.

Special Committee on Conference Curriculum
I served on a special committee which was appointed at the field staff meeting at Spring Mill. The committee met in St. Louis at Hotel Statler for the purpose of taking a look at the whole conference curriculum, and to implement plans to correlate the different activities which are being carried on in the field. Mrs. Bristow was a member of the committee but because of illness was not able to be in attendance. Several conferences were named to serve as an experiment to give guidance for the development of the conference curriculum. Mrs. Bristow was brought to Indianapolis for conference on the possibility of carrying on an experiment with the Central Conference in Kentucky. It was not possible to follow through with this project this year.

Promotional Financial Committee
This committee had its mid-year meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio, at Hotel Manse. In 1951 the year before this committee was organized the church schools reported to the treasurer before this convention $265.50. As a result of the excellent work of the committee the giving has more than tripled. Please note Exhibit “B.”

International Sunday School Convention
I attended the 23rd International Sunday School Convention which met in Cleveland, Ohio, July 27-31. This was one of the high experiences for me during the year. It was a real thrill to meet with Christians from around the world, people of different language and racial backgrounds and yet one in Christ Jesus. Certainly one was made to feel that God’s love transcends all racial barriers and brings us all together as a part of one great family of God.

Young Adult Work
The Young Adult had for the first time last year a workshop at the convention in St. Louis. Mr. J. D. Montgomery, Director of Christian Family Life, United Christian Missionary Society served as the resource leader. Mr. Hiram Hart was the chairman of the group. As a follow-up of a recommendation coming from the group the department produced a pamphlet in connection with the Department of Christian Family Life, United Christian Missionary Society entitled, “Young Adults Face the World, How the Church Can Help.” This pamphlet suggests several programs and projects that might be done by the group.

Young People’s Summer Conference
There were eight conferences this year and two Chi-Rho Camps sponsored by the National Convention Churches. Note Exhibit “C.”

All in all this has been a year of challenge. The question now is up to you and me. Will we accept it. We are beginning now Our Year of Christian Education. A year which will mean hard work if we are to meet the test of the hour and the teaching of Jesus made meaningful in the lives of people. It can be done only as we dedicate ourselves anew to the teaching program of the church. Teaching Christ is your task and mine, let’s not try to shun it.

A survey of ten colleges and universities of other communions and state-supported show a listing of 124 Disciples students enrolled. This means that unless the local church follows these young people we are likely to lose many of them. It is possible that other colleges would show a similar picture.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Miss Anna Belle Jackson

Mr. President, Board of Trustees, Officers and Friends of the National Christian Missionary Convention, Greetings:

Once again I submit to you a report of The Christian Women's Fellowship. With an area of work widely scattered as that of the National Convention Churches it is hard to repress the feeling that the work is being done in "dribbles," even though the worker has endeavored to serve wherever her services were required.

It is quite gratifying to me when a CWF group takes and uses the programs that are prepared for CWF groups and from that source builds a strong Fellowship among all women of the church. On the other hand there are some groups who are failing to use the suggested program and consequently are missing out on some of the vital issues concerning the missionary activities of the church today. More and more we are beginning to realize that missions is alive and cannot be promoted by individuals who are unaware of the current happenings around us each day.

Field services for the past year were as follows:

Eighth Street Christian Church, Kansas City, Kansas
December 5, 1954
It was a joy to share in the observance of Woman's Day with the Eighth Street Church on December 5, serving as Guest Speaker. The women in the church did a fine job in making plans for the event. Every woman participated to make the day a grand success.

December 7, 1954
While in that vicinity I had a special meeting with the members and pastor of the Institutional Christian Church, lifting up the work of the Christian Women's Fellowship and the National Convention as a whole.

December 8, 1954
Second Churches—Lawrence and Topeka
On December 8, I visited the Second Churches in Lawrence and Topeka holding a joint meeting where the National Convention was discussed again. Whole-hearted pledges were given to the work and it is only through the willingness of individuals to support the Cause that anything worthwhile can be accomplished. Only as one sees himself in relation to the task, can a job be done.

December 12, 1954
Morgan Avenue, Parsons
On December 12, I served as the Woman's Day speaker for the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Morgan Avenue Christian Church in Parsons, Kansas. The theme, "Partners of the Way," lent itself beautifully in showing how we can be partners of God in a magnificent task here on earth in Building His Kingdom.

January 10-15, 1955
Christian Education Assembly
The Christian Education Assembly of the Religious Education Department of the United Christian Missionary Society met at Spring Mill State Park for a meeting in January for the purpose of studying the strategy and mapping out new courses for the department. It also made new plans for the observance of "OUR YEAR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION." It was a very interesting experience as I had the chance to serve on the Adult Committee. Much thought and deliberation was given each item on the agenda before action was taken. The nature of the "INN" makes it quite conducive for hard work and our time was well spent as such.

Visit to the West Coast

February 7-March 3, 1955

I was invited to visit the churches on the West Coast, principally in the interest of the Christian Women's Fellowship, and served the following groups while there:

February 12, 1955

I had an invitation to meet with the Business and Professional Women's Group of Southern California. It was a joy to bring the devotional message to such a wide-awake group of working women. Mrs. Carnella Barnes serves as President for this organization.

February 13, 1955

I had the privilege to speak to the Cosmopolitan Christian Church congregation on Sunday, February 13th, and at Ninetieth Street Church on the evening of the same day. The women's organizations in both of these churches are not very strong, but I feel that with a good strong program of cultivation they would develop into fine groups.

I met with the Executive Committee of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the East Twenty-eighth Street Church. I found this group to be quite active and some well-founded plans were made for the months' activities. The following Sunday I served as morning speaker for the East Twenty-eighth Street Church.

Before going to the Second Church in Oakland I visited the State Office of the California Christian Missionary Society. Unfortunately the Secretary of the Christian Women's Fellowship was absent but we did get a chance to confer with the Executive Secretary and other members of the staff.

The church in Oakland is progressing nicely with a good number of interested women working in the church.

March 17-20, 1955

A local Church Institute was held at the Williamsburg Christian Church in Brooklyn, New York, with all the areas of work emphasized. For the first time two of the Directors and the Executive Secretary of the National Convention worked in a meeting together.

The congregation was divided according to the particular interest of the persons attending. A lot of hard work was done for three days and much was seemingly accomplished. A special program was given by the C.W.F. at Stuyvesant. Mrs. Lenora Rolla, Acting Second Vice-President of the convention and presiding officer of the C.W.F. Department gave some wonderful remarks about the work. She was also a worker in the Institute. The group at Stuyvesant are well organized into a working fellowship and from all evidences are using all of the women in the church.

March 25, 1955

A joint Institute for Christian Women's Fellowship Ministers was held with the Ross Street Christian Church in Montgomery, Alabama. Among our resource persons was Barton Hunter who brought a very challenging and inspiring message. The women of Alabama are very much interested in the matter of developing all women and made some very definite plans as to how this could be done. The ministers confess that they learned a lot about the C.W.F. program by listening to the reports coming from that group. Mrs. J. D. Conwell was asked to serve as resource leader for the women. Mrs. E. J. Dickson served as proxy for Mr. Webb in the ministers’ section.

C. W. F. Institute — Piedmont Area
April 15, 1955
An all day meeting was held in Martinsville, Virginia, for the C. W. F. of the Piedmont Area. Mrs. Vivianne Birnbaum served as resource leader and Mr. E. W. H. Henry, the Tri-State Worker, was very helpful with his ideas and suggestions. This was one of several institutes that have been held for the women in that area under the leadership of Mrs. E. E. Byers, the State President. More and more, the women are beginning to see that it is their work and not the work of the Director and as a result they are entering into the activities whole-heartedly.

C. W. F. Institute, Arkansas,
April 23, 1955
A one-day meeting was held at the Cross Street Christian Church in Little Rock, Arkansas. The attendance at this meeting was very small, but the willingness of the leaders and other workers to face the issues as they saw them and to dedicate themselves anew to the task made our efforts worthwhile. In relation to our study program one recommendation from this meeting was to have schools of missions in every church.

C. W. F. Spring Institute, Columbus, Ohio,
April 29, 1955
Under the capable leadership of Mrs. T. R. Everett, a one-day Institute was held at the East Second Street Church in Lexington, Kentucky, on May 14, 1955. The leaders of the C. W. F. groups in Kentucky met together to evaluate the work and to make plans for the future. Several women have been reached through attending such meetings as this who would not have been reached otherwise. We feel that meetings on the state level are very important and hope that leaders will still congregate to study the work together.

Committee Meetings
There are usually meetings that the Director must attend during the year in relation to her work, such as:

The Program Committee and National Board Meeting which met on April 12-13 to formulate the program for this session of the convention. Mr. Charles Sherman, serving as chairman, saw that the meeting was carried out smoothly and in a business-like manner.

Curriculum and Program Committee
May 23, 1955
I attended the C. P. C. meeting in St. Louis, Missouri, on May 23, 1955, serving on the Adult Work committee. A week was spent in reviewing and selecting themes for our next missionary year.

I also attended the Missionary Outreach committee meeting which again met in St. Louis, Missouri, June 1-2. This was the first meeting of this committee with Mr. Dudley Strain from Texas serving as chairman and the capable assistant of Mr. Bill Hall of Indianapolis, Indiana.

Other meetings attended were: The Trustee Meeting of the National Christian Missionary Convention on September 21-22. This meeting was called by the President shortly after the convention session in St. Louis, Missouri, to study the financial status of the convention and to devise ways and means for supplementing the budget.
The C. W. F. Field Staff met at Missions Building in Indianapolis. This is a very important meeting for all State Secretaries. Of major importance was the revision of the C. W. F. Manual. There were other interesting phases of the work presented such as the “Status of Women.” Mrs. Lenora Rolla was also in attendance at this meeting.

Conventions
Since the last convention I worked in the Washington Norfolk Assembly which met at the Free Grace Church, Manteo, North Carolina, October 5-9, 1955. It’s always amazing to me how well the people in that area support the assembly both spiritually and financially. They are slowly but surely accepting the suggestions that we offer and are themselves making contributions to the work in general.

The Goldsboro Raleigh Assembly which met October 20-24 was conducted very much on the same order. The financial report was very good and to my surprise Mrs. Daisy Parks had solicited $73.25 for Foreign Missions which is an indication that the women there have seen the vision and are willing to work and follow a planned program of missions.

Following the Goldsboro Assembly we went to Miami, Florida, where we joined thousands of people attending the International Convention. We heard many wonderful addresses and sermons built around the theme, “GOD OR MAMMON?” The experiences we received there cannot be compared to any others that we have had. Truly the spirit prevailed that we were “One in Christ Jesus.”

Kansas Convention
July 7-10, 1955
The Kansas State Convention met at the Eighth Street Christian Church July 7-10, 1955. The leaders in the convention are really launching out on the “Year of Christian Education.” A wonderful speaker was engaged for the afternoon period discussing, “The Church and the Supreme Court Decision.” The women’s worker was Mrs. Hele Schwab who was interesting and informative.

Kentucky State Convention,
July 19-24, 1955
I was responsible for the C. W. F. Workshop at the Kentucky Convention. We had an average of thirty women each day and some deep thought was given to the C. W. F. program on a state-wide level. The women were quite enthused about the Love Gift Project and voted to continue the project for another year.

Missouri State Convention
August 2-7, 1955
I attended and conducted the C. W. F. workshop at the Missouri Convention which was held in Columbia, Missouri. In the absence of the President of the C. W. F. the Vice-President carried on beautifully. Most of the group leaders were well informed about their study programs and made nice reports to the state.

Summer Conference—Beaufort, South Carolina
June 5-11, 1955
This year due to conflicting schedules I was only able to work in one Young People’s Summer Conference at Beaufort, South Carolina. This conference is new and the attendance was very small. With a faculty of five and nine in attendance we carried a full program. It was hard on teachers and students alike, but the joy that the students received through wholesome fellowship was compensation enough for us all. It is the hope of the Director that the state convention will undergird the conference program and that more young people will be enlisted to attend the conference next year.

Projects

The Love Gifts are being accepted widely among the women of the Brotherhood. The money received from this effort is to be used for the training of missionaries, nationals, doctors, nurses, etc., on the foreign fields. The amount that we give is a symbolism of our love for persons giving themselves to full-time Christian service abroad.

Capital for Kingdom Building

The Capital for Kingdom Building project which we so heartily accepted at the Roanoke Convention is yet unpaid. I sincerely hope that before we leave the convention this year that the debt might be eradicated. To date we have paid $1,730.00 leaving a balance of $270.00. Let's pay up and clear ourselves of the commitment we made.

Future Plans

As we have worked and planned together for these four and a half years we can see the need for a national planning body. Therefore, I would like to suggest that the President of our State C.W.F's come together and form a national planning committee whereby plans might be formulated and carried to the local C.W.F. groups for implementation and development.

We look forward to the future with the hope that our dreams and ambitions might be realized through the many changing ideas and programs that must be studied and tried until we no longer dream but having realized the importance of them, in proportion, they become realities.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL ACTION COMMISSION

This, the third annual report of this Commission to the Convention. The formation of such a Commission was authorized by the 1952 convention meeting at Los Angeles, for the purpose of alerting the convention churches and members of social issues that have bearing on the church's task and witness. Commission members were appointed by the Convention Trustees at their regular meeting in the fall of 1952. Since that time the members of the Commission have sought to discharge their responsibilities to the convention by giving serious study and attention to the current social scene. The annual reports made to this convention have been the chief means of calling attention to the implications of social forces for our church life and also sharing with the convention our conviction that the Christian Gospel has profound implications for every social issue in our time. Through resolutions brought to the convention through these annual reports, we have, as a convention, expressed our concern for a more Christian social order in the United States and overseas.

As a Commission we feel that we have been working long enough at the job to conclude that the function we serve is a necessary one for our convention. As a convention, we will continue to need the continuing contributions of some group that will make studied recommendations for our consideration and action in the area of social issues.

We feel that the effectiveness of the churches affiliated with the convention as witnesses to the Kingdom of God will be strengthened by enabling the Commission to follow-through on the beginning it has made on these three years. Consultation and conversation among Commission members has been conducted largely by mail. Meetings of the Commission have been restricted to getting together at Conventions. Recommended action has been delayed or postponed altogether because of the inability of the members to come together to consider issues.

Your Commission would like to see a Social Action Commission working in each of the State Conventions. Your Commission would like to see, also, a Social Action Committee in every church affiliated with the convention. We would like to arrange for leadership to help churches that are interested in organizing such a committee; we would like to help those congregations that have committees to develop a full program. We would like to do these things, so that the actions taken by this convention on the recommendation of the Commission could be carried out in each church.

Seeing these things that would increase the total witness of the church, we have included in our recommendations this year one that if acted upon favorably, would enable us to undertake a beginning of this wider program.

Some of the major events of the past year indicate the direction of and play their part in shaping man's destiny. Some of these major events were:

The Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches meeting at Evanston; the Bandung Conference of the leaders of the nations of Asia and Africa; the restoration of Austria and parts of Germany to the family of free nations; the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the establishing of the United Nations; the meeting "at the summit" in Geneva of President Eisenhower, Eden, Bulganin, and Faure; the first conference on the peaceful uses of Atomic power, sponsored by the United Nations, participated in by most of the nations of the world; the mood of peace, the lessening of International tensions that have characterized the statements of both Russia and the United States.

These events are barometers indicating the strong desire for peace, the continuing struggle for equality, the age-long hope that man will use economic and physical resources of the earth in ways that contribute to the community of all men.

Within the United States domestic events that indicate the trend are:

- The continued high level general economic prosperity; The United States Court May 31, 1955, decision that places responsibility for integration of the public schools on local and state authorities; The reactions of public officials, school authorities, churchmen, and others to the implications of this May 31 decision; The decline of Senator McCarthy as a political figure and of McCarthyism as the controlling mood in many communities.

Taking the social pulse of America is never easy, but the statistics and findings on the great variety of American behavior patterns indicate that in spite of the widely-heralded “Return to Religion” that supposedly characterized America, as a people, we still spend more money on alcohol, or tobacco, or cosmetics, or entertainment than we do on education or church-related enterprises. And this nation claiming 60% of its people are church members! This is the great “social problem” that confronts the nation and which confronts our churches. How can the Christian Gospel, the fact of Christian community and brotherhood, be translated into the lives of our church members? How can the transforming power of Jesus Christ be brought to bear in our neighborhoods, our homes, our work situation, and our pocket-books?

One of the factors of our American life to which the church will need to give increasing attention is the new revolution in industry. “Automation” is the popular word, to describe the process of using electronically controlled machinery to do jobs previously requiring the presence of several skilled workers. This process as a process is to be welcomed as another step forward in man’s long journey to avoid physically-shattering drudgery. The social implications of the process that are in some industries, and just those that employ the most workers, the number of workers that will be dismissed as the “automation” process is perfected. Jobs will be eliminated, Families of such workers? How will the increased leisure time of industrial workers be used? The Guaranteed Annual Wage may be part of the answer for which workers are looking, but it will be an answer for only those who are employed. Has the Church a solution to the issues raised by “automation” as an economic fact with which we must live?

Other social problems affecting our local and national life, which the Church is called upon to analyze and to assist in solving are: Delinquency, Adequate Housing, Sanitation and Health, Increasing Educational Opportunity, Control of Gambling, and the Alcoholic Beverage Industry.

To take the last mentioned first: The control of gambling and the control of the alcoholic beverage industry are pressing problems because the cloak of respectability has been carefully fastened by those who profit most, upon both the lottery and the drinking of alcoholic beverage. Americans have come to accept lotteries as respectable and then go on to conclude that it is therefore Christian. We have, as a nation, had it drilled in our ears and flashed before our eyes with such skill that we have come to believe that “beer belongs.” In such an atmosphere of acceptance of the product, there is little disposition to keep controls effective on the makers of alcoholic beverages. The Church needs to keep aware of its responsibility to distinguish between what is legal and what is "righteous." It needs to study and publish widely for its membership the measured effects of gambling upon family and community life. And it needs to keep alive the concern of its members to find ways to protest effectively the expansion of liquor manufacturers, and their practical monopoly of advertising.

Several of the problems listed above have bearing, or are the point of focus, for an inventory of the continuing struggle to improve relationships between racial groups in America. Such an inventory provides reason for rejoicing and a place for sorrow. The Supreme Court's May 31 decision on the integration of public schools has brought various results. Some immediate gains for those of us who are committed to an integrated society; some temporary postponements.

Since the decision there has been increased activity in the organization of groups who oppose what is now the declared law of the land. So long as these groups are committed to the policy and practice of working within the means available to change the interpretation of the Constitution, they may contribute to the health of America by helping all of us to examine the alternatives which they can suggest. But where such organizations which oppose the law use unlawful means of suppression of speech and free association, violence and the threat of violence, economic reprisals and persecution to dominate any community, the Church shares the responsibility of supporting the persecuted and exposing the unlawful persecution.

Most of the constituent members of the National Council of Churches have gone on record approving the end of segregation in the schools, and calling upon their churches to give leadership to the solution of local issues. Increasingly, in the past year, church bodies have been passing resolutions calling for the ending of segregation within the congregational life. This has been true of the Disciples of Christ meeting in state conventions. Our brotherhood held its first Conference on Desegregation in June in which church and agency leaders discussed steps to be taken to eliminate all barriers of race. The Survey of Racial Practices of the Disciples of Christ made early this year has found that about 20% of the churches responding have persons of at least two racial backgrounds as members of the congregation. In contrast, less than 5% of those responding indicated that they would not welcome persons of other races as members.

It remains our conviction that racial barriers to full citizenship, opportunity and fellowship constitutes the major domestic social issue for Americans. And racial barriers to full Christian fellowship remains the major issue for American churches. As American citizens and Christians we must give our support to every organization and group that is working to bring full justice, full equality, full dignity to every person. Our churches of the Disciples of Christ, generally speaking have an aroused conscience that something must be done. We now must devote ourselves to the practical skills of overcoming present habit patterns of behavior and thinking, so that all barriers between God's children will be removed.

Let us never forget that full citizenship involves greater responsibility on our part. While we push for equality, let the churches prepare our people with the attitudes and skills that we expect of all persons to whom we give leadership and trust. Everyone of us has a part of his Christian vocation, the responsibility to initiate action in his own community to bring about full compliance with the Supreme Court's decision on the public schools. Everyone of us is required as part of his civic and Christian responsibility, to support with money and time the various groups that seek justice and equality through legal and economic means. Everyone of us shares the responsibility laid upon us by the Christian faith to work through our churches and the communities of which they are a part for the full realization of Christian brotherhood.

The churches of our convention must be increasingly concerned with the neighborhoods in which our people live. The customs and practices of the neighborhood do more to shape the lives of young people, children and adults than do the formal programs of education and preaching of our churches. Our churches must be concerned with the other institutions and agencies effecting for the lives of people good or ill in our neighborhoods. Christianity is concerned with the spiritual regeneration and the social redemption of every person. As Christ demonstrated, His Father and ours is concerned that men have nourishment for their bodies, minds and spirits.

Suitable housing, warm clothing, sufficient food, respect as a person, opportunity for developing the potentials of mind and body—all these are the concern of the Church because all these contribute to the development of whole persons.

The Church as the instrument through which God has chosen to gather into fellowship those who are followers of Jesus Christ, must earn through the service it renders the right to community leadership. It can lead man and the community to the constant examination of social, economic, and political practices in the light of the Christian Gospel. It can do this, however, only when the faithfulness of its members, the integrity of its leaders, and the genuineness of its love first directs it to remove from its congregational.
We submit the following resolutions for your serious consideration and action.

I. WORLD PEACE

We are followers of the Prince of Peace. The Christian Church is dedicated to working for a lasting peace among the people of the world. We are grateful for the "easing of tensions" in the international situation, but we know that as long as nations continue to stockpile hydrogen and atomic bombs, that as long as there are suspicions and hatreds between nations; that as long as we as a people are spending more for instruments of war than for the programs for peace, we are not doing all that is possible for peace.

Be it resolved therefore:
1. That we ask the Program Committee for our Convention in 1956 to arrange for a guest leader who will speak to the Convention and lead a workshop on the technical agencies of the United Nations, so that we can become more acquainted with what these agencies are doing for peace.
2. That we urge each church affiliated with the National Convention to observe World Order Sunday October 24, 1955, in the morning service through a sermon on peace, the United Nations, or the churches working for peace.
3. That since the suffering of persons made homeless by world tensions continues and will continue until new homes are found for them, we urge our Social Action Commission to explore with several of our churches and possibility of the churches resettling a refugee family.

Resolutions

II. ALCOHOL AND GAMBLING

The use of alcohol as a beverage and the increased acceptance of gambling among the people of America causes serious infection in our family life. Both these social practices are contributing factors to broken homes, juvenile delinquency, divorce, political corruption, and the increasing number of deaths on the highway.

Therefore be it resolved:
1. That we commend our brotherhood publications such as the Christian Evangelist for its continuing efforts through editorials and articles to keep this issue before our church people.
2. That our churches strengthen the protests already made to radio, television, newspapers, and magazines about the nature of the liquor advertising they carry. We suggest the following specific project for all the churches.
   That in April, 1956, a group in each church undertake the following: Using the March, 1956, magazines, to cut out each liquor ad and mail it to the magazine with a note which says: "We like your magazine but we do not like this kind of misleading advertising coming into our homes."
3. That our churches be encouraged to protest publicly the bringing of gambling or liquor establishments into the community near the church and that we continue to voice our opposition to legalizing gambling under the pretext of helping social service or religious groups.

Resolutions

III. EQUALITY OF PEOPLE

We call upon the joint committee that has been working on the matter of admission without regard to race to make a full report of its findings at the 1956 assembly of this Convention.

IV. THE CHURCH AND FAMILY LIFE

Vandalism by teen-agers has not decreased in the United States over the past year. One of the factors, if not the major factor, causing this destructive spirit in youth is the lack of parental affection and training. The home life of many of these destructive young people is less than adequate because of the absence of both parents from the home. Many of these mothers work in factories or other places. While we recognize the economic factors that bear upon this decision of both parents to be gainfully employed, we yet must express our concern that parents may deprive their children of essential attention and care by such arrangement and do what we can to help the young people of our communities find a wholesome and constructive life. While we work at the basic economic factors in such a situation, there are some things our churches can do to alleviate some of the community and family tensions that are the result of such neglected home life.

Therefore be it resolved:
1. That we encourage each church to study its community in terms of what recreational, nursery, or social needs of the young people the church can provide; and what needs which the church cannot meet, should be brought to the attention of community agencies.
2. That the church establish a regular monthly Family-Night at the church to which all families of the congregation would be invited for purposes of recreation and fellowship.

3. That each church explore the situation of its own members and find if there are ways that some families could be helped by arranging for the care of the children in those instances where both parents must work.

V. SOCIAL ACTION COMMISSION

The social witness of the churches to the concern of Christ for every human relationship would be strengthened by the work of a Committee on Social Education and Action in each church affiliated with the Convention. Some churches have such committees, but most do not. The Social Action Commission has been created by this Convention to give leadership to this important area of the Church’s task. Without a budget the work of this Commission has been limited to the preparing of an annual report to be made to the Convention with accompanying resolutions. With some money to be used for necessary travel for volunteer leaders, for regular meetings of the Commission, and for a minimum amount of research, the Commission could provide more definite help to those churches desiring to organize and implement a program of Social Action.

Therefore be it resolved:
That this convention request the Trustees to provide $600.00 to the social Action Commission to be used in the current year for:

a. Necessary travel and expenses for volunteer leaders who would help churches set up and organize social education and action committees.

b. The beginning of a regular program of research on matters of importance to this Convention.

c. Necessary expenses for the holding of regular meetings of the Commission for the planning of program in the area of the Church and social issues.

REPORT OF THE CHRISTIAN PLEA EDITOR
(From August 1, 1954, to July 31, 1955)
W. K. Fox, Editor

Introduction

The editor of The Christian Plea has endeavored to foster the interest of the National Christian Missionary Convention and the general brotherhood during the past 12 months through our national organ. The editorship aspect has been a privilege and pleasure; however, the response from patrons and potential supporters from the field has been weighed and found wanting.

The National Convention needs a better means for keeping its constituency (as well as other interested persons within the brotherhood) informed of its objectives and program progress. It has been expressed by many that the present publication is capable of meeting this need. However, it is the opinion of key brotherhood leadership that some type of plan needs to be adopted whereby a greater number of Disciples throughout our nation and the world could receive the benefit of a meaningful Convention release.

In order that we all might get the factual picture of the status quo of The Christian Plea, the editor is giving all of our basic financial details involving the management and editorship of our publication for the past twelve months. It is hoped that at this convention a bold, new and courageous step will be taken which will point toward a more vital Christian witness in our time.

Field of Activity of the Editor

1. He attended the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches of Christ held in Evanston, Illinois, last August, 1954. Reports of his impressions (for the six days he was there) and practical suggestions for the brotherhood appeared in the form of three successive articles in the October, November, and December issues of The Christian Plea.

2. He appeared in Port Gibson, Mississippi, at the memorial service for Elder I. C. Franklin in September, 1954, (in behalf of the National Christian Missionary Convention).

3. He attended two trustee board meetings and the program planning conference (all held in Indianapolis).

Promotional Efforts

1. Pastors of churches were singled out who have few or no subscribers within the membership and requested to support The Christian Plea through suggested “package deal” plans.

2. Strategically located white pastors in 25 churches were sent personal (air mail) letters asking for subscriptions or club sponsors.

3. Posted “Renew Your Subscription” plugs in regular releases of our publication.

4. In cooperation with The Christian Board of Publication, placed a promotional statement on the back of the Convention Notebook; this was used in the St. Louis Convention.

Major Problems

1. September 29, 1954, Mr. W. G. Krager of The Christian Board of Publishing (auditing department) discovered that “the charge should have been $109.53 for the month of February, 1954, which was erroneously omitted.” This has been added to a previous balance which has been lagging due to a lack of available funds.

2. At present we are behind in our payments to The Christian Board of Publication. (Supplemental receipts to the regular convention check of $133.00 trickle in at such a sluggish rate that we have not been able to keep up with obligations.) As of August 1, 1955, owed $343.48.

   NOTE: The following is the basic monthly financial need for publishing The Christian Plea. (Compare with actual expenditure in report.)

   $199.00—Our share for printing (without cuts, etc.).
   40.00—Management expense payable to editor.
   15.00—Mailing expense (without plate servicing).
   2.00—Postage.
   15.00—Secretarial or office machine service.

   $182.00—MINIMUM COST PER MONTH (not considering extras).
RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. The editor recommends that the Trustee Board consider a major revision of our program for a convention publication, and that such revision be set in motion within the next twelve months. The details of this proposal will be presented to the Trustee Board at this convention.

2. It is further recommended that "Loyalty Offerings" be taken in this convention to liquidate The Christian Plea indebtedness.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL BOARD
R. L. Saunders, Secretary

To the Officers and Delegates of the Thirty-ninth Annual National Christian Missionary Convention of the Disciples of Christ, Greetings:
As the Secretary of the Convention, I hereby submit this report of the National Board and Trustee meetings. The following meetings have been held:
Two (2) NATIONAL BOARD AND TRUSTEE MEETINGS
—one at the close of the 1954 Convention held in St. Louis, Missouri; and one (1) at the beginning of the 1955 Convention held at Dayton, Ohio.
The August, 1954, meeting concerned itself with the election of the Trustees for the New Year and the setting up of the organization for the new Convention year. The 1955 Board Meetings held at this session, reviewed the work of the Trustee Board meetings, special committees appointed by the Trustee Board during the year, and considered the Annual Reports of the Staff Workers, Treasurer, and Editor of the Christian Plea. The National Board feels that a commendable job has been done by the Officers and Staff of the National Christian Missionary Convention, and is grateful for the same.

During the year two (2) Trustee Meetings and one (1) meeting of the Administrative and Finance Committee have been held. These three meetings were held at the Second Christian Church in Indianapolis, Indiana, with the President of the Convention, R. H. Peoples, host pastor. All of the meetings were fairly well attended and the results of the meetings have been seen in the development and growth of our work.

The Trustee Board, in addition to listening to and considering the Quarterly Reports of the work done by the members of the Staff, Treasurer, and a report of the Editor of the Christian Plea, gave themselves to the consideration and discussion of many suggestions and recommendations that have made the work of the National Convention more effective during the year, and the years to come.

Some of the major concerns of the Trustee Board this year have been in the areas of Evangelism, Stewardship and Finance Promotion. The completion of the Rosa Page Welch Scholarship Fund, the project in Capital for Kingdom Building, Local Church concerns and will come before us at this 1955 Session of our National Convention for its consideration and adoption as a result of these Trustee meetings.

During the year a National Evangelism Workshop was held by the National Convention, which proved very successful and helpful to the local churches. This was the first of its kind to be held by the Convention. It was held with the Second Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. During the year a Finance Promotional Committee was set up. It is the hope of the Board that this Committee’s work will make for greater financial support to the work of the Convention.

Some of the important recommendations passed in the Board meetings which directly concerns the local churches are as follows:

RECOMMENDATION

FROM MINUTES OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

SEPTEMBER, 1954

(No. 5) We recommend that the Rosa Page Welch Scholarship Fund be set up under a special committee and that it be promoted on an individual basis; and that promotional expenses be allowed on a percentage basis decided on by the Trustees. (See revised statement in Minutes.)

(No. 6) We recommend that all future National Convention projects be planned far enough in advance to be incorporated into the total budget.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE (No. 6) We suggest that letters be written to state secretaries requesting that all Negro ministers and church leaders in the state be included in the initial planning of promotional assemblies held by brotherhood workers and that an invitation be extended to the Negro workers.

(No. 8) That the principle of the State Rally be preserved and promoted at the Annual Convention.

REPORT OF THE THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT

A. C. Stone

Mr. President, Members of the Board and Friends of the Convention:

Last year in St. Louis I accepted the office of Third Vice-President of the Convention and presiding officer of the Department of Christian Education, with deep humility and a feeling of not being capable of such a responsibility. However, because of the fine support of leaders like you it has been a real joy for me to serve.

This has been a year of challenge to me and one that has brought to me many opportunities for growth and development. I attended the CPC meeting at Spring Mill Inn, Mitchell, Indiana, serving on the Adult Committee section. I was also appointed Vice-Chairman of the Leadership Administrators section. It was my privilege to attend the Fall Planning Conference and Commission in Indianapolis Thanksgiving week-end. Out of that a special committee was appointed to give some study as to some specific plans on the Year of Christian Education emphasis. This committee met in St. Louis and as a result the leaflet entitled "This Is Where We Start" was produced. We also had a meeting of the Promotional and Finance Committee of the department in Cincinnati, at Hotel Mance. This committee met for the purpose of giving some thought to the church schools.
It was also my privilege to attend the Twenty-third International Sunday School Convention which met in Cleveland, Ohio, July 27-31. This was a very inspirational meeting with leaders in Christian Education gathered from all parts of the country and Canada, as well as other countries of the world. I want you to know that I count it a real privilege to have this opportunity to serve. It has been one of real joy as well as a challenge.

Now for what lies ahead. . . . We are now in Our Year of Christian Education." One which presents some real challenging goals for all our churches. These goals can be achieved and they must be if our church is to match the needs of this hour. I call on all of you to redouble your efforts and may I remind you that you will be called on to go the second round, but I have faith in all of you to believe that you will do it without complaining. In the name of our Lord and Master let us go forth now to put forth every effort to teach as never before.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE CHRISTIAN MEN’S FELLOWSHIP
S. W. Hylton, Sr.

Mr. President, Officers, Members and Friends of the Thirty-ninth Annual Session of the National Christian Missionary Convention:

This has been a happy privilege to serve with you and for you during the past twelve months, in carrying forward our great brotherhood program. We note with a degree of satisfaction the progress of the men’s work in their local Fellowship Groups and in their cooperation with both state and national programs. I see definite signs of advancement of the men of the churches to greater Christian Service in response to the call that has gone out, challenging all men to stand with Christ and His Church, in meeting the many and great needs of our world.

I shall give you a brief resume’ of my activities as President of the Christian Men’s Fellowship during the past year.

September—We held two important meetings with the men of Loudon Avenue Christian Church with good results.

October—I attended the Worker’s Planning Meeting held at Fayette Street Christian Church, in Martinsville, Virginia, where I made contact with State Presidents and other leaders in the Piedmont Tri-State Convention Christian Men’s Fellowship.

October 25-31—The International Convention of the Disciples of Christ was in session in Miami, Florida. As your delegate, it was one of the great experiences of my life. The theme of this Convention was, “God Or Mammon.” At this gathering I was impressed with the need for and support of this International Convention of the Disciples of Christ. Also, during the month of October, I attended the Men’s Day Service at Loudon Avenue Christian Church.

November—I had the opportunity to visit the Cleveland Avenue Christian Church, where I enjoyed a great fellowship, and spoke in the interest of the program of our National Christian Missionary Convention. The Roanoke Area Christian Men’s Fellowship held a dinner-meeting in November, 1954, and this enabled me to make some valuable contacts with State Workers of Virginia. While attending an Area Meeting of our District Christian Men’s Fellowship at Mt. Zion Christian Church at Floyd, Virginia, we met with representatives of four other Christian Men’s Fellowship groups in that area.

December—We held a one-day conference with leaders from West Virginia, Virginia, and North Carolina in regard to our work here in Piedmont Tri-State Area.

January—Attended the Quarterly Roanoke Area Christian Men's Fellowship dinner-meeting at First Christian Church, Roanoke, Virginia, and gained much information and help from those present.

March—Christian Men's Fellowship Retreat held with the Jerusalem Christian Church in Martinsville, Virginia. There we witnessed great inspirational messages and commitments to Christ by those in attendance.

April—Attended Area Meeting of the Christian Men's Fellowship; worked in the Program of Visitation of Loudon Avenue Christian Church, Roanoke, Virginia. Many added to the church.

May—Guest speaker both morning and afternoon with the Summit Avenue Christian Church, Dayton, Ohio. There we found a very active Christian Men's Fellowship Group headed by Brothers Butler and Owens and their pastor, Rev. Eli Wilbert. I also served as guest speaker at the Cleveland Avenue Church in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on the occasion of Men's Day. There we had very fine organized groups of men, under the leadership of Brother A. I. Terrell. In May I also visited the Twelfth Street Christian Church, Washington, D.C., and spoke to them on the work of the Convention and its great needs.

June—I served as guest speaker for the Men's Day service at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Roanoke; attended a special service for men at Loudon Avenue Christian Church, the Roanoke Area Meeting of C.M.F. meeting with the Bethan Christian Church.

August 3-7—The Piedmont Tri-State Christian Convention was held in Roanoke, Virginia. There the reports of Men's Work were very encouraging. One of the great disappointments of the year was that due to illness I was unable to attend the World's Convention held in Toronto, Canada, August 14-21. I had long looked forward to the fellowships and information which I might have gained from this Convention, and from working with the leaders in Christian Men's Fellowship groups throughout the world, as they assembled in Christian Men's Fellowship Commission, which met prior to the World's Convention.

As I have come in contact with the various Men's Fellowship groups throughout the year I have endeavored to bring them face to face with the great need for surrendering ourselves to Christ's Church and to His way of life.

I am very grateful to Rev. E. W. Henry of Roanoke, Virginia, our Evangelist and State Worker for the Piedmont Tri-State Convention for the very fine job he is doing in promoting the various departments of our church. He has been of great help to me.

I am also mindful of the counsel and cooperation that I have received from the President of this great Convention, our Executive Secretary, and other members of his staff, our ministers and leaders of this convention have all been very helpful.

Our plea has been to call men from the back rows of slowness and indifference to the front-line of active leadership in the Church of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

As we come to the close of this conventional year may we realize the mistakes of the past and with repentance of our failures, go forth with faith and courage, guided by the Spirit of Him Who gave us the great mission of teaching all nations. May we resolve in our hearts today to go forth from here to live, preach, teach, and work for this great program of Christian Education.
REPORT OF THE NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NATIONAL FRATERNAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES,
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, INC.

J. F. Whitfield

THE NATIONAL FRATERNAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES continues to urge the religious community of the United States to carry out its responsibility to support all agencies which are attempting to promote world peace, political and economic stability among peoples who have recently achieved a larger measure of freedom; social and spiritual growth in areas where peoples have been deprived of opportunities to develop their capacities and inclinations for expansion and progress.

THE COUNCIL HAS URGED SUPPORT OF UNITED NATIONS AND ITS AGENCIES. Because the United Nations is the best WORLD ORGANIZATION that has thus far been devised to promote with a measure of authority the cause of WORLD PEACE, the Council feels that the church has no other choice but to give unqualified support to this great organization, which, in spite of its many shortcomings, has achieved a significant amount of cooperation and practical support on the part of all co-political parties in our own Nation. Noticeable strides have been made since the end of WORLD WAR II in the way of achieving stability in Europe and parts of Asia. The COLD WAR has been kept cold; Korea has been pacified after a struggle that nobody wanted in particular; progress has been made in carrying out successfully practical POINT FOUR programs in several undeveloped countries, notably in Iraq, Egypt, India, Burma, and the Philippines.

THE FRATERNAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES SUPPORTED THE BANDUNG CONFERENCE. Very likely history will some day record that the Conference of the Colored Races at Bandung, Dutch East Indies, last spring did more to inspire success attitudes on the part of THE BIG FOUR World Leaders in Geneva, Switzerland, last July, than any other single factor. Bandung was a significant success in that for the first time in history such a great number of Colored Peoples came together to discuss their common political, economic, social and cultural problems and to adopt practical measures of solution or amelioration. No doubt this fact has had a salutary effect upon Russia, for, after all, the ruling class in Russia belongs not to the Colored Races, but to the Western European Caucasian with its Eastern European antecedents. Therefore, it is plain to observe that Russia's best interest is served when she attempts to work out world problems with England, France, Germany, and the United States rather than with China and Japan, exclusive of the interest and cooperation of England, France, Germany, and the United States. The National Fraternal Council urges support of future similar conferences, for they will increasingly deter military aggression in Europe and the United States, for fear of a greater menace which is less susceptible to control.

THE COUNCIL BELIEVES THAT OUR NUMBER ONE DOMESTIC PROBLEM, RACIAL SEGREGATION AS A SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY, COMES UNDER THE SCRUTINY OF BANDUNG AND GENEVA. No problem facing the United States in the last ten years has influenced its decision in matters of National and International statesmanship as has the problem of racial segregation as a social and economic policy. On every hand our country has had to meet and attempt to deal with this problem abroad as an international issue. European countries may have their class systems, Central Europe may have its religious regimentation, India may have its caste system, but all of this is never as embarrassing to those peoples in international politics as our policy of segregation on the sole ground of race and color and previous social status is to us. There are those of our citizens who are daily criticizing our Secretary of State and our diplomats for trying to show that the United States is fair and without racial prejudice by making concessions to China and India, and other underdeveloped countries. It is evident that if we did not have this problem here at home we could deal with those peoples more firmly in matters of state-craft. We almost always have to lean backward in our dealing with them in order not to appear that we have a superiority fixation, because we are often behaving so very badly at home in dealing with our social problem Number One. We are criticizing the United States Supreme Court for its decision outlawing federal enforcement of covenants restricting citizens in their rights to live where they can buy or rent living space, because of race or color, and declaring that segregation in public schools on account of race or color is unconstitutional, period. May we ask this Christian nation, if you please, what other kind of a decision could the Court have reached with the pressure of international politics, the searching of heart and conscience by honorable and honest men of integrity and responsibility from every geographical area of our Nation, we are persuaded that they could have rendered no other decision. The National Fraternal Council of Churches has exerted its influence in supporting our statesmen, our President, the Supreme Court and other individuals and groups in their praiseworthy efforts to create goodwill on the part of all so that our people may abide by the law of the land, even though it may be distasteful to some of us. The Council believes, hopes and prays that time and progressive living on the part of all of our citizens will result in the achievement of all that is sought in these two famous decisions.

RUMBLINGS OF LAWLESSNESS AND UNREST RESULTING FROM SUPREME COURT'S DESSEGREGATION DECISION CAUSE NATIONAL FRATERNAL COUNCIL LEADERS TO CALL ON PRESIDENT EISENHOWER AT THE WHITE HOUSE. It is now in the public press of our Nation to be read by all that there is open rebellion against the United States Supreme Court's Desegregation Decision in some parts of our Nation. The situation is some areas is growing no better. There are threats and intimidation and at least one or two murders have been reported as the result of outbreaks of lawlessness. So, on June 8, 1955, a conference was called at the White House in Washington, D.C., by the President of the Council, Bishop Edgar A. Love, and the Chairman of the Executive Board, Dr. W. H. Jornagin. Prior to meeting with the President, a meeting was held at two of the local churches to draw up a statement to be laid before the President and his advisors pointing up the essential factors which are disturbing to the public conscience of America in this social struggle.

On the date indicated above the delegation representing the National Fraternal Council of Churches met with the President at the White House. President Eisenhower, dressed in a double-breasted brown business suit, was ushered into the room by his aide, Mr. Raab. After an appropriate prayer was made by Dr. W. H. Borders, of Atlanta, Georgia, Dr. Jornagin introduced the delegation to which the President spoke very feelingly and the following document was placed before him:
President Dwight D. Eisenhower,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

The more than eight million members of the National Fraternal Council of Churches express through us their sincere appreciation to you for the strong emphasis you have given to the spiritual values in our national life. The past two years of your administration have given new hope to many millions of our own nation as well as to many other millions throughout the world. We commend the stand you have taken for justice to all people, freedom for all who deserve it, and honorable peace for the entire world.

A little more than two years ago, before you assumed the full responsibilities of President of our great nation, we submitted to you a memorandum setting forth some particulars which we hoped you would see fit to include in a progressive program designed to strengthen our country and to set in the midst of a darkened world a shining example of real democracy at work. Practically every item of our memorandum has had your attention and noticeable improvements have been effected in our national policies regarding minority groups in the country. The great single victory for American democracy in recent times was the May 17th Supreme Court anti-segregation ruling. Your appointment of a qualified Negro to a sub-Cabinet position in the Executive Branch of our Government, and another as a White House secretary, is testimony of your will to correct the inequities that have long existed in our representative system. The elimination of segregation in the Armed Services is a personal victory for you and a blessing for our country. All these things we applaud, and we recognize in them the strength of your leadership.

However, there are several areas of concern which still need your right leadership and the influence of your office to effect satisfactory adjustments in the interest of a healthy democracy.

1. The State of Mississippi has repudiated the Constitution of the United States. We ask the President to direct the U.S. Attorney-General to begin an intensive investigation for the purpose of prosecuting those who are guilty of violating civil rights that are guaranteed by the Constitution and the laws of the United States. We make this request for the following reasons:
   a. The Mississippi State Legislature has passed laws which are openly directed at limiting voting by Colored citizens solely because of race and defying the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in public schools.
   b. By exercising economic pressure through an organization known as Citizens Councils, certain residents of Mississippi seek to deprive Colored Citizens of the right to vote. Three Councils have created a pattern of public behavior that promotes violence. Rev. G. W. Lee, who actively worked to increase the number of Colored voters in Belzoni, Mississippi, was murdered the night of May 7th by an assailant who fired on him while he was driving a car.
   c. The evil of an election based on appeals to prejudice has reached all the way to the Senate of the United States. The Nation was shocked on May 5th when the Senior Senator from Mississippi, James O. Eastland, is now chairman of the powerful International Security Subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee, openly campaigned for re-election in 1954 on a platform of race-hate.

2. We urge that you issue a policy statement at once to require the builders, lenders, state and local governments, and all others who receive aid through direct grants, insurance, tax exemptions, or in any other form for building of rental or sale housing, slum clearance or development must agree that there will be no discrimination against renters, purchasers, or users of such housing or facilities because of race. The practices of the Federal Government in this field make it the greatest single force today in promoting racial segregation in housing. We are also conscious of the need to provide housing for the groups who are displaced by the slum clearance program, but who, because of low income, have no opportunity to get decent housing either outside the cleared area, or in new dwellings built when redevelopment is completed.

3. There is need for a policy statement declaring that as a condition of receiving Federal assistance for schools, hospitals, recreation areas, and all other programs, the states must agree that there will be no segregation or discrimination because of race, religion or national ancestry in the facilities made possible because of such grants.

5. The men and women of our fighting forces must not be required to bow to racial segregation at home or abroad.

6. Further attention should be given to the Negro as a Civil Service employee. Hundreds of thousands of them, many of whom are proficient, well-trained, conscientious, honest Negro men and women "have borne the burden in the heat of the day" without ever realizing aspirations to move above the GS-4 level. Meanwhile, others who are white, daily pass them by as advancements and promotions routinely become available. Your issuance of Executive Order 10590 establishing the President's Committee on Government Employment Policy on January 18th, 1955, brought great hope. This committee must undertake sweeping corrective measures if we are to eliminate continuing racial discrimination in the Federal Service. We ask that you insist upon getting periodic reports on the progress of the committee's work to make certain that it does not get bogged down either through its own inaction or because of resistance from Federal Agencies.

7. We urge you as Chief Executive to call upon the Congress to pass Civil Rights laws that will erase forever a Federal acquiescence to un-American practices of racial discrimination. Now is the time to seek protection for all against mob rule such as caused the death of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Moore, who were killed by a bomb explosion in their home in Florida on Christmas night, 1951. This is the time to insure that our citizens may obtain jobs for which they are qualified without regard to race, religion, or national origin. We must abolish the Poll Tax as a requirement for voting. We must guarantee by law for our citizens at home all of the noble objectives we seek to preserve throughout the free world.

We are fully aware that a healthy democracy depends upon the vigilance of the people to protect and affirm the freedoms which they cherish. It is in this spirit that we address ourselves to you in full knowledge that you respect and welcome our comments.

We pray that God’s blessings will continually be with you, and on your administration, that Justice and Peace be established in the world.

Most respectfully yours,

W. H. Jornagin,
Chairman, Executive Committee
Edgar A. Love, President
George W. Lucas,
Executive Secretary

THE NATIONAL FRATERNAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES DESERVES THE SUPPORT AND COOPERATION OF ALL WHO WORK FOR PEACE, ECONOMIC, POLITICAL, SOCIAL AND SPIRITUAL EXPRESSION AND EXPANSION THROUGH LEGAL AND PEACEFUL MEANS THROUGH THE CHURCH AS A WHOLE WITHOUT DENOMINATIONAL PROSCRIPTION OR RACIAL DISCRIMINATION. We are proud of the significant contribution the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) has made to this movement. We recommend that individual congregations send to the Executive Secretary, the Reverend G. W. Lucas, Dayton, Ohio, each year, the sum of $5.00 as a local church membership. Our fight for what the law guarantees is ours, but which is being denied us by some, has just begun. We are duty bound to give our moral and financial support that victory may be achieved on the side of those who stand for Christ and the Church.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON STAFF RELATIONSHIPS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Committee: Willard M. Wickizer, C. O. Hawley, R. H. Peoples

As the special committee faced the problems of staff relationships and responsibilities of the National Christian Missionary Convention it recognized several areas of concern which it feels require remedial action.

1. Financial Promotional Responsibility

It is the feeling of the committee that the staff of the convention, especially the Executive Secretary, is not given sufficient attention to the matter of financial promotion. The problem of financial cultivation of the churches and individuals constituent to the National Convention is basic for, unless resources are available, the whole structure of the convention will topple. The matter of financial support is a responsibility that must of necessity be carried largely by a staff for it involves field work and personal contact with the supporting constituency. The Board of Trustees can and should consider and approve general promotional plans and policies but the application of these policies and the execution of these plans must rest largely with the staff.

This is especially true of the Executive Secretary. It is his responsibility to bring to the Board of Trustees for its consideration and approval matters of financial policy and specific plans looking to the adequate support of the National Convention and then to operate within these policies and plans to the end that the program of the convention may be adequately supported. This is a responsibility which he cannot dodge or shift. Nothing can be allowed to take priority over it in his time schedule. In fixing the responsibilities of the Executive Secretary it is the feeling of the committee that this officer's duties in the field of cultivation of financial resources should be clearly spelled out and the priority of such duties definitely established. It will then be possible for the Board of Trustees and the convention to hold him responsible for such financial cultivation.

While directors on the staff are primarily responsible for program phases, they too, should share a certain degree of responsibility for the promotion of the resources that are required to undergird the program phases for which they are responsible. The Executive Secretary should see that each staff member is guided in definite promotional activities and each staff member should be personally concerned with the cultivation of resources. Much of the cultivation of resources on the part of staff members can be carried on concomitantly with their program promotion, but some time must be devoted directly to financial cultivation.

2. Regularly Scheduled Staff Meetings

While the staff reports that it holds staff meetings from time to time it would seem that such meetings are not regularly scheduled at stated intervals. If the staff is to work together as a team, if the thinking of each member is to be brought to bear on the total program, and if each is to understand his place in the total structure it would seem that regularly scheduled staff meetings of at least two days' duration should be held at least four times per year. This will not preclude the holdings of specially called meetings at irregular intervals but will insure a more definite correlation of function and more cooperative thinking.

3. Staff Relationships to Departments of the United Christian Missionary Society

The National Christian Missionary Convention does not seek to be primarily a program-planning agency for the local church. Rather, it is a channel through which the program conceived by the United Christian Missionary Society and its planning processes is carried to the local church. Staff members of the National Convention have a fine fraternal relation to the staffs of the various departments of the United Society and maintain many informal contacts. It is the feeling of the committee, however, that the relationship between staff members of the convention and corresponding departments of the United Society should be closer and on a more formal basis. The committee recommends, therefore, that the National Convention explore with the United Christian Missionary Society a basis of more adequate staff cooperation between the two agencies.

4. Staff Relationship to State Secretaries (White)

More and more state missionary societies which have been concerned almost entirely with the white churches in their respective states are becoming concerned with Negro churches as well. This raises the problem of the relationship of state secretaries and other state staff members (white) with state and national staffs serving Negro churches. The move in the direction of state missionary societies serving all churches within any given state is a desirable one but it should not eventuate in two unrelated approaches being made to Negro churches. In some manner correlation should be achieved at the state level.

The committee proposes that the Board of Trustees of the National Convention approach the National Association of State Secretaries with the proposal that a joint committee be created to study the problem of state relationships to Negro churches in an effort to discover a pattern that will be mutually agreeable and of most service to Negro congregations.

5. Meeting of Administrative Committee
With the Executive Secretary

In view of the fact that the Executive Secretary of the National Convention carries major responsibility for financial promotion and general administration it is the feeling of the committee that he should receive more guidance and counsel than at present from the administrative committee of the Board of Trustees. It is therefore proposed that the administrative committee meet at least four times each year in regularly scheduled meetings with the Executive Secretary for the purpose of giving him counsel and advising financial promotional and general administrative matters.

6. Impingements Between Executive Secretary and Director of Church Development and Evangelism

It would seem to the committee that there are certain impingements between the current responsibilities of the Executive Secretary and the Director of Church Development and Evangelism, especially in the fields of church establishment and church maintenance. Each of these staff members are involved in new church projects and church maintenance support of aided congregations. The committee feels that the Executive Secretary should not permit his time to be too greatly consumed with problems involving individual local church projects but should leave to the Director of Church Development and Evangelism the investigation, cultivation and supervision of all new church projects and church maintenance aided congregations. In so doing the Executive Secretary will have more time to devote to promotion and general administration.

7. Staff Responsibility for Layman’s Work

It would seem that staff responsibility for layman’s work has never been clearly fixed. The committee feels that this is a responsibility that can best be given at the present time to the Director of Church Development and Evangelism and so recommends.

STAFF DUTIES
Executive Secretary

In any consideration of the duties of the Executive Secretary it is well to have clearly in mind the provisions of Article VII, Section 7 of the constitution. This read as follows:

The duties of the Executive Secretary shall be those generally incumbent upon the Executive Secretary of a national church organization; shall have charge of the office and each department of work of the convention with the help of the national directors assigned to the specific phases of the work. He shall take his place with the executive secretaries of all cooperating agencies and boards in securing funds for our organized work. He shall give definite leadership to the committees, commissions and other groups authorized by the Convention. He shall coordinate the work of the staff members in their relationship to all agencies and boards. The Executive Secretary shall employ the office secretary and secretarial assistants with the approval of the Board of Trustees, as the work may require. He shall act under the direction of the Trustees in carrying on the work of the Convention not otherwise provided for in the constitution. The Executive Secretary and national directors shall satisfy such conditions of service as the Board of Trustees may impose.

YOUNG ADULT GROUP REPORT

August 23, 1955

In the absence of Mr. Herman Hart, Chairman of the Young Adult Group, who could not be with us this year, Miss Anna Overby of Second Christian Church, Indianapolis, Indiana, was selected as Acting Chairman. Gussie Palmer of Forest Avenue Christian Church, Dallas, Texas, as recorder. Mr. J. D. Montgomery was selected instructor of the Young Adult Group.

After the formal opening, there was a round-table discussion. The following churches were represented: Second Christian, Indianapolis, Ind.; Forest Avenue Christian Church, Dallas, Texas; Liberty Hill Christian Church, South Carolina, and United Christian Church, Michigan.

Local way in which Young Adults were working:

(1) Panel discussions; (2) Picnics and other outdoor activities;
(3) Fund-raising activities.

Young adults are those persons, both single and married, who are growing into adulthood. While there is no strict chronological limitation for young adults, the general areas of operation are: Study, Worship, Fellowship, Recreation and Service.

August 24, 1955—Wednesday

The workshop began with a review of the previous day’s work. A larger group was present. The Chairman of the Steering Committee, Miss Bessie Chandler, requested that a representative be selected from the Young Adult Group along with the chairman and instructor of the group. Gussie Palmer of Dallas, Texas, was selected.

At the conclusion of the review and revival period, a very interesting film of family life was shown. Young adults may help those persons and families who are unfamiliar with the facts of life through appreciation of love, counsel and help, films, and resources.

In order to start or reactivate a Young Adult group one must... first of all be interested and must seek to arouse interest in others. A class may be started in the church school. Meetings may be held on Sunday or other week days.

August 25, 1955—Thursday

The workshop on Thursday began with the continuation of the Hows and Essential Factors of starting a Young Adult Group.

First Steps

1. Be interested yourself.
2. Interest others.
3. Plan the program.
4. Organize the group.

5. Prospects—potential list.

Mr. Montgomery gave the group a briefing on the meeting with the Steering Committee. The yearly goal is training for 20% of the membership of the church.

The chairman of the Young Adult Group, Miss Anna Overby, asked that we break up into four groups with a chairman for each group, for the purpose of working out aims of goals for the groups and reconvening with the view to reconciling the information gathered in the groups.

What does the counselor do when he has got the Young Adult group together, started and functioning: (1) Counselor should stay at least a year or so if possible; (2) It is important that we begin now to train our leaders, also preparing places for the group, for in a few more years we will have twice as many young adults as we now have. A playlette on interesting a minister in the Young Adult Groups was given. Characters: Minister—Rev. Thomas J. Griffin, Oklahoma; Young Adult—Miss Alice Overby, Indiana; Young Adult—Mrs. T. Roberson, South Carolina.

After a very well-acted and effective performance, the group divided into three groups: (1) Planning a Program—Chairman, Miss Anna Overby; Workers, Lillian and Dixon and Reed; (2) Fellowship and Service Activities—Chairman, Mrs. T. Roberson; Miss Gladys Williams, Miss Anna Overby, Miss Wilhelmena Frazier; (3) Resource and Leaders—Chairman, Rev. E. W. Henry; Workers, Gussie Palmer, Ethel White, Mr. H. Anthony.

Buzz Session Reports

Officers—The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Holmes, our instructor. Her first instruction was that we be on time. First, have the Minutes of the past meeting. Have your secretary on hand. Have a roll call so that we know who is absent. Prepare an agenda. Attend to all business that is reported in your Minutes; new business, reports of committees and group reports. We were instructed that the President let other members preside some time in order to develop all women. Committee reports should all come in writing. Business meeting can be first or last during your regular meeting but do not let it take the spirit from your planned program. Insist that all participants prepare the material that will be used and be on time. We were instructed on the C.W.F. pattern concerning offices. There were a number of questions and answers which were too lengthy to record.

L. K. Everett, Secretary

Worship

Emphases stressed:
1. Worship is very important. It is our spiritual contact with God, our personal contact with Christ. Worship is reverence for God.
2. Worship requires careful planning.
3. Participants meet at least a half-hour previous to program and have a word of prayer together. Thoughtful planning should begin well in advance by a planning committee.
4. Prayer is a vital part of any worship service. Without it, there is no worship. Daily devotions should be a "must" in the life of every Christian.
5. The Worship Committee should relate itself to all the worship service in the total Church life. This can be done by working in close co-operation with the Pastor and other leaders of worship.
6. Worship Centers create an atmosphere of worship. Clean Churches induce reverence because cleanliness is next to Godliness.
7. Respect for worship should be stressed and strictly observed. Do not make unnecessary noises or movements during a worship service.
8. A relaxed body and mind are necessary for one to fully participate in a worship service. A real leader of worship demonstrates this quality and will cause her group to have a real worship experience.

Mrs. R. H. Peoples, Secretary
Study
The Study Chairman is responsible for the promotion and carrying out of the planned study materials as recommended. Open discussion was held and the following are some ways that women have used to further the use of the materials in order to reach all women: Sunday Bible classes, Weekly Study classes in the homes, Book Reviews by various members. Study materials for 1955-56 were discussed and how best to use them.

1. We recommend that the local C.W.F. groups secure and use the study materials for this year.
2. We recommend that the local groups inaugurate the C.W.F. Reading Plan.

Mrs. W. H. Wilhoit, Secretary

Service
Service Groups participated in local church activities and community projects such as: All Peoples Church, Avalon Community Center, Christmas Gifts to Shut-Ins and those who have served the local church, Church Improvement, Hospital Visitations, U.S.O., Health Centers, Red Cross and Bandages for patients.

Ways and means of financing church improvement were as follows: Apron Rally, Friendship Dinner, Pie-Selling, Mail Box, Rainy Day Bags and Coupon Rally.

We are proud of the significant contribution the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) has made to this movement.

We recommend that individual congregations be encouraged to take membership in the Council and send to the Executive Secretary G. W. Lucas, Dayton, Ohio, each year the sum of $5.00 as a local Church membership. Our fight for what the law guarantees is ours, but which is being denied by some, is just begun. We are duty bound to give our moral and financial support that victory may be achieved on the side of those who stand for Christ and the Church.

22. The General Board of the Pine Street Christian Church invites the N. C. M. C. to hold its Annual Session of 1958 with the Pine Street Church of Tulsa, Oklahoma. (Referred to Committee.)

23. That the Christian Men's Fellowship Project in Connection with the Taylor Fellowship House be opened for 1955-56 and that $1,000 be included in the Budget for this project. (Note: This item will appear in Income and Disbursements.)

Disciples of Christ,
National Christian Missionary Convention,
We have examined that statement of cash receipts and disbursements of the National Christian Missionary Convention, Disciples of Christ, Indianapolis, Indiana, for the period, August 1, 1954, to August 10, 1955, verified certain invoices and checked other accounting records and vouchers to the extent and by means we deemed necessary. Our examination including tracing cash receipts to deposits in bank (except $1,960.86 cash spent during 1954 Convention), verifying certain requisitions with checks and checking returned checks for proper endorsement, signature of maker and amount. Cash in bank ($46.39) as of August 10, 1955, was confirmed by direct correspondence with the depository. Our audit did not include an examination of all the transactions.

It is our opinion that, except for cash disbursements made at the 1954 Convention, this statement presents fairly the cash receipts and disbursements as shown by the books and accounting records of the National Christian Missionary Convention, Disciples of Christ, for the period, August 1, 1954, to August 10, 1955.
