GENERAL INTRODUCTION.

It can not be too forcibly enjoined on all who examine this Year-Book, that no pretensions to completeness are made for it. On the contrary, it is expressly claimed that its statistics are very incomplete.

The Committee having its publication in charge were forbidden to incur any expense in its preparation, and have furthermore been made to feel the great lack of organization in many quarters, and far from adequate organization in all. It has been a work of purely voluntary good-will on the part of all who have assisted them, and it may well be regarded as surprising that they have accomplished so much.

Of such statistics as they have been thus enabled to procure, and that are here presented, it is proper to say:

1. That only in States having well-established and vigorous State organizations—such as Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia—has it been possible to obtain even approximately full lists of the churches; and much less, their statistics.

2. In some of the States where we have organizations, and where our churches are very numerous—such as Kentucky, Georgia, Indiana, Texas, Arkansas—there has not been the same pains taken by the State organizations to gather statistics, and hence the Committee have not been able to procure even approximately full returns.

3. In other quarters—such as Tennessee and the majority of the Southern and far Western States and Territories—they have been obliged to depend on individual aid—generally on such preachers as were known to them. Hence their work here must be regarded as merely a beginning.

4. There is an immense scattered membership, especially in all the new States and Territories. Scarcely any effort has been made to even estimate the number of them, although it is known to be very large. In this work we can only refer to them here.

For further particulars regarding the various tables, all are referred to the Introductions to the several Parts.

For the preparation of succeeding numbers, it is especially requested that corrections and additions be sent to R. Moffett, 715 Logan Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

PART II.—MISSIONS.

INTRODUCTION TO PART II.

It is only just to state, with reference to the missions of the Disciples of Christ in this country, that their energies have been so absorbed in providing for their own rapid growth that it is only recently they have entered the foreign field.

They who have watched the prodigious growth of the Western States, absorbing all their own resources, and borrowing largely from older communities, to maintain themselves until well established, need not look farther for a parallel.

When due consideration is given to the fact that in half a century a body variously estimated at from 600,000 to 800,000 membership, has had to provide its entire equipment of houses, schools, presses, and all the necessaries of corporate existence and life, it is respectfully submitted that it is an achievement without parallel, and that allowance should be made for many short-comings in fields equally important. While undoubtedly a greater blessing would have attended an earlier work in foreign missions, it must be acknowledged that the record is not unnatural; and it may well be doubted whether more was ever done by any body of Christians, during the same period of existence and development, where the foreign movement was purely voluntary.

But whatever the work of former years, and whatever the cause, it is a joyful fact that the work of missions is now hearty, and rapidly growing in vigor and enthusiasm. The last ten years has witnessed a repeated multiplication of this work, and the augury for the future is most hopeful.

HOME MISSIONS.

THE GENERAL CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

THE association was organized October 24, 1849, in the city of Cincinnati. It was then called "The American Christian Missionary Society," and was incorporated by the Legislature of Ohio the following year. Alexander Campbell was elected President, and served as such until 1866. In 1869 its name was changed to "The General Christian Missionary Convention." It gave attention to both home and foreign missions until 1875, when, upon the organization of "The Foreign Christian Missionary Society," it turned attention exclusively to home missions. It does not, however, establish missions in States which have sufficient force to maintain efficient State organizations. The new States and Territories of the rapidly growing West, the States of the reviving South, and the Atlantic coast, are the fields in which the General Board is expected to establish and support missions. The following table exhibits its work for the year ending October 1, 1884:

California is the aggregate of State Board and Woman's Society. Kentucky is the aggregate of State Board, Southwest Kentucky, and Woman's Home Missionary Society. Ohio, Missouri, North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee include district accounts of labor and results. Indiana is the aggregate of State Board and Sunday-school Association. The estimates are based upon newspaper reports. The amount raised by State Boards for State work is over fifty thousand dollars. If to this we add the estimate for districts, the aggregate for State and district missions is $64,392.30; and if to this sum we add $16,832.00, we have $81,224.30—the aggregate collections by General and State organizations for home missions. The aggregate days show about eighty evangelists and missionaries for all their time.

RESOURCES.

MISSIONARY FUNDS.

The General Convention depends for missionary funds upon the following resources:
1. Memberships and Directorships.—Any member of the Church of Christ may become an annual member by the payment of five dollars; a life member by the payment of fifty dollars in five annual installments; a life director by the payment of one hundred dollars in five annual installments.
2. Church Contributions.—Any church may contribute by collections, or may pledge to pay for a life membership or directorship. Any church contributing ten dollars is entitled to send a delegate to the annual convention for that year.
3. Percentages.—State organizations may pay a definite percentage of their regular missionary funds to the general treasury. Such States are entitled to representation in the General Convention.

EXTENSION FUND.

The Convention has created a fund to be used for building houses of worship. This fund will be loaned on easy terms to churches needing aid to build. A committee has been appointed to manage this fund, viz.: C. H. Gould, A. S. Ludlow, Paris C. Brown, Henry Ranshaw, and S. G. Boyd. Contributions will be received for this fund. Address A. S. Ludlow, Wiggins Block, Cincinnati, O.

TRACT FUND.

The Convention also receives money to be used for distribution of tracts. The Tract Committee consists of R. T. Mathews, S. M. Jefferson, and A. McLean. Address A. McLean, Box 570, Cincinnati, O.

MINISTERIAL RELIEF FUND.

The Convention has also undertaken to raise a fund for the support of superannuated ministers. We have brethren in the ministry who have grown old in the faithful service of the Master. Some of these are now without the means to make their declining days comfortable. The Convention hopes to make this fund a blessing to all such. Ministerial Relief Board: S. M. Jefferson, N. S. Haynes, John Shouse, A. McLean, E. T. Williams, R. Moffett, W. K. Pendleton, L. L. Carpenter, and B. F. Clay. Applications for relief should be sent to E. T. Williams, Central Christian Church, Cincinnati, O.

Brethren desiring information concerning any of these funds, or wishing to contribute money to be used to advance any of these interests, may communicate with R. MOFFETT, Cor. Sec'y, 180 Elm street, Cincinnati, O., or 715 Logan avenue, Cleveland, O.

The growth of interest, which is shown by the increased receipts from year to year, is quite encouraging. The receipts from the first are as follows:

1876.....	$ 1,706.00	1881.....	13,178.46
1877.....	2,174.00	1882.....	25,063.94
1878.....	8,766.00	1883.....	25,504.85
1879.....	8,287.00	1884.....	27,001.84
1880.....	$12,144.00

The outlook is full of promise. The missionary spirit is spreading constantly. Churches and individuals that once stood aloof are now contributing regularly. Men and women of character and capacity are offering to go wherever the interests of the work may require to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ. Christian people everywhere are awaking from the slumber of ages to the recognition of a long neglected duty. The conviction is well-nigh universal that we must not relax our efforts until the world is redeemed.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The following form may be employed by persons desiring to donate a sum of money by will for the use of this Society:

"I give and bequeath to the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, the sum of $....., and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors for the same."

This must be incorporated in a properly executed will as one of its items, otherwise it will amount to nothing.

All business correspondence and remittances should be addressed to A. McLean, Corresponding Secretary, Box 570, Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE CHRISTIAN WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS.

This Society was organized in Cincinnati in October, 1874. Its object is to cultivate a missionary spirit, to encourage missionary effort in our churches, to disseminate missionary intelligence, and to secure systematic contributions for missionary purposes.

Any woman or child may become a member of this Society by contributing regularly a sum not less than one dollar per year to its funds.

Any number of women, members of the Society, may form an auxiliary to it.

The officers of this Society are: A President, a Corresponding and a Recording Secretary, and a general Treasurer, with the addition of a Vice-President and Secretary and two or more Managers from each State. These officers constitute the Executive Board or Committee, five of whom form a quorum for the transaction of business.

The Executive Board holds regular monthly meetings, and has power to fill all vacancies and make all necessary by-laws.

There is an Annual Mass Meeting of the Society, at which the report of the Board and of the Treasurer are made, officers are elected, and other business transacted, all members of the Society taking part therein.

This Society became an incorporated body in February, 1881.

It has an Endowment Fund, made up of life memberships and bequests, the principal of which can never be expended, but, being constantly loaned out upon only first-class security, the interest is appropriated to the support of heathen missions. This fund now amounts to $8,500.

Memorial and Church Extension Funds have also been created, the nucleus of the first of these being the sum of $500 given by the late lamented Judge Richard Reid, of Kentucky. The fund is therefore called the Reid Memorial, and is preserved and loaned out in the same manner as the Endowment.

Any one may become a Life Member of this Society by the payment of $25 within two years, in not more than two installments.

The receipts of the Society since its organization approximate $60,000. Its affairs are conducted upon strictly business plans, no money being disbursed except upon a warrant signed by the President and Secretary, the accompanying check of even date and number being made payable to the order of the President and endorsed by her.

No salaries are paid nor any remuneration given to any officer or member of the Society, except that a small allowance is made to the Treasurer.

The principal officers are:

Mrs. Maria Jameson, President.

Mrs. Sarah E. Shortridge, Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. L. A. Moore, Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Mary Cole, Treasurer.

Twenty-three States are represented in the Society, having officers connected with the Board, and four or five others have Auxiliary Societies and individual contributors.

The missionaries at this time employed are:

W. K. Azbill, Kingston, Jamaica.

Dr. C. E. Randall, Kolorama, Jamaica.

M. L. Streator, Helena, Montana.

Galen Wood, Deer Lodge, Montana.

W. T. Lear, Corvallis, Montana.

J. L. Phoenix, Anaconda, Montana.

James McGuire, Burnett, Nebraska.

Miss Mary Greybeil, India.

Miss Ada Boyd, India.

Miss Laura Kinsie, India.

Miss Mary Kingsbury, India.

The prospect upon every side is hopeful. The Lord has blessed whatever has been undertaken. The interest felt in this coöperative work among women seems to be steadily upon the increase, while the receipts of money each year are steadily in excess of the year past.

The following form may be employed by persons desiring to donate a sum of money by will for the use of this Society:

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to The Christian Woman's Board of Missions a corporation existing under the laws of Indiana, the sum of $....., and the receipt of the Treasurer therefor shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors for the same.

This must be incorporated in a properly executed will; otherwise it will amount to nothing. All business correspondence should be addressed to Mrs. S. E. Shortridge, 358 Home Ave., Indianapolis, and all remittances sent to Mrs. Mary Cole, 291 Broadway, Indianapolis.

PART III.—PREACHERS.

INTRODUCTION TO PART III.

It is proper to explain that the list of preachers is very far from complete. In the States of Ohio, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, California, Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina it may be regarded as approximately full; but in Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, Arkansas, and all the Southern and far Western States, it is extremely defective.

As an instance, the tables of the State of Tennessee were gathered in ten days' time, by application to about two hundred individuals, scattered over the State, only a small minority of whom reported. Yet the returns indicate a membership double or triple what was estimated by the most sanguine.

It is therefore hoped that all who find their own names, or those of others, omitted, will excuse the oversight as unavoidable under the circumstances, and will promptly forward corrections to R. MOFFETT, 715 Logan Avenue, Cleveland, O. This will prevent a recurrence of the oversight.

The names for Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi and Louisiana were hastily gathered, and too late for incorporation in the General List. It is believed that the whole list is short about twenty-five per cent. of completeness, indicating a register of about 4,000 preachers.

PART IV.—COLLEGES.

INTRODUCTION TO PART IV.

The table of our literary institutions can profess to be hardly more than a skeleton of what such a table should be.

Such meagre information as is here presented has been gleaned from the catalogues, where these could be procured, and in some cases not the latest. These catalogues are far from systematic in their reports, and it has often been impossible to learn some of the most important items from them. With regard to their resources, especially, it has been impossible to procure reliable information.

It has therefore been thought best to present, as fully as possible, the names, localities and Presidents of the various institutions, and with these particulars such few items as could readily be procured from the catalogues. Doubtless in succeeding numbers the deficiencies will be supplied, and a record made in the equipment and work comparable with the very respectable number of our institutions.

PART V.—LITERATURE.

INTRODUCTION TO PART V.

While in this Part the returns are more nearly complete than in any other, they are probably very far short of the completeness desired.

Having to depend mainly on the price-lists of the publishing houses, we have had no means of procuring the titles of works that are out of print, or published by other houses than those regarded as peculiarly our own.

Many books not now in the market have been rescued from partial oblivion, and some exertion made to procure a full list of authors, if not of their works. Any omission is due to the meager sources of information, and corrections will be received with the utmost pleasure.

The table of existing periodicals is probably very nearly complete, though it is not hoped that we have succeeded in procuring everything that should properly be entered in it. No attempt has been made to record the long file of defunct journals that have from time to time appeared. Some of them, notably the Millennial Harbinger, have been entered in the Book List, as they are now known only in book form.

The Committee will be greatly indebted for any information that will extend the Book and Tract Lists. It should be forwarded to R. Moffet, 715 Logan Avenue, Cleveland, O.

The aggregate circulation of the weekly newspapers is, in round numbers, 100,000 copies. The aggregate circulation of the monthlies is 30,000.

The aggregate circulation of the weekly illustrated Sunday-school papers is 110,000.

The aggregate circulation of the Sunday-school Teachers' monthlies is 15,000.

The aggregate circulation of the International Lesson sheets, weekly, monthly and quarterly, is 150,000.

These figures are compiled from reports submitted by the various publishing houses, except in the cases of papers that are new and comparatively small in circulation, which have been entered at an extremely moderate figure. The aim has been to underestimate, rather than overestimate.

The particulars in each case are withheld, owing to the objections of some, and the belief that they would produce dissatisfaction, as the extent of the circulation of papers is usually held a matter of private right.

Throughout, the intention has been to avoid all appearance of advertising one firm more than another, which could not have been done except by reporting only such items as are common to all, while the public are interested only in the aggregates, which are submitted without infringing on the rights of any.
