THE CHRISTIAN REGISTER: THE EDITOR'S FOREWORD

During the 1950s and early '60s the precursor of this journal, The College of the Bible Quarterly, from time to time published reprintings of important Disciple historical materials. Some of our readers enjoyed this feature, and when the current editor returned to the editorial chair he was asked to resume this republication program. This issue is the first of what is hoped will be several ventures along this line. If you like this policy please let us know by writing and making suggestions.

The Christian Register is, so far as can be determined, the first attempt of the Christian Churches to issue an international directory in separate form. There had been lists of churches and ministers in several periodicals, The Christian Messenger, and The Millennial Harbinger, for example, but no earlier attempt to list all churches, and most ministers (see the last page of this reprint) of the Restoration Movement has come down to us. This directory of 1848 is probably the first of all subsequent yearbooks and directories.

This is a rare work. This copy alone is recorded in the National Union Catalog, a publication of the Library of Congress that attempts to locate copies of all books in major American and Canadian libraries. There may be other copies but they are not available to historians through the published bibliographies. It is, however, listed in Claude E. Spencer's An Author Catalog of Disciples of Christ and Related Religious Groups; but the copy now at the Disciples of Christ Historical Society is a Xerox copy of the original at Lexington.

Alexander Wilford Hall, 1819-1902, is listed as the minister of the congregation at Lloydsville, Ohio, as well as the editor of the Gospel Proclamation, a journal of "primitive Christianity" published 1847 to May 1849. (Several libraries own files of this periodical, and there may be copies of the directory appended to these periodicals as it was in our library.) Hall was a voluminous writer and editor and there are twenty-seven entries under his name in the National Union Catalog. There are a number of articles listed in the indexes to the Christian-Evangelist and the Christian Standard. He was a medical doctor according to some allusions, but he published a booklet on healing without medicine; he wrote and published on baptism, immortality, evolution, the physical characteristics of sound, but, above all, as an opponent of universalism. His Universalism Against Itself, first published in 1855, stated in the edition of 1883 that publication has reached 65,000 copies. There are many references to his work on universalism in Disciple periodicals, some as recently as 1950 in the Christian-Evangelist.

No general biography of Dr. Hall has as yet been found, but he was living in New York City when he died. There is a brief sketch of him in Who Was Who.

The Christian Register has been extremely helpful to the library staff at Lexington Theological Seminary. It is a benchmark against which congregations and ministers can be checked. We hope that the readers of this Quarterly find it helpful and interesting.

Unfortunately, two of the pages of the original document would not reproduce legibly because of the dimness of the original printing. Accordingly, the unreadable portions of pages 32 and 35 have been recreated as accurately as possible and are printed on the page following the facsimile.

[EDITOR OF "THE GOSPEL PROCLAMATION."]

☞ We would say to the brethren, that from circumstances over which we had no controul we could make but 48 pages of the Register besides the cover, on which account the statistics are very much crowded, and some of necessity put upon the cover; but as it is all of one color it can be bound, as it is, in connection with the first vol., if thought necessary. We are also disappointed, for want of room, as we expected to present some valuable extracts from the pens of the different Editors. But so it is, and the reason, it is not necessary now to give. The Register next year shall be perfect in this respect, also containing an ALMANAC, and all the additional reports which are possible to obtain.

☞ SPECIAL REQUEST.—It is most affectionately requested of the brethren wherever this work in the providence of God may be sent and read, to forward the compiler all the additional reports which are possible to be obtained in their respective locations. And we would say that any brother who will make any important correction in the reports already given, or obtain any new reports and forward the same to us POST-PAID, shall have a copy of the Register and Almanac GRATIS. Address the compiler Loydsville, Belmont co., Ohio, by the first of June 1849. A. H.

THE CHRISTIAN REGISTER

PREFACE.

The Register is now before the reader for his inspection.

The collection and arrangement of the following statistics have been a matter of no ordinary amount of labor and perplexity; and are, we believe, as nearly perfect, as was possible to have made them under the circumstances, single handed and alone. We trust, however, that the Editing Brethren and Evangelists generally will aid us in completing the work at its next issue, when we hope that all mistakes will be corrected, and all additional reports will be given in, wherever a full report has not been made, so that it may fully answer the end for which it was intended.

The brethren have generally done well in helping us forward with the work, which favor we duly appreciate; yet one Editor, whose judgement is good in almost any thing, emphatically refused to aid us even so much as to publish a notice of the work, from the fact that he considered it a sin! And why? Because David brought a curse upon the Jewish nation for numbering Israel! (2 Sam. 24: 10,—15.) From all the correspondence we have had on the subject, we find this to be the principal, if not the only objection against a record of our numerical strength. We deem it expedient, therefore, to make a remark or two relative to this objection.

1. In the first place, men, who make this objection, should endeavor to maintain consistency. Yet the very Editor who first presented it, can, without any conscientious scruples, publish such notices as the following:—"We were organized in 1840, with 27 members: we now number over 100, and meet every Lord's day." Another writes—"Bro. M— labored for us some ten days, during which time 22 were added to the Lord by baptism. We now have a fine church of 130 members, and a good house of worship." It is no sin to number one congregation, and publish that fact to the world, yet if we publish the statistics of all the churches, it becomes sinful in the sight of Heaven!! We would advise our Brother to cease publishing "news from the churches", until he can answer the objection he has made to the Register.

2. The sin, in the case of David, did not lie in the bare fact of numbering Israel, but in the motive for which it was done. If the Brother will take the trouble to read the first of that chapter, he will find that satan (see margin) was the originator of that affair. No wonder, then, that the Lord did not approve of it! But if the sin lay in the fact of numbering Israel, then Joshua and Moses were both guilty before God. Let us see. "And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying; number the children of Levi.—And Moses numbered them according to the word of the Lord, as he had commanded him.” (Num. 3: 14, 16.) Here we have divine authority for numbering the people, which will certainly offset the other case. But we have said that the evil of numbering Israel consisted in the motive. Our motive in getting up this Register, if we understand ourself, is for the consternation of the enemies of God’s people, and the encouragement of his faithful servants. Have we any authority for this? We shall see. It appears that Elijah, the servant of God, was in great distress, supposing that he was left alone, and that all Israel had turned to the worship of idols, which caused his enemies to rejoice. But the Lord himself numbered his people, and gave Elijah a statistical report, that there were ‘seven thousand men in Israel’ that had not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. These glad tidings strengthened the old prophet’s heart.

3. But suppose it had been forbidden in the old Jewish economy, to number Israel, (which we see is not the fact,) what authority would that have now, since the old covenant has been abolished? Our Brother certainly does not wish us to imitate our Pedo-Baptist friends, by going back to the old covenant for directions how to proceed in the new! But you may ask us for our authority for numbering the disciples of Christ in the New Testament. Well, here it is, at the very commencement. “The number of the names together was about 120.” Acts 1: 15.

“And the same day there were added unto them about 3000 souls.” Acts 2: 41. “Howbeit, many of them which heard the word believed, and the number of the men was about 5000.” (Acts 4: 4.) Thus the Apostles kept a statistical report of their numerical strength, and the increase of their numbers, and we conceive we have a right to do the same. In the Revelations the report is carried out to a still greater extent. “I looked, and Lo! a Lamb stood on the Mt. Sion, and with him an hundred and forty four thousand.” (Rev. 14: 1.) In another place we read of 12000 being sealed out of each tribe of Israel; and still farther on in the future, we are informed that those engaged in the service of God were numbered and found to be “Ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands,” [Rev. 5: 11.] until finally there was “a great multitude, which no man could number,” (Rev. 7: 9.) and here is where the Christian Register must necessarily come to a close.

With these thoughts we submit the Register to the brotherhood, hoping that it may, in some measure, facilitate the spread of truth, or at least, that it will prove no hindrance to the onward cause of our blessed Master.

☞ The following preachers were reported in Ohio, but could not find room in their volume, as it was impossible to give the names of more than one preacher and one prominent man in each church with the present size of our page. We shall try, if possible, to have a different arrangement next year, so as to give the names of all the acknowledged preachers in the field.

D Parkison, E Dye, A Bentley, C Judd, E B Hubbard, C Bosworth, H Brockett, W Lanphere, E Williams, J Dowling, G Rice, I Reeder, L H Parkison, W G Wilson, J C Ashley.
