GOD'S "AMAZING GRACE"

Mrs. Buena Orene Cole, teacher, administrator and life-long servant of God, was inducted into the Centenarian Club of Oklahoma on January 4, 2002, at 3:00 p.m., having celebrated her one-hundredth birthday just hours earlier.

Mrs. Cole, one of 11 people in Eastern Oklahoma to reach the 100 mark in January, was initiated into the Centenarian Club by the Rev. Richard V. Zigiar, Executive Director of NEATs. Friends and family attending the ceremony included: her grandson Goldman G. Jacobs, Palm Springs, CA, granddaughter Donnetta Jacobs McMullen, and great grandson Justin David McMullen, both of Owasso, OK.

The ceremony was highlighted by the eloquent recitation of the poem "The Presence" by the honoree. Her warm smile and enunciation was a moving experience to those gathered. The love of a devoted daughter was evidenced in the introduction of the honoree by her daughter, Mrs. Suetta Cole Woodward of Tulsa, OK.

God's amazing grace has been a driving force through the entire life of this centenarian. At age 94, this servant of God celebrated 81 years of water baptism. She vividly recalled how it all happened. After the morning sermon the choir sang "Lord Jesus I long to be perfectly whole, and I want Thee forever to dwell in my soul..." She was age 12 when she made her confession of faith in Jesus Christ. One year later she was baptized in a lake in Palestine, TX. She also remembered her cousin Gomez was baptized with her and they both became members of Fulton Street Christian Church.

"Mother Cole" as affectionately addressed by friends, came from a family of preachers and was the wife of the late evangelist, Rev. Richard L. Cole for 55 years.

A great love of hers was the Christian Evangelistic Project Center which has provided scholarships for young people since 1976. The project was started with her husband, who encouraged college-bound students to strive for excellence and be examples of Christian living at home, school and church. Following his death Mrs. Cole became sole administrator of the center.

Deeply rooted in her Christian Faith, Mother Cole attributed her longevity to "A GOOD AND MODERATE LIFE, AND GENEALOGY." Her favorite hymn is "AMAZING GRACE", and words of wisdom "DO YOUR BEST IN WHATEVER TASK YOU HAVE TO DO, WITH GOD AS YOUR PARTNER....LIVE IN HIS PRESENCE."

Mrs. Cole, member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, provided outstanding leadership in educational, religious and community circles and received many awards and honors.

She holds a B.S. degree from Philander Smith College and Little Rock University. She was the first Afro-American woman to serve on the board of Arkansas Christian Women's Fellowship; served twice as State President, and Secretary of the National Christian Missionary Convention.

Mrs. Cole, a Christian Educator of deep humility, has been a faithful member of Second Christian Church, Tulsa, OK for the last 36 years. She is an ardent advocate for positive thinking, and has among her reading materials, the Bible, booklets and poems espousing optimism, excellency and successful living.

Mrs. Cole is honored in the Hall of Fame at the Martin Luther King Center in Muskogee, OK. She was honored by the Arkansas State Department of Education for exceptional work with young people. Mrs. Cole has enjoyed life due to her faith in God and recognition of His "AMAZING GRACE".

(Editorial note: Mrs. Woodward shared with The Oldtimers' Grapevine Newsletter on Monday, February 25, that her mother had received her greatest reward - earlier she had been called home to be with her Heavenly Father).

EDITOR'S NOTES

DEAR READER

Sharing of the many blessings experienced for the year. (Round-up 2001)

Joy in the family of Dave & Anne Alexander when son Doug decided to forego pursuing future relationship with the Episcopal Church and accepted a call from Antioch Christian Church and was elated to start serving January 1, 2002. David & Patty continue in good health and satisfying careers in Sacramento. Dave taught a course on evangelism and stewardship at LTS in the spring and is now planning more time for golf and a genealogy search. Anne, besides enjoying being grandmother, finds time to give care at the Alzheimer's Day Care Center most every Monday.

Bill & Dode Miller experienced both joy and sorrow in one week period when the family held a reunion at the home of Dode's 94-year-old mother the last of March and she was called to her heavenly home the following week. Just two months later, they enjoyed a most informative trip to Alaska. A Thanksgiving celebration was at the Outer Banks of North Carolina. Blessings continued in latter October when a new granddaughter was born bringing the total grands to twenty.

Ernest & Janice Newborn are basking in the lovely community of Claremont, CA, a community of 360 retired church professionals, however, the determining factor for this move was to be near their four grandchildren. Son Ernest II and wife, Josie, and their two sons (Josh & Joseph) live in the bay area. Daughter Mary Jo, and husband (Donald Wiggins) have a son, Nathan, and a daughter Meredith, who live in San Diego. Janice, recipient of the Church Women United "Year 2000 Valiant Women Award, is involved in the community, when not grandmothering. Ernest is serving as interim pastor with a local church and was presented the 2001 Distinguished Alumni Award by Christian Theological Seminary. He continues to serve as President of the Board of Oldtimers Newsletter.

Peter M. Margan and charming wife, Lynne, extended blessings in this season " when we all need a rebirth of hope". Peter, President of the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, unites with us in this historic prayer for light and hope in a season of darkness:

We unite with you in this historic prayer for light and hope
in a season of darkness:

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away
the works of darkness and put in the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility.

Romans 12:11-14

A mountain top experience for the most joyful volunteer we know, Maryily Hotz, was the 1951 class of Butler University at its 50th graduation anniversary reception, all alumni luncheon and gals banquet. She was honored to be amember of the steering committee and giving the banquet invocation, attended by 47 alumni. The other joy Marilyn shares was the 25th anniversary celebration of Habitat for Humanity which was hosted by Indianapolis. She shares that at this noon emotional gathering tears filled eyes of the crowd as Vernon Fuller, Habitat founder, presented Bibles and hugs to owners of 25 new-homes built during the summer. Former U.S. President, Jimmy Carter, long-time Habitat volunteer spoke at the evening celebration.

In the unfamiliar times and circumstances of 2001, friends and family are more precious than ever to Bill and Mary Helen Blackwell who struggled each day from June to mid November hoping for survival of grandson Fraser, who was suffering from a rare blood disease. The major agenda item on their gratitude list at the family gathering at Thanksgiving was the survival of 9-year-old Fraser.

Other joys included granddaughter Eliza again receiving first place in the County Social Studies Fair in Charleston; daughter Mary Byrd excelling as auction coordinator for WVPT-TV, for Harrisonburg and Charlottesville; and our 50th class reunion of Lynchburg College. This event was highlighted with Bill being presented the T. Gibson Hobbs Memorial Award for service to college, church and community. This is the college's highest alumni award.

The greatest blessing in the Jim and Lucy Reed household was Lucy's successful surgery. This wonderful talented musician entered the hospital for surgery and was dismissed three days later. Both her neurosurgeon and nephrologist give her very good reports. In mid July, Jim, with help from family and friends, moved into their new home at Robin Run. Several months later he found room in the two car garage for their car.

The Rev. Dr. William O. Howland, Jr. and wife Anne, celebrated their 50th anniversary with family and friends at the home of their daughter Mary Hurt, Midland, TX. during the holiday season. Bill, retired Sr. Minister of National City Christian Church, had just celebrated his 50th anniversary in the ministry a few months earlier.

Comments for the New Year

"I really enjoyed the last issue. I always learn something new and I like that." May Reed

"Dear Elder Haynes, just a note to thank you. Psalm 71:5 seemd as though G.W. (Rev. Dr. George W. Jones, deceased) was speaking since this was his hope. In his new home, I believe he is smiling... The Oldtimers' is splendid. Keep publishing. God Bless".
Frances Jones and Family

"If you haven't been to Alaska, GO!, exclaimed newly wed Pablo Stone and his wife Jenean". The dream of a lifetime for this happy couple was an extended vacation to Alaska. Jenean has been working on the Stone geneology and has traced this human rights activist lineage back to Barton W. Stone.

Pablo is active in the black mountain urban forest commission, the Martin Luther King Prayer Breakfast Board, Chamber music festival board and United Nations Association Board. He was recently appointed to the Disciples Peace Fellowship Executive Committee. He also represents North Carolina Disciples on the Board of the Commission on Religion and Appalachia and member of their new anti-racism team.

Just Transitioning

Got up this morning just running Around.
I finally said "stop!" and sat myself Down.
I was all out of breath when I got a HOT FLASH...
I scolded myself while letting it Pass.
I talked right out loud as i fanned my Face
Chided myself on slowing myPace.
Getting older and changing
can be rather Hard.
Before you get started you're feeling
Down-right tired.
I'll just keep myself busy;
my mind and my Heart.
I won't let me be lazy,
It wouldn't be smart.
Athought sometimes-it feels-things are coming Apart.
I remember the saying
"You're as young as you feel."
Yes, this is so true and life is so ooo oo Real.
I don't doubt now that I'll keep getting Older.
But God and His Word
will just make me Bolder.

A Lenten Prayer

Dear God, as we begin this season (journey) of Lent, help us not to rush too quickly to the empty tomb. Let us remember that there was no resurrection without first going through the wilderness, going through the cross. There is no triumph without seeking God's face, without submitting our way to God's will. Help me during this time of rededication, as I open my existence to you through discipline, prayer and fasting to listen to your guidance that I might follow your will now and forever more.

Amen

THAT DAY!

The sun rose, as always, from the blackness of night;

September 11 was dawning, the day took flight.

Many awakened from slumber like you and I.

Some started with coffee, juice, a song or a sigh,

Not wanting this day either to pass them by.

Shaved, showered, shampooed and dressed;

Most surely feeling confident, good, and blessed.

No one suspected what was coming in that hour;

Only God-Father and Son their Holy Power.

For others had prepared to threaten, maim and kill;

To take lives and joys in a way that seemed unreal.

But Lord, don't let us fret too long;

Let us pray for one another that we might be strong.

Time will heal every woe and care.

This, Jesus has shown us and will help us to bear.

Blessings surround us in a myriad of ways;

We need only to yeild, recognize life's each phase.

No woe is so great that God cannot attend;

God's love and Grace will always descend.

THIRD GENERATION DISCIPLE HONORED

Mrs. Eliza Husser-Cave, dedicated church and community worker, was named DISCIPLE OF THE YEAR, during the Regional Assembly of the Christian Church in South Carolina in late 2001. This is a coveted award presented to outstanding leaders in the region.

"In recognition of her extraordinary devotion to Christ and His Church, in all its manifestations, and for the outstanding example she has set both in season and out of season, the Regional Assembly honors Eliza Husser-Cave and give thanks to Almighty God for her"

Smilingly, Mrs. Cave accepted the award, saying "I feel humbled that I was chosen for the award and that people in the church feel that I was worthy. It is not every day you are honored for those things you enjoy doing for the church and the Lord."

The Rev. Donald Morris, pastor of First Christian Church (DOC) said "Mrs. Husser-Cave was very much deserving of this recognition. She has been active in church work ever since she was a child. Since living in this area, she's been special to our church. Community wise, the sorority that she belonged to in college and still belongs to is very active in the community."

Over the last 42 years, Eliza, as she is affectionately known, has served the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) locally, regionally, nationally and internationally. She has served as President of the State CWF, President of the National Convocation CWF and was a CWF representative to the Caribbean twice. Her outstanding leadership career began as Secretary to the State Convention. (Predecessor to the regional assembly).

Eliza has the distinction of having served on the Search Committees which called two General Ministers and President. They are the Rev. Dr. William C. Nichols, and the Rev. Dr. Richard L. Hamm. She has served on the General Board and Administrative Committee of The Christian Church (DOC), and the Board of Christmount Christian Assembly, Black Mountain, NC.

She currently serves as staff of the South Carolina Disciples Women and Elder at First Christian Church, Aiken, SC. Much of her life story is in a book published by the Christian Women's Fellowship. One of her favorite sayings is, "I can do all things through the help of the Lord"

The soft-spoken, personable Eliza Husser-Cave, a retired home economics teacher, credits her father and grandfather for inspiring her to give her life to Jesus Christ at an early age. The Poplar Hill Christian Church was founded by Grandfather IZIAH Husser.

We salute Eliza Husser-Cave for this distinguished recognition and thank God for her faithful service to Christ and the Church.

FIFTEENTH PRESIDENT OF LTS CALLED

"The presidential search process is now complete and on April 1, 2002, Dr. R. Robert Cueni will become the 15th President of Lexington Theological Seminary," is a quote taken from a special issue of the Lexington Theological Seminary Bulletin.

This was the statement of Rev. Dr. Harold R. Watkins, Interim President of Lexington, after a grueling, exhaustive search for the next God-blessed person who would fill this most important leadership position. Dr. Watkins added, "It has been my privilege to serve during this interim period between two presidents for whom I have great respect, Richard L. Harrison, Jr., and Robert Cueni."

Dr. Cueni is a well-known disciples pastor-scholar who served Country Club Christian Church, Kansas City, MO for the last 10 years. Prior to that ministry, he served churches in Texas, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan. In addition, he has authored seven books, his latest being "Questions of Faith for Inquiring Believers (C.S.S. Publishing, 2001).

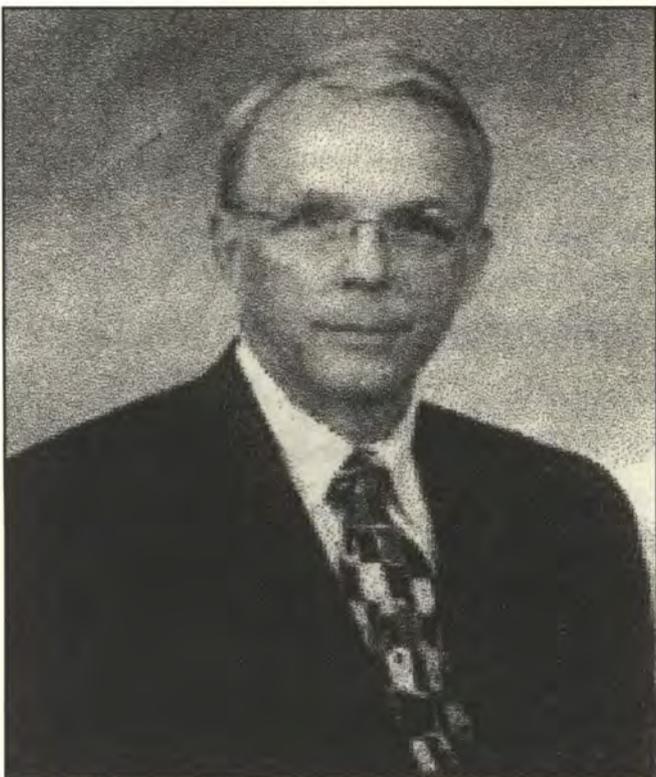

He believes his call to the position is a sign, "that Lexington is reaffirming its historical stand, which is to be primarily a place that produces leadership for the church - grass roots leadership - particularly the training of pastoral ministers.” “We have to have leaders well entrenched in the story of who we are as Disciples,” said the new seminary president.

Dr. Cueni exclaimed, “I want to help shape leaders who know the distinctive nature of being Disciple, which is, by definition, ecumenical. But we are not generic ecumenists. There is a distinctiveness about disciples.” What is it?

The Seminary’s new president has served on the General Board of the Christian Church (DOC), the Task Force on New Church Establishment, the National City Christian Church Foundation, Washington, D.C., and several other church-related and secular boards and committees.

THE REV. DR. ERNEST NEWBORN HONORED

The Rev. Dr. Ernest J. Newborn, Associate Editor of the OLDTIMERS GRAPEVINE and President of the Board of Directors, has been elected Distinguished Alumni of Christian Theological Seminary, Indianapolis, IN. He is one of three outstanding religious leaders to be so honored by the Seminary this year.

Newborn’s career has included being senior pastor for congregations in three states and the District of Columbia, Administrative Director of Reconciliation and administrative positions as well as work with the General and Regional Church. He has played significant roles in ecumenical work as well.

Another significant honor was bestowed upon him at the 28th Annual Black Ministers Retreat in the observance of his fifty years of Ordination to Christian Ministry. “On behalf of the Christian Church (DOC) in the United States and Canada, the Board of Directors and Staff of the Division of Homeland Ministries and those gathered here salute you,” declared the Rev. Dr. Raymond E. Brown, Interim President.

“We rejoice that in your many years as a faithful and committed preacher, teacher and mentor, you have led so many men, women, youth and children to new life in the Lord. We also praise God for the many times when people were transformed by the witness of a faithful life and committed servant.”

“On behalf of a grateful church, we pray that you will continue to share your deep faith and wisdom with all who seek God’s love and presence. The ministry to which God called you continues in you and in all those whose lives you have touched.”

In a past conversation with the editor of the Oldtimers’ Grapevine, Dr. Newborn said “I would most likely have become a Methodist,” had it not been for the Twelfth Street Christian Church (DOC), in Washington, D.C., “allowing me to practice preaching and teaching while a student at Howard University Divinity School.”

Retirees Launch New Magazine

Two retired print media professionals, anxious to respond to an important need in the life of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), have hastily come out of retirement and formed a not-for-profit corporation to launch a new denominational magazine. It will fill the void left by the demise of the Disciple Magazine.

These two very personable entrepreneurs are James C. Suggs, former president of the Christian Board of Publication, and Robert L. Friedly, former editor of the late Disciple Magazine. This new publication, which is expected to be released the end of April, 2002, is named “DISCIPLES WORLD”.

Disciples World is being sponsored by the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, one of the general units of the denomination. The magazine and a corresponding world wide web site will be operated by a nine-member board of directors, representative of all manifestations of the church.

The basic subscription rate for Disciples World, the new journal of news, opinion and mission, is $22.00 per year. A bundle for education and evangelism, 10 to 19 copies, will cost only $15.00 each for one year. The OLDTIMERS’ GRAPEVINE recommends a subscription in every home. We will be among the first to sign on!

THE POETS CORNER

Mankind's Mindset

Mankind is filled with knowledge
Of this we overflow.
But of true wisdom, understanding,
few in this life doth show.

Men today judge others by an acquired or earned degree.
Some simply lack the wisdom that would help set man's soul free.

We've learned all the proper phases,
labored through life's different stages;
We practice daily what to say
And will worry if folk think we are OK.

Blessings pass by day-by-day
when we lack God's Word or fail to say;
the simple truths that make us strong,
those truths that help our life prolong.

Unlock the door of mind and heart.
Let God's word enter and peace impart.
Enjoy life, the world, and all that's been given.

Deny the ways that make life driven.
Deny the Satan that grips and rivets.
For Jesus came, dies, and now is risen,
no Satan can hold the mind, the soul prison.

When Dan became Director the Center had a budget of $75,000. Upon his retirement the budget reports a healthy $10 million in capital improvements that include a Parent-Child Development Center, the O'Keefe Outdoor Gym, and 298 apartments for the elderly and those with mental disabilities. Dan has been able to bring nearly $9 million in grant to Inman to establish new programs.

The Inman Board of Directors has named Carol Edgerton Garcia to succeed Mr. Saucedo as Executive Director.

PASTOR TO HEAD RECONCILIATION

The Rev. T. Eugene Fisher, Sr., former pastor of Centennial Christian Church in St. Louis, MO, and Faith United Christian Church, Canton, OH., has been called as Minister of Reconciliation for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). He will give staff leadership to all aspects of the church's Reconciliation Mission.

In response to this call, Rev. Fisher declared "I am committed to this ministry, as well as the struggles that will go along with becoming an anti-racist/pro-reconciling church. I have spent much of my life building bridges. A bridge is only as viable as its anchors."

His work, he said, will be to shore up the anchors that we might build strong bridges that will stand up to the struggles that are still ahead. The Rev. Jessica Vasquez will continue with the Reconciliation Mission team as training coordinator.

Rev. Fisher is a former administrator at Light of the World Christian Church, Indianapolis, IN and youth Pastor at Oasis of Hope Baptist Church, Indianapolis. He has a Master of Divinity Degree from Christian Theological Seminary and a Bachelor of Science in business from Franklin University, Columbus, OH.

A HOLY GIFT

PREACHER, TEACHER, COUNSELOR-GOD'S ANOINTED

The multi-talented Disciples of Christ church leader in this 21st century, the acknowledged "senior" of a Christian couple recently honored for unparalleled stewardship, is the Rev. Dr. Harold "Hal" Watkins, retired president of Church Extension. Mrs. Evelyn Earlywine Watkins, the beauty and brains of this exceptional couple, humbly shares her gift for giving.

The most recent recognition of their stewardship came during the spring meeting of the Christian Church Foundation Board. They received the Foundation's highest honor: The Harry T. Ice Award for Philanthropy and Overall Commitment to the Christian Church.

Dr. Watkins, retired president of Church Extension (formerly known as the Board of Church Extension), just completed a term as interim president of Lexington Theological Seminary. He gave highest praise to retiring president, Dr. Richard L. Harrison and the Search Committee for selecting Lexington's new president, Rev. Dr. Robert Cueni.

During the award presentation several speakers praised the Watkins not only for their generosity but also for their intentional efforts to mentor young pastors. "Hal, you are a major influence on people, and through people, on this church we know and love," said the Rev. James Powell, president of Church Extension.

Rev. Gary Kidwell, senior president of Major Gifts and Development for the Foundation said, "Hal and Evelyn are a model of not only a great marriage, but a great ministerial partnership." Hal and Evelyn were married on June 18, 1950 and he was ordained two weeks later.

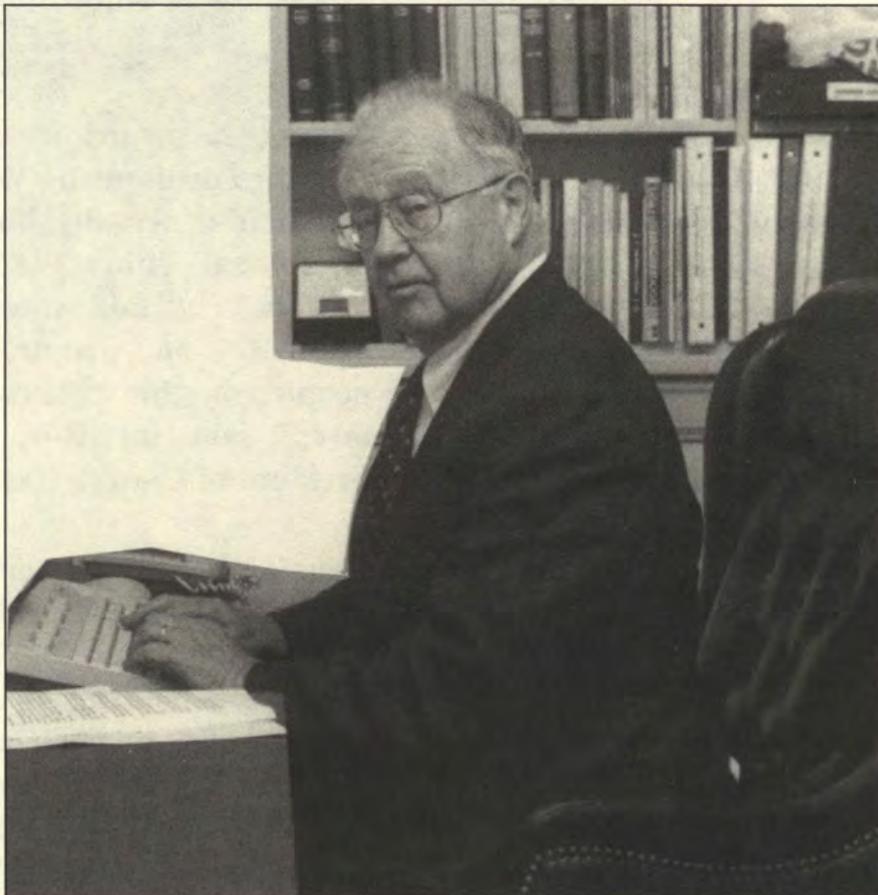

This Ohio native graduated Valedictorian from Wauseon High School in 1946 with letters in varsity basketball, football, and track. He was class president, editor of the yearbook, member of the choir and he played the tenor sax. The Rev. Wood was the first woman pastor of the 137-year-old historic and predominantly African-American Mt. Zion Congregational United Church of Christ in Cleveland, OH. "Bert's appointment brings new energy to our collective commitment to uniting around essentials of faith and mission," says the Rev. Lydia Veliko, chair of the search committee. According to Rev. Veliko, "She brings significant gifts in the areas of organizational skill, and sensitivity to the needs of individual member communions. She has won the respect of our many ecumenical communities."

The nine member communions include the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), African Methodist Episcopal Church, African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, Episcopal Church, International Council of Community Churches, Presbyterian Church (USA), United Church of Christ and United Methodist Church.

A PRAYER FOR THOSE GROWING OLDER

Lord, Thou knowest that I am growing older. Keep me from becoming talkative and possessed with the idea that I must express myself on every subject. Release me from the craving to straighten out everyone's affairs. Keep me from the recital of endless detail. Give me wings to get to the point. Seal my lips when I am inclined to tell of my aches and pains; they are increasing with the years and my love to speak of them grows sweeter as time goes by. Teach me the glorious lesson that occassionally I may be wrong. Make me thoughtful but not noseey; helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom and experience it does seem a pity not to use it all. But Thou knowest, Lord, that I want a few friends at the end.

Estes Park, CO

OVERHEARD

"Why can't you sleep?" the wife asks her husband, who is pacing the floor at 3a.m. "Honey, I borrowed $1,000 from Sam next door, and I owe it to him by tomorrow." says the husband, wringing his hands. "I just don't have the money!" The woman jumps out of bed and flings open the window. "Sam" she shouts, "Sam, Sam!" Finally, the groggy neighbor opens the window. "What is it?" he asks. "You know the thousand dollars my husband owes you? He doesn't have it." She slams the window shut. "Now," she tells her husband, "you go to sleep and let him pace the floor."

POET'S CORNER

Our poet-in-residence underwent surgery recently and was unable to supply a poem for this issue. We pray for a speedy and complete recovery. Please keep Mrs. May F. Lindsey Reed in your prayers.

Our guest author for this issue is:

*I am Mattie J.T. Stepanek,
My body has light skin,
Red blood, blue eyes, and blond hair.
Since I have mitochondrial myopathy,
I even have a trach, a ventilator, and oxygen.
Very poetic, I am, and very smart, too.
I am always brainstorming ideas and stories.
I am a survivor, but some day, I will see
My two brothers and one sister in Heaven.
When I grow up, I plan to become
A father, a writer, a public speaker,
And most of all, a peacemaker.
Whoever I am, and whatever happens,
I will always love my body and mind,
Even if it has different abilities
Than other people's bodies and minds.
I will always be happy, because
I will always be me.*

Denomination Mourns Loss of Kenneth L. Teegarden

The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) has been deeply saddened by the death of The Rev. Dr. Kenneth L. Teegarden, who died recently at his home in Fort Worth, TX at the age of 80. He had suffered an aneurysm in May and had been hospitalized since.

Dr. Teegarden retired in 1985 as the denomination's general minister and president. He first moved to Indianapolis, IN in 1965 as staff executive for the restructure process. He did much of the conceptualizing of the new structure for the denomination and was a relentless promoter of it. He served the maximum two six-year terms as GMP, from 1973-1985.

Reverend Teegarden has been credited with changing this 170-year-old American-born denomination from a collection of independent agencies and congregations to a more organized body with a representative general assembly. Prior to becoming GMP, he served church pastorates in Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas, and regional minister in Texas and Arkansas.

This caring church leader was recognized for not only being a sensitive pastor, but for ecumenical leadership and community involvement which included the Little Rock school integration efforts in 1957.

The current GMP, Richard L. Hamm, remembers Ken as one who helped shape my ministry as well as many other young ministers. He declared, "If Dale Fiers was the father of restructure, Ken Teegarden gave it specific form and made it work".

The Rev. Dr. William C. Nichols,

DISCIPLES NEWS ROUND-UP

Though he walked in the company of the powerful and famous, he remained humble, selfless and ready to serve wherever God led him. A saint, a scholar, and a human being much loved by a multitude of friends".

"I witnessed his pastoral heart, his love of the church, his integrity in living out the vision of covenant, and the joy and energy with which he served," declared the Rev. Dr. John O. Humbert, Deputy General Minister under Dr. Teegarden.

"Our church will forever bear the mark of his faithful and creative service as pastor of local congregations, regional minister, executive of the Commission on Brotherhood Restructure, General Minister and President. A grateful church joins his wife Wanda and family in grieving his loss while celebrating his wonderful life," stated the Rev. Dr. A. Dale Fiers, the first GMP of this 800,000 member denomination from 1968 to 1973.

DOUBLE DUTY DISCIPLE RETIRES

Charles Edward McGee, Colonel, USAF (RET) distinguished fighter aircraft pilot and National President of Tuskegee Airmen, Inc., stepped down from that position in August after four years. During that time he traveled extensively representing the famous Tuskegee Airmen, Inc., while maintaining active membership with North Chevy Chase Christian Church in Kensington, Maryland as Trustee, member of the Pastoral Relations Committee and Chair of the Elders. This congregation was pastored by the Rev. Dr. John O. Humbert before leaving for Indianapolis, Indiana where he later became General Minister and President of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada.

As one being blessed with boundless energy, Colonel McGee stated "I will continue traveling, attending Salute to Veterans events and in 2003 events related to the fiftieth anniversary of the Korean War and the 100th anniversary of "Powered Flight by the Wright Brothers" celebrations. With a warm, genuine smile he added, "periodic family visits to share time with ten grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

In mid December he was one of six notables from the history of aviation assembled at the National Air and Space Museum to begin a year celebrating the advent of powered flight. The line up included Neil Armstrong, astronaut; John Glenn, the first American to orbit the Earth; David Lee Hill, one of the famed Flying Tigers in WWII; Shannon Lucid, the astronaut who has spent more time in space than any other American; and Charles McGee, one of the legendary Tuskegee Airmen of World War II.

This Cleveland, Ohio native entered the Army Air Corps in 1942 interrupting his education at the University of Illinois and was commissioned in 1943, graduating in Class 43-F, Tuskegee Army Air Field. He remained on active duty 30 years becoming a Command Pilot with over 6,100 total hours.

He flew fighter aircraft combat tours in three major military conflicts; The P-39, P-47 and P-51 planes with the 302nd Fighter Squadron in Italy during WWII, the F-51 with the 67th Fighter Bomber Squadron in Korea, and the RF-4C with the 16th Tactical Reconnaissance Squadron in Vietnam.

Colonel McGee commanded the 44th Fighter Bomber Squadron in the Philippines, 1951-'53, the 7230th Support Squadron in Italy, 1961-'63, the 16th TRS 1967-'68 and Richards-Gebaur AFB, Missouri in 1972.

This much decorated hero has been awarded the Legion of Merit with Oak Leaf Cluster, Distinguished Flying Cross with Two Clusters; Bronze Star, Air Medal with 25 Clusters, Army Commendation Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal with Cluster, Presidential Unit Citation, Korean Presidential Unit Citation, The Hellenic Republic WWII Commemorative Medal and several campaign and service ribbons.

A true believer in Jesus Christ, Colonel McGee is the son of Lewis Allen McGee, a teacher, social worker and minister of the AME church. In his early boyhood days he joined the Boy Scouts of America where patriotic values of loyalty, bravery and service, consistent with his Christian upbringing, were strengthened. His quest for personal challenge moved him to the ranks of Eagle Scout. From scouting and church he gained an enduring sense of the importance of brotherhood and service to others.

In the mid-fifties, Colonel McGee, with his wife and three children settled in Kansas City, MO, the first year for school desegregation there. He and the family became active in the Christian Church at 2454 West Paseo Boulevard where the late Rev. S.S. Myers was pastor. Due to the ecumenical services in the military, Charles, an A.M.E. and his late wife, Frances, who was Baptist, chose this congregation. This church had the message, the music and the decorum he and Frances looked for in worship services, he explained.

Colonel McGee is a life member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, The NAACP, the Air Force Association, the Military Order of World Wars and Tuskegee Airmen, Inc. Other significant recognitions are: Scouting's Silver Beaver Award, the Airmen's General Noel F. Parrish Award, and the National Aeronautic Association's Prestigious Elder Statesman of Aviation Award.

(The Oldtimer's Grapevine staff recommends for your reading TUSKEEGEE AIRMAN, the biography of Charles E. McGee, for the rest of the story on this Double Duty Disciple. It is written by his daughter, Dr. Charlene Smith and published by Branden Publishing Company, 17 Station Street, Box 843 Brookline Village, Boston, MA 02447.)

A Prayer for the New Year

Help us to remember, O Lord, in this beginning of the year that the man who makes and breaks his New Year's resolves is at least better than the man who makes none. Deliver us from such sloth and self-satisfaction as see no evil and recognize no possible improvement or are too lazy to attempt the good. Give us courage to fail in a good cause, and determination never to cease striving toward that which God, His world and our own hearts tell us is worthwhile. Wherefore, O Lord, shall the world count its steps from that dark cross on Calvaryk if those steps be not really toil and slipping and bck-sliding and yet withal that forward-coming toward Thee.

Amen.

—W.E. B. Dubois (1868-1963)

OVERHEARD

Fire swept the plains and burned down the farmer's barn. While he surveyed the wreckage, his wife called their insurance company and asked them to send a check for $50,000, the amount of insurance on the barn. "We don't give you the money," a company official explained, "We replace the barn and all the equipment in it." "In that case," repied the wife, "cancel the policy I have on my husband."

Happy New Year!

The staff of the Oldtimer's Grapevine Newsletter wishes our readers a New Year filled with LOVE, PEACE AND JOY. May Almighty God keep you in His care and grant you the opportunity to celebrate New Year 2004.

POET'S CORNER

Life Means Adjusting

*Life is just livin
each day you're given,
not worrying about the rest.*

*Life is a mystery
soaked deep with history,
there's so much you can't learn it all.*

*Life seems to manifest
what's good, what's bad, what's raw.
So you deal with things as best you can;
And there's moments that'll cause you to bawl.*

*But the world just keeps turning,
nothing stays the same,
life certainly has its ups and downs.*

*If you learn to turn with it
and lean in the curves, you'll enjoy just being around.*

*In this coming New Year
why not plan to do
what's good, what's best, what's wise.
Share 'HIS WORD' rich and sweet;
fill the lonely, lost and bleak
and wondrously open their eyes.*
